Bernstorff and Lansing Agree on Interpretation

of German Note

WAIT U-BOAT REPORT

The United States is willing to arbi-trate the question of Germany's liability for the deaths of the two Americans who bot their lives in the sinking of the liner

Secretary of State Lansing explained to Count von Bernstofff, the German Am-bassador, at a 35-minute conference to-day, that he saw no real objection to day, that he saw no real objection to such a course. From confidential but trustworthy sources it was learned this afternoon that Count von Bernstorff discussed with Secretary Lansing the proposition of reaching an amicable understanding "on all of the questions between the United States and Germany." Within the mext ten days or two weeks Count was Bernstorff believes that every ques-

NO FINAL ARRANGEMENT

No final arrangement was reached at today's noon conference, it was learned. This was not taken as a denial of the theory that Lansing agreed to arbitra-tion on the justifiability of the Arabic at-tack. It was interpreted as implying that no general adjustment was effected. It was stated, however, that "no terms were proposed by the Ambassador or ac-pepted by Secretary Lansing." Bernstorff was said to consider that he "has every reason to feel hopeful."

The impression was that Lansing had utilined the American viewpoint and that sematorff was about to submit the matter to Herlin, trusting that the two gov-ernments will be able to get together. From the general mass of contradictory

FIRE ABOARD SHIP QUENCHED, READS WIRELESS FLASH

Dispatch Received From Captain of Sant'Anna, Ablaze in Hold

ANCONA IS ALONGSIDE

NEW YORK, Sept. 12 .- The fire aboard the Fabre liner Sant' Anna has been extinguished, according to a wireless mes sage received by her agents here this afternoon. She is proceeding on her course There are 338 Philadelphians, all but four Italian reservists, aboard the Sant' Anna The message was relayed to New York from the Cape Race wireless station.

"Fire in hold No. 2," the message read. Fire out. Proceeding to Azores, escorted by Ancona.

(Signed) "PAVEY." "Pavey," the name signed to the message, is Captain Franceis Pavey, of the Sant' Anna. The Ancona is the Italian liner which left New York for Naples eight hours behind the Sant' Anna and is believed to have been within two or three miles of the Febre liner when the fire was discovered.

Officers of the Italian line have received no advices, but it is assumed that the Ancona caught the Sant' Anna's distress signal last night and dashed castward to her assistance, arriving before noon to-day. It is assumed that other vessels closed in on the burning ship.

Captain Pavey's message did not dis-close the origin of the fire, which ship-ping agents say, may have been started by a spy. Officials of the Fabre line have cabled to Marseilles for full particulars.

An endless stream of wireless nussages was flashed out along the coast early to day calling assistance to the Sant' Anna. which is afire at sea, with 1941 souls on board, more than 1600 of them Italian reshervists. The Sant' Anna is about 1100 miles east by southeast of this port. All efforts to get in communication with the imperiled vessel's commander, Cap-tain Francols Pavy, had been unavailing until this afternoon.

1941 SOULS ON BOARD. The Sant' Anna carried 1765 passengers, of whom 19 were in the first cabin, 44 in the second cabin and 1703 in the steerage. Her crew numbered 175.

Four of the passengers in the first cabin one in the second cabin and 333 in the steerage are listed as coming from Philadelphia. The list of first-cabin passengers has

PIRATES TO PROTEST PHILS' 3-2 VICTORY

Complaint on Grounds of Interference When Barney Was Hit by Ball

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 13 .- The Pitteburgh National Baseball League Club has protested to President Tener the game won by Philadelphia Club here Saturday, by a score of 3 to 2. urday, by a score of 3 to 2. In the sighth inning Outfielder Barney, of Pittaburgh, was called out for inter-ference with his own batted ball, because, after laying down a bunt, the ball struck the bat a second time while he was getting away to first base. The Pittsburgh Club contends that in such a case a player cannot be called out for interference unless the interfer-ence is deliberate.

JOHN YOST

There is considerable division of opinon today among the people of Collegeerrora ville as to how John Yost, an employe of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, met his death. Yost's body was found Sunday along the railroad tracks.

Relatives of the dead man contend that te was murdered. His sweetheart, Edna Ullman, to whom he was to have given a diamond ring on the night of his death, believes that Yost was struck down by a man who held a life-long grudge against him. Yost had often remarked to her, she said, that this man had threatened his life. He told her he had too keep on

The man in question is said to be a prominent citizen of Lansdale, and as recently as two weeks ago. It is said, he re-newed his threats against Yost. Miss Uliman, a decidedly pretty girl, was on the verge of collapse today. This is her 24th birthday. She believes that the man who killed her sweetheart also took his money and the diamond ring, which he had intended as a gift on her birthday. The fact that only small change was found in the pockets of the dead man, a few hours after he had been seen in a cafe with a roll of bills, seems to bear out the murder theory, in the opinion of Coroner McGlathery, who is directing the investigation.

This is the second time that death has interfered with the marriage plans of Miss Uliman. Six years ago she was en-agged to Allan Kneer, a telegraph op-erator of Collegeville, but he died one nonth before the date set for the wed-

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 13.-The sensa-ional drop of over 50 cents in wheat, ince the crop was in sight, entailing ions of many millions to growers, has aroused farmers of North Dakota, who charge it to grain speculators and allied financial interests.
