CHARITY AFFAIR FINANCIAL SUCCESS AT ATLANTIC CITY

Proceeds of Ball Given at the Brighton Casino Wil Send One Hundred Little Invalids to the Shore-Other Resort News

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 28. THE charity ball given by Mrs. C. Tom-Ilinson Dare at the Brighton Casino, for the benefit of the Children's Scashore House, was a great social and financial success. Funds were raised for the care of 16) little invalids from the Philadelphia hospitals. Mr. and Mrs. De Cardo, who have been dancing at the Traymore all summer, gave two exhibition dances and Mr. Walter Jarvis and Miss Stahl danced Miss Mary G. Desmond, supervising a quaint polks. The favors were butterfly wands.

Mrs. Dare received in a supplire-blue gown, embroidered in silver and draped about the bodice with blue maline.

Mrs. A. G. Hetherington, who confesses to being a grandmother, was one of the most attractive and graceful dancers on the floor. Mrs. Hetherington were on this occasion a pale blue, satin-striped chiffon gown, unadorned with the exception of the opalescent band which outlined the decolleges. lined the decolletage.

Mrs. Welter Sheppard wore an exceedingly smart white satin gown, relieved with touches of black velvet aptly placed. Mrs. Florence Townsend wore a very handsome white lace gown, with the corsage formed of iridescent sequins.

Miss Elizabeth Phillips wore a black velvet picture hat, with her black net frock over white satin, built on Empire lines, with the bodice formed of turquoise satin embroidered in silver. Mrs. Charles Knittel were a black net gown elaborately garnitured with jet. Miss Elizabeth Kent, of Baltimore, wore draped gown of satin. A large pink

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Handlan gave a dinner party of 12 covers at the Shel-burne before the dance.

Mrs. William B. Loundenslager and her attractive daughter, Mrs. Kimber Mc-Williams, entertained at bridge at their home, Stenton Place and Pacific avenues, Chelsea, Thursday afternoon, for their house guest, Miss Marion Jenkins of Pittsburgh. Present were Mrs. Harry F. Weaver, Mrs. Jacob 7. Myers. Mrs. Prizer, Miss Elizabeth White, Mrs. John J. White, Mrs. Lewis T. Bryant, Mrs. Maurice Youngman, Mrs. Charles Martin Niles, Mrs. Albert H. CAPE MAY, Aug. 28.—There seems to be a dearth of large parties this season at Cape May, although many delightful small affairs take place, the invitations for which are usually given quite infor-mally over the telephone.

Mrs. Hornce Eugene Smith will give a bridge of four tables on Monday after-noon at her cottage on Beach avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Hutchinson, of Ashwood Farm, Devon, are spending the late summer in Cape May.

Mr. Ellicott Carver, who has been traveling in the West, having visited the Panama-Pacific Exposition and other points of interest, returned to Cape May this week to remain until the middle of September.

September. Miss Alice McCabe has returned from a short visit to Miss Edith Earle at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., at Haverford.

Quite a few debutantes of the coming season grace the resort at the present time, among them Miss Sarah S. Frank-lin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Buel Franklin, who will be presented at a tea in November. Miss Corinne B. Freeman, the charming young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walte. J. Freeman, of 1832 Spruce street, is also here for the remainder of the summer. She will make the debut during the winter. her debut during the winter.

Miss Gertrude Panconst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Panconst, who are occupying a cottage here, will also be a debutante, as will Miss Pansy Scott and Miss Mary Kay.

and Miss Mary Kay.

The handsome Mrs. Andrew Wheeler while on the beach the other morning looked raviebing in a frock of dove-gray volle. Rows of tiny plaits set in at the side of the skirt and on the blouse, finished off with tiny silver buttons, gave a smart touch and a sheer hand-embroidered collar and cuffs gave an attractive finish to the gown. The young matron's large flat hat was of white, trimmed with pink rosebuds. With her was her cunning little boy, "Jacky."

WILDWOOD, Aug. 28.-So great has been the automobile traffic into Wildwood this summer the main boulevard leading into the city from the mainland will have to be resurfaced this winter before the opening of the coming season. Cars carry-ing the license tags of States thousands of falles from the shore are noted arriving dully, and the drivers interview od state that the roads in New Jersew are unsur-pussed anywhere. The events of the week centered around

Thursday afternoon, when the annual Wildwood Baby Parade was staged on the Boardwalk. Hundreds of babies in the various classes were trundled in their beautifully decorated coaches, were wheeled in the big rolling chairs, or were carried along the route from the Casino Fier to the Ocean Fier. Two bands of nutsic enlivened the line of march, and hundreds of nurses and fond papas and manumas marghaled the peaceful army on the march to win the prizes, amounting to many hundreds of dollars. Youngsters from a dozen States were listed with the host from Philadelphia and summer residents. Miss Alice Hendee, daughter of Commissioner Hendee, who was elected by popular vote as queen of the baby carnival, presided over the afternoon and evening's festivities, with Miss Sarah Gould and Miss Sara MacLaughlin, of Philadelphia, as her ladies in watting, and in the evening received a beautiful diamond ring, while the two attendants each was presented with a diamond pen-dant La Valliere. The next important event of the sum-

There are only a few days remaining in August, and after Labor Day there will be a big rush to find the proper schools for your children. Many schools are rapidly filling to capacity, and parents who wait until the last minute

Ledger Central is very busy now helping parents to select schools, but we would much prefer that you send in your requests now and not wait until a day or two before school

We have many letters from grateful parents, which we will gladly show you, as proof of the efficient service we are giving. It is only reasonable to suppose that we can help you when our information is based upon actual investigation and not upon what
