

SOME OF THE PEOPLE AND PERFORMERS TO BE SEEN ON FIELD, COURT AND COURSE TODAY

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR HOLD THEIR FIELD DAY TODAY
Drills and other spectacular features will be seen this afternoon at Belmont plateau. A great review will be held under the eye of Right Eminent Sir Bradley W. Lewis, grand commander of Pennsylvania, whose portrait appears below at the right.

MISS J. BEAGARY
She put up a great game on the courts at the Germantown Cricket Club this week.

PUNTING PRACTICE AT FRANKLIN FIELD
With Head Coach George Brooke tutoring the kickers, the Red and Blue expects to turn out many stars this year. Penn's backfield will reveal a trio of new faces for the opening of the 1915 season today.

INFANT BIG LEAGUER
Hoyt is one of the youngsters whom McGraw has picked for his new Giant team. He's just 18.

CHAMPION OF FEMINE GOLFERS
This is the latest photograph of Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, of the Philadelphia Cricket Club, winner of the women's national golf championships.

YOU WOULD HAVE TO TRAVEL FAR TO FIND A FEMINE FIVE THAT COULD WIELD A GOLF CLUB BETTER
Left to right here are Mrs. W. J. Peck, of St. David's; Mrs. G. H. Stearns, of Huntingdon Valley; Miss Mildred Caverly, of the Philadelphia Country Club; Mrs. Caleb Fox and Mrs. Francis Bradley, of Huntingdon Valley.
