

JUDGESHIP CONTESTS FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHTS IN COUNTY DISTRICTS

Indications Are That Many of the Old Incumbents Have Been Defeated at Primary

In the election in the State the great interest centered in the contests for judgeships. Under the new law it is a free-for-all for the nomination for Judge in the counties and the judicial districts. It is predicted that when the returns are completed it will be found many of the old Judges who have been for the first time before the people in primaries will be defeated.

The nominations for three Judges of the Superior Court was the only State-wide ticket. In the east there was little opposition to the two incumbents, who are candidates to succeed themselves, John B. Head, Democrat, of Westmoreland, and George B. Orady, of Huntingdon. The third candidate for Judge Rice's place is J. Henry Williams, of Philadelphia. These candidates have been endorsed by both the Democratic and Republican organizations, hence they will be named for places on the ticket.

Returns from scattered counties throughout the State indicate that Judge George B. Orady and Judge John B. Head were re-elected to the Superior Court at the primaries yesterday. There is a provision of the non-partisan judicial law that the primary candidate polling 51 per cent. of the total vote cast for the office shall be unopposed at the general elections. Judge Orady appears to have run unusually well in nearly every district, with Judge Head second. Both county, with Judge Head second. Both county, with Judge Head second. Both county, with Judge Head second.

The liquor element in western Pennsylvania feels kindly toward ex-Judge Wallace, of Lawrenceville, who has not made the showing expected.

Early indications last night are that Robert S. Gawthrop, of Chester County, has won the nomination for Judge on the Republican ticket.

In Montgomery County the vote favored John Faber Miller.

In Bucks County the Republican and Democratic slates went through without any opposition.

City Treasurer Reichenbach is named for Mayor of Allentown with no opposition.

Up in Venango County a determined effort was made by the liquor men to defeat Judge Criteswell because he wiped out the 22 licenses in the town, after having granted them the previous year.

Judge Woods, who made the Huntingdon-Mifflin and Bedford district a desert is said to be sure of renomination. There is one contest for Congress in the 34th or Beaver-Lawrence district. This is a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William M. Brown.

PORTER RESIGNS PLACE IN MAYOR'S CABINET

Continued from Page One

without making any statement as to when it would be accepted. It was made plain, however, that no successor to the Director would be appointed until tomorrow.

Robert D. Driggs, Common Councilman from the 22d Ward and independent leader on the floor of Common Council for the Blankenburg administration, is slated as the successor to Director Porter.

Mayor Blankenburg would make no definite statement as to his intentions on the appointment, but it is definitely understood that Mr. Driggs will be appointed tomorrow. Driggs did not run for re-election to Common Council this year.

Director Porter stated that it was not necessary for him to resign yet, but that he wished to be consistent and not hold office and be in politics at the same time, particularly as he had urged the members of his department to do this during his term of office.

The Director's desire to become a private citizen as soon as possible is based on his belief that it would greatly injure his campaign to be at the head of the police power of the city at the beginning of his campaign. It is by the same token interpreted as an indication that he intends to start immediately on a most vigorous program of speech-making in all parts of the city.

The certainty with which Mr. Driggs' appointment seemed to be expected by independent leaders led to the belief that Director Porter had suggested his name to the Mayor as the most available man to succeed him as Director of Public Safety in the next administration if the Director is elected Mayor. Mr. Driggs has waged a courageous fight as the administration's floor leader in Council, and it is understood he has always enjoyed the confidence of Mayor Blankenburg.

DRIPPS HAS BEEN ACTIVE IN REFORM WORK OF STATE

Probable Successor to Porter, Also Independent Leader in Councils

Robert Dunning Driggs, who is said to be Mayor Blankenburg's choice as the successor of Director George Porter as Director of Public Safety, is one of the best known of the younger progressive Philadelphians who have been prominent for several years in various civic movements.

Educated at Lawrenceville Academy and at Princeton, where he was graduated in 1898, he studied law in the office of Biddle & Ward, and was admitted to the bar in 1901. He is not yet 40 years of age.

Among his many public activities Mr. Driggs, in 1912, served on the Executive and Legislative Committee of the State Committee that did notable work in drafting legislation on child labor, hours of labor for women, minimum wage for women, regulation of public utilities, workmen's compensation bill and regulation of public charities. He was re-elected secretary of the Public Charities Association.

In connection with this work Mr. Driggs is a leader in the movements for the removal of the insane from the 20 county almshouses to proper State institutions for adequate institutional care for feeble-minded women, rather than the planless appropriation of millions to private charities with inadequate State control or supervision, and for other modernizing changes in the State's care of its dependent defective and delinquent charges.

MACKAY GETS STATE JOB

46th Ward Leader Named Compensation Board Member

Harry A. Mackay, Republican leader of the 46th Ward, was appointed by Governor Brumbaugh today as chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board. Mr. Mackay left for Harrisburg this afternoon to take the oath of office immediately.

Mackay's appointment as a member of the board was announced more than a month ago, but it was not thought at that time that he would be made head of the body. He is a Vets man.

During the local option fight at Harrisburg Mackay gave the Governor valuable assistance, and during the early stages of the gubernatorial campaign he was the first leader in this city to pledge his support to Brumbaugh.

RUDOLPH ELLIS DEAD AT BRYN MAWR HOME

Eminent Financier Ill Several Months—Identified With Big Corporations

Rudolph Ellis, president of the Fidelity Trust Company and director of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and other corporations, died last night at his Bryn Mawr home, Fox Hill Farms, after an illness of several months. Mr. Ellis was 79 years old, and one of the most widely-known financiers of this city. Of recent years he had not been actively engaged in business.

Mr. Ellis was born in Eikon, Maryland, November 29, 1837, the son of Francis A. and Ellen Howard Ellis, members of an old Pennsylvania family that traces its ancestry to the Welsh settlers of Merion. He came to this city as a young man and started his business career.

Mr. Ellis was a member of the 1st Troop, Philadelphia City Cavalry, at the start of the Civil War. He served three months with the troop and then was commissioned a Lieutenant of the 4th Pennsylvania Cavalry, known as Bush's Lancers. Later he became captain in the same force. At the battle of Beverly Ford, Va., he was severely wounded. He later was made inspector general on the staff of General Torbert, of General Sheridan's division of the Army of the Potomac.

At the close of the war Mr. Ellis resumed his banking activity in this city, becoming the senior member of the firm R. Ellis & Co. Later he became identified with the Morgan interests in this city through E. T. Stotebury. In 1901 he was elected president of the Fidelity Trust Company, and in 1908 he succeeded William L. Elkins as a member of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Other corporations with which Mr. Ellis was identified are the Commercial Trust Company, the Fourth Street National Bank, the Mercantile and Manhattan Trust Companies, of New York; the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad and the Electric Storage Battery Company.

He was a member of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion, the Philadelphia Club, the Rabbit Club, the Merion Cricket Club, the Radnor Hunt Club and the Union Club, of New York. For some years he was president of the Radnor Hunt Club.

For more than 20 years Mr. Ellis was a commissioner of Radnor township, Delaware County. His leadership of the Fidelity Trust Company was marked by his establishment of the "Rudolph Ellis Gratuity Fund," for the relief of sick employees of the company, the pensioning of aged workers and the care of families of those who died in service. Mr. Ellis contributed the entire sum.

MAYOR PREDICTS PORTER WILL BE NEXT MAYOR

Blankenburg Takes Slap at Smith and Governor Brumbaugh

Mayor Blankenburg today predicted victory for the reform forces in the November election, after hearing returns from various wards indicating that Director George D. Porter's showing on the Republican ticket was higher than had been expected. At the same time the Mayor took a slap at Thomas B. Smith, the Republican candidate, and indirectly at Governor Brumbaugh for his part in the Organization's defeat.

"The nomination of Mr. Smith," said the Mayor, "by way of the Maine woods and Harrisburg, is so repugnant that even dyed-in-the-wool Republicans should repudiate him. It is unthinkable that the people of Philadelphia will turn over the municipal administration again to the contractor-horses."

"I am exceedingly gratified at the showing made by Director Porter, especially on the Republican ticket, as his Washington party vote had been conceded even by the friends of Colonel Porter. I am confident now of a great independent victory in the fall. The necessary loss even better than this time they did after the primary four years ago."

J. DENNY O'NEILL BEATEN IN PITTSBURGH BY PENROSE

Senator's Forces Succeed in Defeating Anti-Liquor Man

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—County Commissioner J. Denny O'Neill, anti-Penrose candidate for renomination and one of the State local option leaders, is defeated by about 3000 votes in the returns at noon from the Republican primaries in Allegheny County.

A. C. Gumbert and Frank J. Harris, Penrose-Armstrong liquor candidates, are nominated.

The bulk of the Penrose ticket is nominated.

On 500 districts out of 777 in the county the vote, official, on Superior Court was: Head, 37,231; Huxelton, 44,554; Orady, 42,515; Wallace, 15,256; Williams, 37,438.

ERIE FAVORS ORLADY, HEAD AND HUSELTON

Close Contest for Mayor, With Joseph Y. Williams Ahead

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 22.—Complete returns from the city and from all but 14 districts in Erie County give U. P. R. Porter, for the County Judgeship, 9655, and Joseph M. Force, 5479. Rossetter was the liquor candidate, although the issue was not clearly drawn.

For Mayor, Joseph Y. Williams leads Bernard Velt by 98 votes, with all returns in. All old members of the City Council were nominated. For Superior Court, Judge Force leads by 100 votes, with indications are that Judges Head, Orady and Huseleton are ahead.

RICHMOND ACCUSES WARDEN

Irregularities Alleged in St. John's Accounting System

George Chandler Paul, accounting warden of St. John's Episcopal Church, 24 and Brown streets, has been summoned to appear before the church vestry and reply to charges that he had allowed irregularities to occur in his accounting system. Accusations against Paul are the latest diverting influences to upset St. John's Church, which has been the center of a fight since the Rev. George Chalmers Richmond, the pastor, was put under fire of the church authorities.

Reverend Richmond himself is the author of the latest disturbance. Last Sunday he accused his accounting warden of opening envelopes addressed to the pastor and of taking money from them and adding it to the general church fund.

HORLICK'S THE ORIGINAL MALTED MILK

The Food-drink for All Ages.

More healthful than Tea or Coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Delicious, invigorating and nutritious. Rich milk, malted grain, powder form.

A Quick Lunch Prepared in a Minute.

Unless you say "HORLICK'S" you may get a Substituted.

VICTIMS OF SUBWAY CAVE-IN

Firemen are seen bringing up a body by ladders extending from the bottom of the enormous hole, which is half filled with wreckage.

ELEVEN WARRANTS OUT FOR ORGANIZATION MEN

Republican Election Officers to Be Arrested, Accused by Independent Watchers

Eleven warrants were issued by Magistrate Enoch this afternoon for the arrest of Republican Organization on election officers who are accused by independent watchers with taking away from them their watchers' certificates. Reports were current this afternoon that additional warrants will be sworn out for the arrest of several elections judges who are charged with intimidation.

Evidence that old-time "Gang tactics" were resorted to by Organization workers in several downtown wards is in possession of the Committee of 79. The warrants issued today were sworn out on evidence supplied by agents of this committee.

Besides the 11 warrants, the arrest of several division workers, who are charged with aiding false registration, as well as bribery, will take place, according to investigators.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

JUDGE JOHN F. MILLER WINS IN MONTGOMERY

Jurist Gets More Than 51 Per Cent. of Votes Cast

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Sept. 22.—Judge John Faber Miller received more than 51 per cent. of the total vote cast for candidates for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, and will, therefore, not be opposed at the November election. The unofficial figures follow:

Brownback, 1046; Dannehower, 3782; Fox, 396; Miller, 9606; Stinson, 3094; Young, 965. The total of these figures is 15,880, 50 per cent. of which is 7940, and Miller received 366 more than this.

George Anders, who opposed the Republican Organization for county treasurer nomination, leads his opponent, T. H. Bardman, by about 2000.

Meenber and Freed are both claiming victory for the controllership nomination, and it may take the official count to determine who wins.

THE HORN & BRANNEN MFG. CO.

Retail Display Rooms and Factory

427-433 N. Broad St.

HEATING HOT WATER VAPOR STEAM

M. J. MARGULIES & CO.

125 So. 5th

PHILADELPHIA

Both Phones

Who Is

VANETTE

?

Neptune Laundry

1501 Columbia Ave.

May not have the best

TWO AMERICANS HELD FOR RANSOM IN MEXICO

State Department Demands Immediate Release of Kidnapped Ranchmen

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Two Americans—E. P. Folter and a ranchman named McCabe—have been kidnapped by Mexican bandits, the State Department was advised today.

The Americans were taken from a ranch between Juarez and Chihuahua and are being held for ransom.

The State Department today sent a demand to American Consuls at both places demanding their release by the Mexican authorities.

PORTER TO START FIGHT Independent Mayoralty Candidate Begins Campaign for Unopposed Councils Tonight

George D. Porter, the independent nominee for Mayor, will open his fight for election tonight. He will launch his campaign for election as successor to Mayor Blankenburg and for the election of an unopposed council, at a meeting of the George D. Porter Republican Executive Committee of the 26th Ward, to be held in Wharton Hall, 26th and Wharton streets. The 26th Ward is a Vets stronghold.

Sam McReynolds is chairman of the committee and will preside at the meeting. In addition to Director Porter, John J. Ors, former Common Councilman from the 33rd Ward, and Harry T. Walters, independent nominee for Clerk of the Courts, will speak.

THE BETTER FLAVOR OF SUPPLEE CREAM

YOU know how much finer in flavor one butter can be made than another. It's just the same with cream.

Supplee Cream has the delicate flavor that tells of fine herds grazing in rich, verdant pastures. And it tells, too, of most modern scientific methods of bringing the cream to your home—rich, wholesome, delicious.

Try it on the cereal tomorrow morning.

The Supplee Alderney Dairy Milk—Cream—Ice Cream Eight Gold Medals

Several persons were injured and more than a dozen houses were damaged this afternoon when an extra heavy blast of powder, used in excavating earth on a building operation at Dexter and Markle streets, sent hundreds of small rocks in all directions.

The shock threw Mrs. Marie Rafferty, of 133 Market street, to the floor and she was almost thrown out of a second-story window. A flying rock fractured her jaw and destroyed the sight of one eye. She was taken to St. Timothy's Hospital. The physicians believe that her skull is fractured.

Among others injured were Joseph Monahan, of 141 Davis street, who was knocked down by a piece of rock, and Mrs. Mary Wallis, of Terrace and Markle streets. Mrs. Wallis was knocked from a chair by a large rock which crashed through a window.

The report of the explosion could be heard for several miles.

Andrew Prince, foreman of the operation, was arrested by Sergeant Martin and held without bail by Magistrate Grella.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

Dozens of complaints from various wards reached the offices of the Committee of Seventy today. Other complaints came from volunteer watchers who were stationed at the polls by the Committee of One Hundred. This committee yesterday had more than 2000 watchers scattered throughout the city.

Some of the charges being investigated by the Committee of Seventy are that judges of election tore up certificates of independent watchers in certain South Philadelphia wards. The names of the election judges alleged to have torn up the certificates are known to the Committee of Seventy. An agent of the committee said today that the warrants will be served probably tomorrow.

MRS. PETERSON READY TO AID Wife of "Material Witness" in Cord Case Volunteers Help to Pros- ecutor Kraft

Before Mrs. Rae Peterson, wife of Olaf Peterson, who is a "material witness" in the investigation of the murder of Samuel S. Cord, promoter and founder of Laurel Springs, N. J., leaves this city tomorrow for New York, she will have an interview with Prosecutor Kraft, of Camden County. Mrs. Peterson has told the prosecutor that she is willing to aid him in every way in solving the murder mystery.

Dr. L. A. Shattuck, of New York, who was interested in the Florida Land Development Company, in which the murdered man and Peterson were interested, today informed Prosecutor Kraft that he is prepared to call on him at any time. Recently Prosecutor Kraft requested Doctor Shattuck to visit Camden and aid in the investigation of Cord's murder.

Two Camden County detectives, Moran and Hibdon, were instructed today to work on the case "until it is wound up."

Viv Hams 18c price way down quality way, way up

Ever tried a Viv Ham? You know how tender they are—how uniform—how deliciously cured—how much better than the ordinary sort of hams. It's enough to make Viv Hams go very, very fast to just say that they are now 18c a lb.

Delicatessen of the finer sort

Cottage Hams in two to three pound sizes. Economical because there is no bone. 20c lb.

Meat Loaf and Lunch Roll, ready cooked, very convenient, each 32c lb.

Sliced Boiled Tongue, you know the flavor of a real good tongue—well this is it. 60c lb.

Dried Beef, sliced thin, 48c lb.

Sliced Boiled Corned Beef, every ingredient right and it tells in the taste. 48c lb.

Sliced Boiled Ham, our own, and that means the best, 45c lb.

Frankfurters, cured and seasoned just right, 21c lb.

Potato Salad, as delicious as the home-made sort, 15c lb.

Mayonnaise Relish, 15c lb.

Edam Cheeses, 8c each.

Pineapple Cheeses, 45c, 65c, 95c.

Cream Cheese, 28c lb.

Crown Butter is not only mighty fine, but it saves you four to eight cents a pound. Right now it is 34c lb.

To have your bills come to you monthly, instead of paying cash for each purchase, is a time saver and convenient. We shall be glad to have you open an account at the store.

Thos. Martindale & Co. 10th & Market

Established in 1860

Bell Phones—Filbert 2870, Filbert 2871

Keystone—Race 530, Race 531

Lunch On a Philadelphia Roof Garden

There were three of us—a member of the firm and two of the advertising staff.

We were discussing Perry assortments, and this is substantially what Mr. Perry said:

"You may say too little about them—you can't say too much. But if you go to the subject as I went at it when I