

A PAGE FROM THE OUT-OF-DOORS FITS ONE'S FRAME OF MIND ON A HOT DAY IN SEPTEMBER

A COOL PLUNGE IS THE BEST REMEDY FOR RAVAGES OF THE HEAT WAVES
However, the water in this "pizza pool" is hot even in freezing weather. It comes from a natural spring near this hotel in Banff, Alberta, Canada.

GOLF LINKS 5000 FEET ABOVE SEA LEVEL INSURE COOLNESS
These natural links are situated on a plateau surrounded by the towering, ice-clad peaks of the Canadian Rockies, also at Banff, Canada.

LAST CALL FOR BEACH PARTIES ON SAND
The warm weather has imparted longer life to the summer season at the shore, where this is a favored form of amusement.

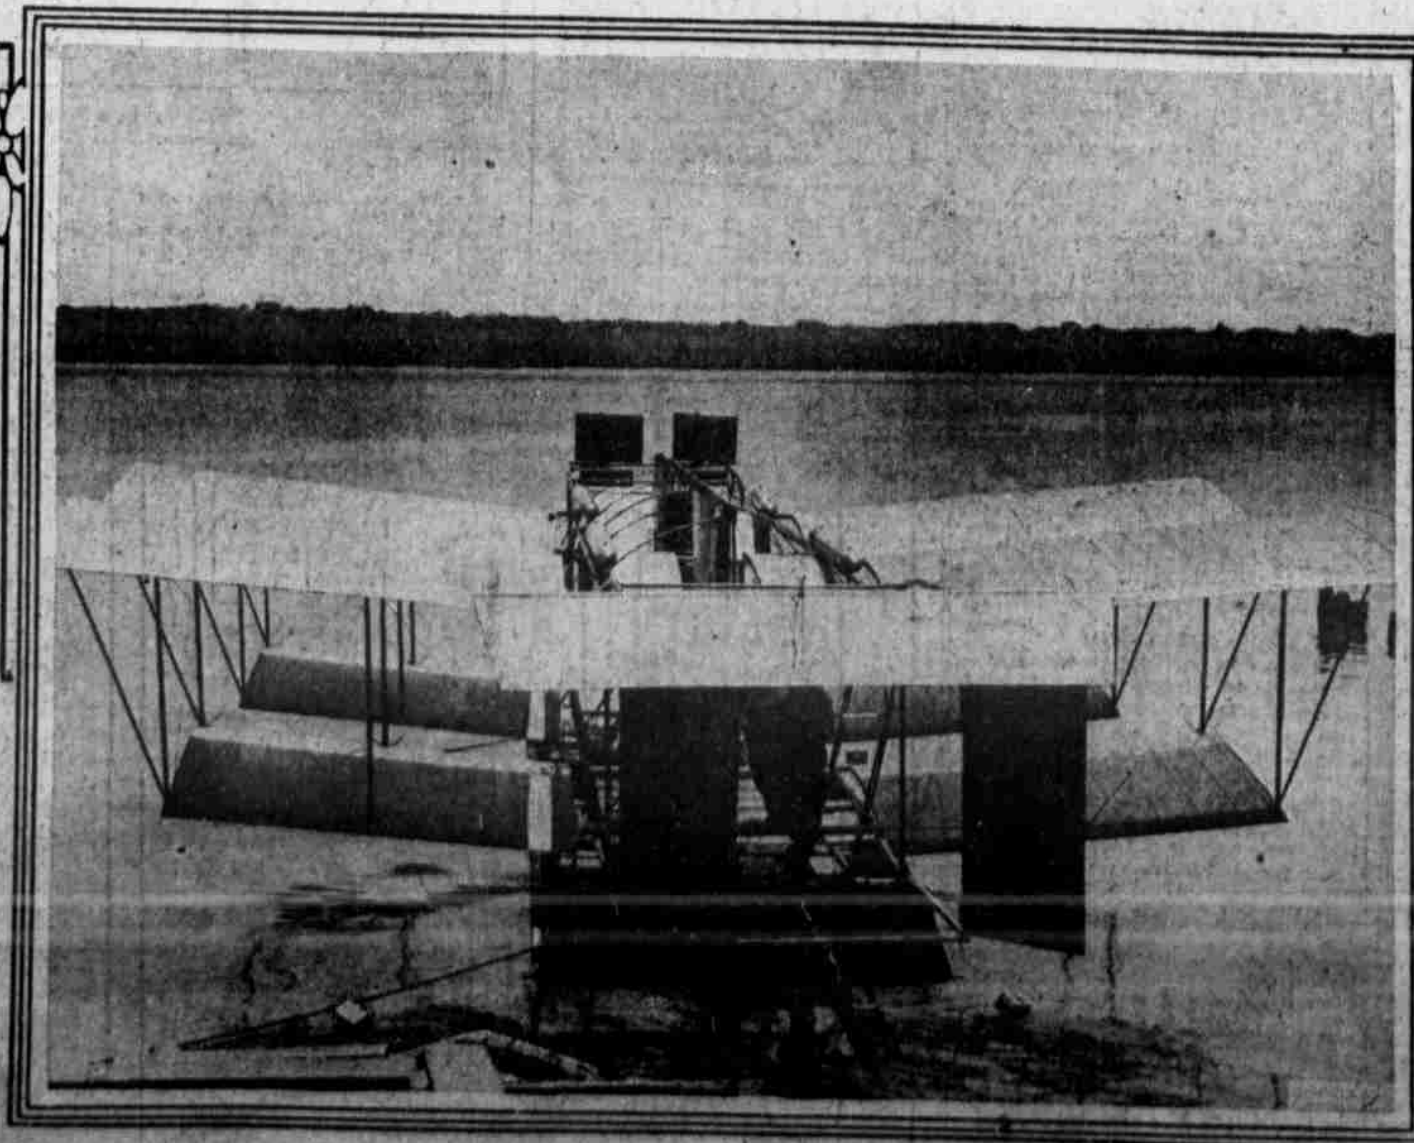

SURF POPULAR, THOUGH FALL IS HERE
One of the ladies here exhibited her opinion of the intruding photographer in this unmistakable fashion.

FOOTBALL AT 90 IN THE SHADE
Captain "Ed" Harris, of the Penn football team, wears practice togs meant for this sort of weather.

VETERAN AMATEUR
E. H. Burton is one of the most devoted among local business-men golfers.

NEW HYDRO-AEROPLANE UNDERGOING TESTS BY UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT
The machine is shown in a flight across the Potomac River. Especially noteworthy are its four planes on the side, with two in front and two behind. It can carry 20 passengers.

ANOTHER STUDENT OF THE GAME
J. N. Stearns is also a business man who likes a round on the links.

IBEE