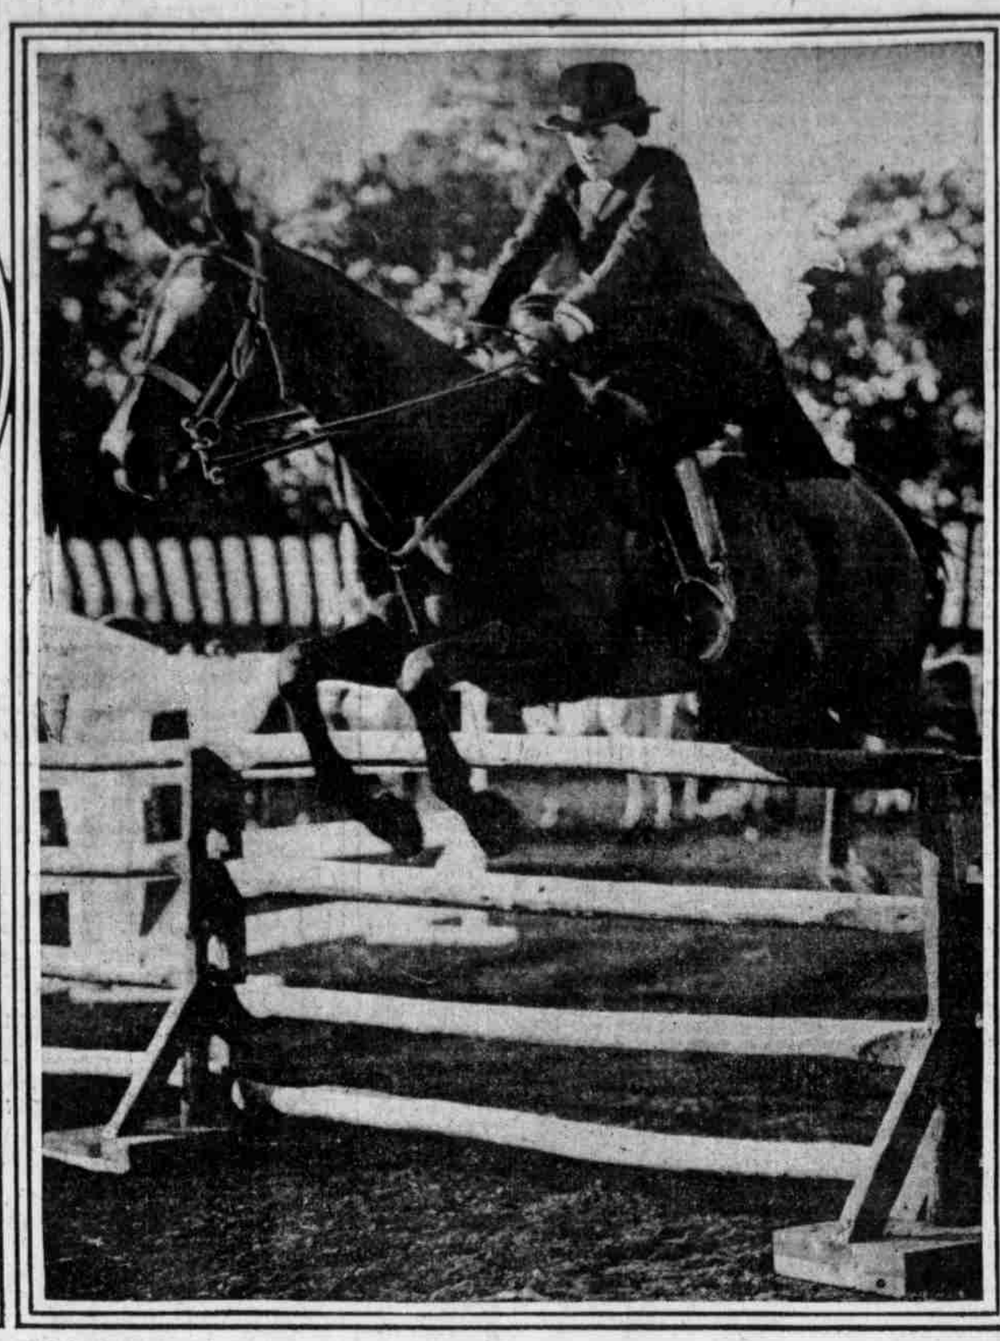
Evening Ledger ILLUSTRATED

TUESDAY
September 28, 1915

CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA AT THE BRYN MAWR HORSE SHOW AND THE BIG FAIR AT TRENTON



SOME OF THE EXHIBITORS AND SPECTATORS SEEN ON A BRILLIANT DAY AT THE BRYN MAWR HORSE SHOW

At the upper left, Mrs. Gardner Cassatt; below, Mrs. Frederic Strawbridge and Miss Frances H. Stoughton; in centre, Miss Carol O. Harriman going over the bars; upper right, Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge; below, Mrs. Robert L. Gerry.

SIGHTS AND SCENES NOTED IN A DAY SPENT AT THE LIVELY FAIR IN TRENTON, N. J.

The large picture is a general view of the grounds as crowded by thousands of visitors and patrons. At the left is our old friend "He-eats-'em-alive" exhibiting his favorite delicacies. On the right is young Miss Helen Koty and her prize-winning watermelon and sunflower.