CHANGES IN FOOTBALL

RULES FOR 1915 SEASON

The changes in the foothall rules for 1915 are very simple. The following are the principal alterations which spectators should bear in mind: 1. There must be four officials instead of three, the use of the Field Judge being obligatory. The Field Judge In-strad of the Linesman is now the timekeeper.

Besubstitutions are allowed only site beginning of a period.
Blocking and interfering, wherein players throw their less up in the air, is forbidden, and a 15-yerd penalty inflicted for violation of the rule.
Centres are forbidden to make a balk.
Running into the failhack or punter is penalteed by a loss of 15 yards. Roughing him is penalteed by 15 yards and disqualification.
