5000 PHYSICIANS FROM ALL PARTS OF STATE HERE TODAY

Members of Pennsylvania Medical Association Assemble in City for Annual Session

BIG PROGRAM ARRANGED

More than 5000 physicians from all sec-tions of Pennsylvania are in Philadelphia today as delegates and guests to the 5th annual session of the Medical Society of annual season of Pennsylvania, which will be the State of Pennsylvania, which will be held in the Bellevue-Stratford from today held in the Bellevic-Stration from today intil Thursday. The meeting will open tonisht with the assembling of the House of Delegates, when various amendments to the consti-tuiton will be considered. The society has invited the members to bring their wives and children to the ses-tion, and for this reason it is to be the most memorable meeting ever held by the most memorable committee on Arrangesetety. The local Committee on Arrange-ments, of which Dr. Duffield Robinson is thairman, with the assistance of about 12 subcommittees, has been busily working throughout the summer to complete the elementic and entertainment program. No details have been overlooked, even the details have been overlooked, even the entertainment of the physicians having been considered and arranged for at various theatres. This has been done so that physicians from out of town will bring their wives and children along as apscial guests. Special efforts have also been made with the object of providing entertainment for the ladies.

MUST PASTOR QUIT AT COMMITTEE'S DESIRE?

The Rev. Dr. McAllister's Ques-, tion Answered Negatively by Congregational Ministers

The question whether a minister should resign the pastorship of a church at the request of a committee of church mem-bers, or wait until the entire congregation nified its desire for the resignation, a discussed by the Congregational disters' Association at a meeting held oday at 1816 Chestnut street.

The point was raised by the Rev. Dr Daniel McAllister, pastor of the Congre-sational Church of Mapleshade, N. J., who said he was confronted with such a position. He admitted that he had mised the members of the church to resign the pastorate when they were ready to install a resident pastor, but asserted that he was in doubt as to whether he should act upon the request of a committee, which might or might not represent the sentiment of the con-

Mayor Blankenburg, on the approach of his retirement, was warmly praised today at the weekty Baptist ministers' conference, held at the First Baptist Church, 17th and Sansom streets, for his "purification of the stage."

The Reformed Ministers' Association of Philadelphia held the first of its weekly meetings at the Reformed Church Build-ing, 15th and Race streets, today. The following officers were elected: The Rev. J. M. Izenberg, Trinity Church, president; the Rev. H. W. Westlar, Hope Church, vice president, and the Rev. Maurice Samson, Olivet Church, secretary and treasurer

The initial fall meeting of the Lutheran Ministerial Union, of the Philadelphia Conference of the Eastern Pennaylvania Synod, took place today in the assembly rooms of the Lutheran Publication So-, at 1422 Arch street. The president, Rev. I. W. Borst, pastor of the heran Church of the Reformation, Lutheran Carlisle and Ontario streets, occupied the

TWILIGHT SLEEPS FILMS BANNED IN NEW YORK

The Courts Now Arguing Over Showing of Medical Movies, Which Many Praise

By the Photoplay Editor The New York courts are trying to deide whether moving pictures explaining the "twilight sleep" shall be exhibited in New York. The license commissioner has interfered with their showing. Now the Medical Review of Reviews, the film's proprietor, asks court interference to permit the exhibition. The plaintiff in the action contends there is no sound reason why the picture should not be shown in New York, as it had been accepted in various other cities throughout the United States. Attached to the court papers is a letter from Mayor A. B. Wooldridge, of Austin, Tex., addressed "To Whom It May Concern," and reading as follows:

"Last evening, at the Bes-mar Theatre In this city, I witnessed an exhibition of what is designated as the "Twilight Sleep." A very full, intelligent, but not technical, lecture by Dr. K. E. Schlossing preceded the moving pictures. The lecture and pictures were entirely modest and be-coming to any audience in any comcoming to any audience in any com-munity. I commend the lecture of Doc-tor Schlossing and the moving pictures that follow it to the interest of any enlightened community wishing information on the vital matter of the birth of our children."

The plaintiff's lawyer says: "When we started to show this picture in New Or-leans there was some objection, and the Mayor of that city appointed five women as a committee to pass upon its merits. The committee unanimously approved of the picture, and it was thereafter pre-sented before mixed audiences in New Orleans. In such cities as Norwich, Bridgeport, Hartford and Middletown, Conn. there was not a single muritanical Conn., there was not a single puritanical whisper against the picture.

"It was also seen and favorably ac-cepted by mixed audiences in Waco, Austin, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Tex., and many other citles, including Wash-ington, D. C.; Springfield, Holyoke and Worcester, Mass.

"There is no exposure of any part of the body except the face and hands. The accompanying lecture is by Doctor Schlossing, one of the leading obstetri-clans and gynecologists of Germany. We make his affidavit a part of our moving pictures, along with scores of letters of commendation. "Mr. Bell bases his objection on the public treatment of the subject. He does not stop to think that it has already been exploited in hundreds of newspapers throughout the country." Mation pictures will be shown at Sym-phony Hall, in Boston, for the first time in the history of the house where the Boston Symphony Orchestra ans catered to music lovers for a decade. The oc-casion will be the appearance of Geraldine Farrar in "Carmen," the Paramount pro-gram picture, produced by the Lasky Company, on October 1. Popular prices will prevail, and an orchestra of 60 pieces is scheduled to render the music of the opera.
