

PERSONS, SCENES AND EVENTS THAT FIGURE IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY FROM DIVERS SOURCES

WE ALL TAKE AN INTEREST IN FASHIONS
Photo by Underwood & Underwood
So here is something known as a "fur cross combination" that fascinated Fifth avenue the other day. Note the high-topped boots, too.

HOW AN AEROPLANE LOOKS IN ATTACK ON SUBMARINE
A British aviator is reported to have sunk a submersible by dropping a bomb upon it. For this he received special commendation from the War Office. This picture, taken in practice, shows the enormous mass of water thrown up by an exploding bomb.

CHINESE CLOTHES, WHY NOT?

Miss Kathleen Howard, opera singer, shown here, contends that they are not only comfortable, but can be made strikingly beautiful.

RAILROAD OFFICE OPENS IN NEW WIDENER BUILDING
The first ticket sold in the new Philadelphia and Reading office went to S. W. Derr, of Germantown, bound for Washington Lane. The old office at 13th and Chestnut streets is closed, after 20 years of service.

WHERE A CANAL INTERFERED WITH A RAILROAD BELOW
At Trenton, N. J., the level of the Delaware and Raritan Canal is being raised to permit the largest locomotives of the Pennsylvania Railroad to pass through the tunnel beneath. Usually railroads prefer to pass over a canal instead of under it.
