Next Saturday evening has been assigned as "Tvy Night" at the Home for Orphana, Ogontz and Chelten avenues, Germantown. The children will entertain the members of Ivy Lodge and their friends, and, as in former years, a large gathering is anticipated.

Olive Branch Lodge had a large attendance last Friday evening. "Pop" Hobdell got in harness again, and it did the boys good to see hum. In the nomination of officers, there are six candidates for the office of third member of the relief. This points to a hot contest, as all are sure of winning. The lodge stood in silence in memory of Brother Richard, who has just passed away, making seven deaths talls year.

Olive Branch Lodge has organized a society to be known as the Stiff Pine Association, No. 1. It has an initiation ceremony, signs, srips and rass-words, and the object is to create good fellowship among the members and take care of all social features. It meets the last Friday of each month. There are 65 members up to date.

Court Quaker City turned out in large numbers in the new hall, Frankford and Lebish avenues, to give a welcome home to Fast Chief Ranger George Sinnamon on his return from San Francisco as representative to the Supreme Court, where be was elected supreme medical examiner. In submitting his report of the Supreme Court he gave an interesting description of his journey through the West, speaking for one hour and 20 minutes. Doctor Sinnamon is a very enthusiastic Forester, and has been a delegate to the Grand and Supreme Courts for many years, and he highly deserves the honor the Supreme Court has conferred on him. The appreciation of the court was expressed in the form of resolutions and ordered spread on the minutes.

Among the visitors present were D. G. C. R. Harry Young of Court Brotherly Love, and P. C. R. Robert Edward, of Court Mount Pleasant, Brother Edward, is an honorary member of Court Quaker City.

The Committee of Arrangements were Past Chief Ranger Alexander Edward, chairman, P. C. R. Harry C. Mirts, P. C. R. John McGinnis, P. C. R. Harry C. Mirts, P. C. R. John McGinnis, P. C. R. Harry Gibson and Brother Clement Eddleman.

Court Robert Morris held an interesting and instructive meeting on Monday evening. The campaign to make the membership 250 by the first of the year is progressing very satisfactorily and brought forward a lively discussion. The interest shown by the members present indicates a very prosperous season.

The Punmakers will open their fall and winter program on Monday evening, October 4, with a musical and smoker, and all members of the court are carnestly requested to be present. Refreshments will be served. The committee in charge is doing everything in its power to make the entertainments a success.

There were 161 representatives present and as many past councilor from all over the State. The chalrman of the Convention Committee of the local councils opened with a few remarks introducing the Mayor and also Convention. troducing the Mayor and also Congress-man Carr, who welcomed the visitors on behalf of the local councils. State Councilor Horner responded to the addresses councils. The membership gain in the Eastern District was 667, the Middle District was 1353, and the Western District was 611, or a total gain in the State of 2671 new members. This was considered a good gain when it was taken in consideration that the working conditions throughout the State were bad. The membership in the State today is 41,122. The report also shows that the councils throughout the State were very accounter. cils throughout the State were very ac-tive along the line of class initiation. The report of the State councilor was approved and the following recommenda-tions from the State councilor were

1. That the incoming board of officers be granted the same power to print circulars in the interests of the order as has heretofore the interests of the order as has heretofore been done.

2. That the sum of $25 be paid to the organizer of a new council, provided, however, that 25 beneficial members must have been initiated within six weeks from date of institution.

3. That the State Counction be empowered to appoint special representatives to attend to smatters pertaining to the order when it is impossible for a member of the board of officers to be present.

4. That a regulation silk American flag be awarded to the council making the largest percentage of gain and another to the council making the largest percentage of gain and another to the council making the largest percentage of gain and another to the council making the largest percentage and to the council making the largest net gain from June 30, 1914, to June 30, 1913, no council to win both and turther that a council must have 30 members before being qualified to enter the contest for flag an percentage sain.

Fidelity Council, No. 21, of Bristol, presented four magnificent flags to the public schools of Bristol and Bibles to all the classrooms last Saturday afternoon amid the greatest enthusiasm. More than 1000 members from Philadelphia were present and made a very excellent showing. The Philadelphia delegation was led by State Councilor Sheneman, assisted by P. S. C. Harry N. Solly. The Frankford Band furnished music for the delegation and following thereafter came the great guards of Diligent Council, No. 4, under command of Captain Thomas G. Wilde, members of Diligent Council, No. 4, band guards of Fairview Council, No. 4, band guards of Fairview Council, No. 52, and members, and in the rear members of the various councils of Philadelphia. The members of Fidelity Council, No. 21, turned out in full force. Members of the order from New Jersey, and particularly Camden, as well as the regiment under command of Colonel W. M. Morris, were in line.

The route of parade was over the entire limits of Bristol, and the showing made by this greatest of all American organizations was evidenced by the appreciation and applause of thousands who lined every street on the long line of parade. The city was decreated very beautifully with bunting and American flags. Several brase bands were placed at various sections of the line. At the First and Main school Brother Alexander M.
