HOUSE FIRED BY THIEVES Matches Believed, to Have Started

Blaze Near Cash Register

Thieves are believed to have caused a fire in the house at the southwest corner of 10th and Wolf streets, which shortly after inidnight threatened the lives of 12 persons, and caused considerable damage and excitement.

The fire was in the home of Max Lieber-

The fire was in the nome of Max Leber-man, who conducts a burcher shop on the first floor of the building. At the time the fire started he and his wife and their three children were asleep on the third floor. On the second floor was Harry Lieberman, his wife and four children. The two men led their families when they were aroused by their neighborn.

An investigation showed that the din-ling room window, on the first floor, was open. The fire started under a counter in the store, near the piace where the cash register stands. It is thought that the window was forced, and that in opening the cash register the thieves dropped a match in a pile of newspapers.

RUNAWAY GIRLS ARRESTED

Picked Up by Police After Begging Food for Several Days

Two runaway girls, 18 and 19 years old, who had managed to subsist for several days on scraps picked up in the neighborhood of Wayne Junction, were arraigned before Magistrata Pennock today at the Germantown police station. They said they were Edna Robinson 1079 Orleans street, and Florence Hummell, 1942 Orleans street, Newport News,

Both girls refused to say why they had come to Philadelphia, except for the statement that they "wanted to see the world." Polleeman Troxell, of the Gerworld." Polleeman Troxell, of the Germantown police station, arrested the girls late last night. For two days he has been looking for them, following the receipt of information that two girls were lounging about the Wayne Junction station and railroad yards. Troxell told Magistrate Pennock that the girls had got most of their food from brakemen, who fed them from dinner palls.

The runaways were sent back to Newport News today after the hearing.

Hudson's New Luxury Car The Touring Sedan-For All Seasons

This latest Hudson conception will meet the desires of thousands. A Touring Car when the windows are down. Fixed top, open sides, unobstructed view. Not a sash or a brace in the way.

With the windows raised, a luxurious Sedan. And the change can be made in a minute. Women will find here all the elegance of the finest electric brougham. All will find in this one model a car for winter or summer, for touring or for town.

Other Closed Hudsons-Nothing Too Fine For years Hudson designers have centered largely on bodies. That is, since they finished the new-type Hudson, which has won leading place among fine cars. We determined then to lead in body-building, too, particularly in luxurious closed bodies. signers worked out scores of conveniences.

Now Hudson closed bodies stand out as artistic master-pieces. Aglance shows their distinction. The details reveal a hundred pleasing surprises. Closed car luxury is here brought to its climax. Yet note Hudson prices. They will bring these envied comforts into ten-fold wider use.
