BRIDES AND BRIDEGROOMS PARTIAL TO SEPTEMBER DAYS

Miss Linda P. Henzler and Mr. Gottlob C. Hammer Were Wed Yesterday - McGuckin and Vorndran Nuptials

THE marriage of Miss Linda P. Henzler, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Henzler, of 5148 Clifton street, to Mr. Gottlob C. Hammer, was solemnized last evening at 8:30 o'clock in Mosebach's Drawing Rooms.

The Rev. Otto Klein officiated. The bride's only attendant was Miss Mary Wohlford. Miss Henzler wore a gown of white crepe metzer trimmed with lace and a long tulle veil arranged with lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a frock of pale-pink tulle with a hat to match and carried pink sweet peas.

Mr. Richard Prince acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Richard Clarke and Mr. Charles Van Sleet. A reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hammer left for a wedding journey. Upon their return they will live at 4628 North 13th street, Logan.

McGuckin-Vorndran. A very pretty wedding took place yesterday, when Miss Adeline Josephine Vorndran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vorndran, of 2317 North Hancock street, became the bride of Mr. James J. McGuckin, of St. Bonifacius Church, Hancock and Diamond streets.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father J. O'Leary, C. S. R. The bride was gowned becomingly in ivory white satin with tulle and pearl trimmings, and a veil wreathed with orange blossoms and pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride was attended by Miss Sara E. McGuckin, sister of the groom, who wore a nice green crepe metzer, trimmed with rosebuds, and a gold lace and caught up with ruffled, and a very becoming picture hat. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Thomas Turner. After the ceremony a supper was served at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families, after which the couple left on their wedding trip.

Invitations will shortly be issued for the marriage of Miss Margaret Brown Frazier, daughter of Mrs. W. F. Frazier and granddaughter of Colonel John W. Frazier, to Mr. George Edward Danenhauer on Tuesday, October 26, at the home of the bride's mother, 517 Springfield avenue. Miss Frazier will be attended by Miss Dorothea Shiveley, of Jenkintown, as maid of honor, and by Miss Edna Lawrence, of Millbourne, and Miss Margaret Stanford, of Bryn Mawr, as bridesmaids. Her little cousin, Elizabeth Jane Smith, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith, of Wynnswood, will act as flower girl.

Mr. Howard Lee Danenhauer will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Mr. William Clausen, Jr., Mr. A. Linzer, Father J. O'Leary, C. S. R., and Mr. Frazier, of North William Wallace Frazier, of New York. A reception will immediately follow the ceremony.
