

SIGHTS AND SCENES FROM HOME AND ABROAD HELP TO MAKE CLEARER THE NEWS OF THE DAY

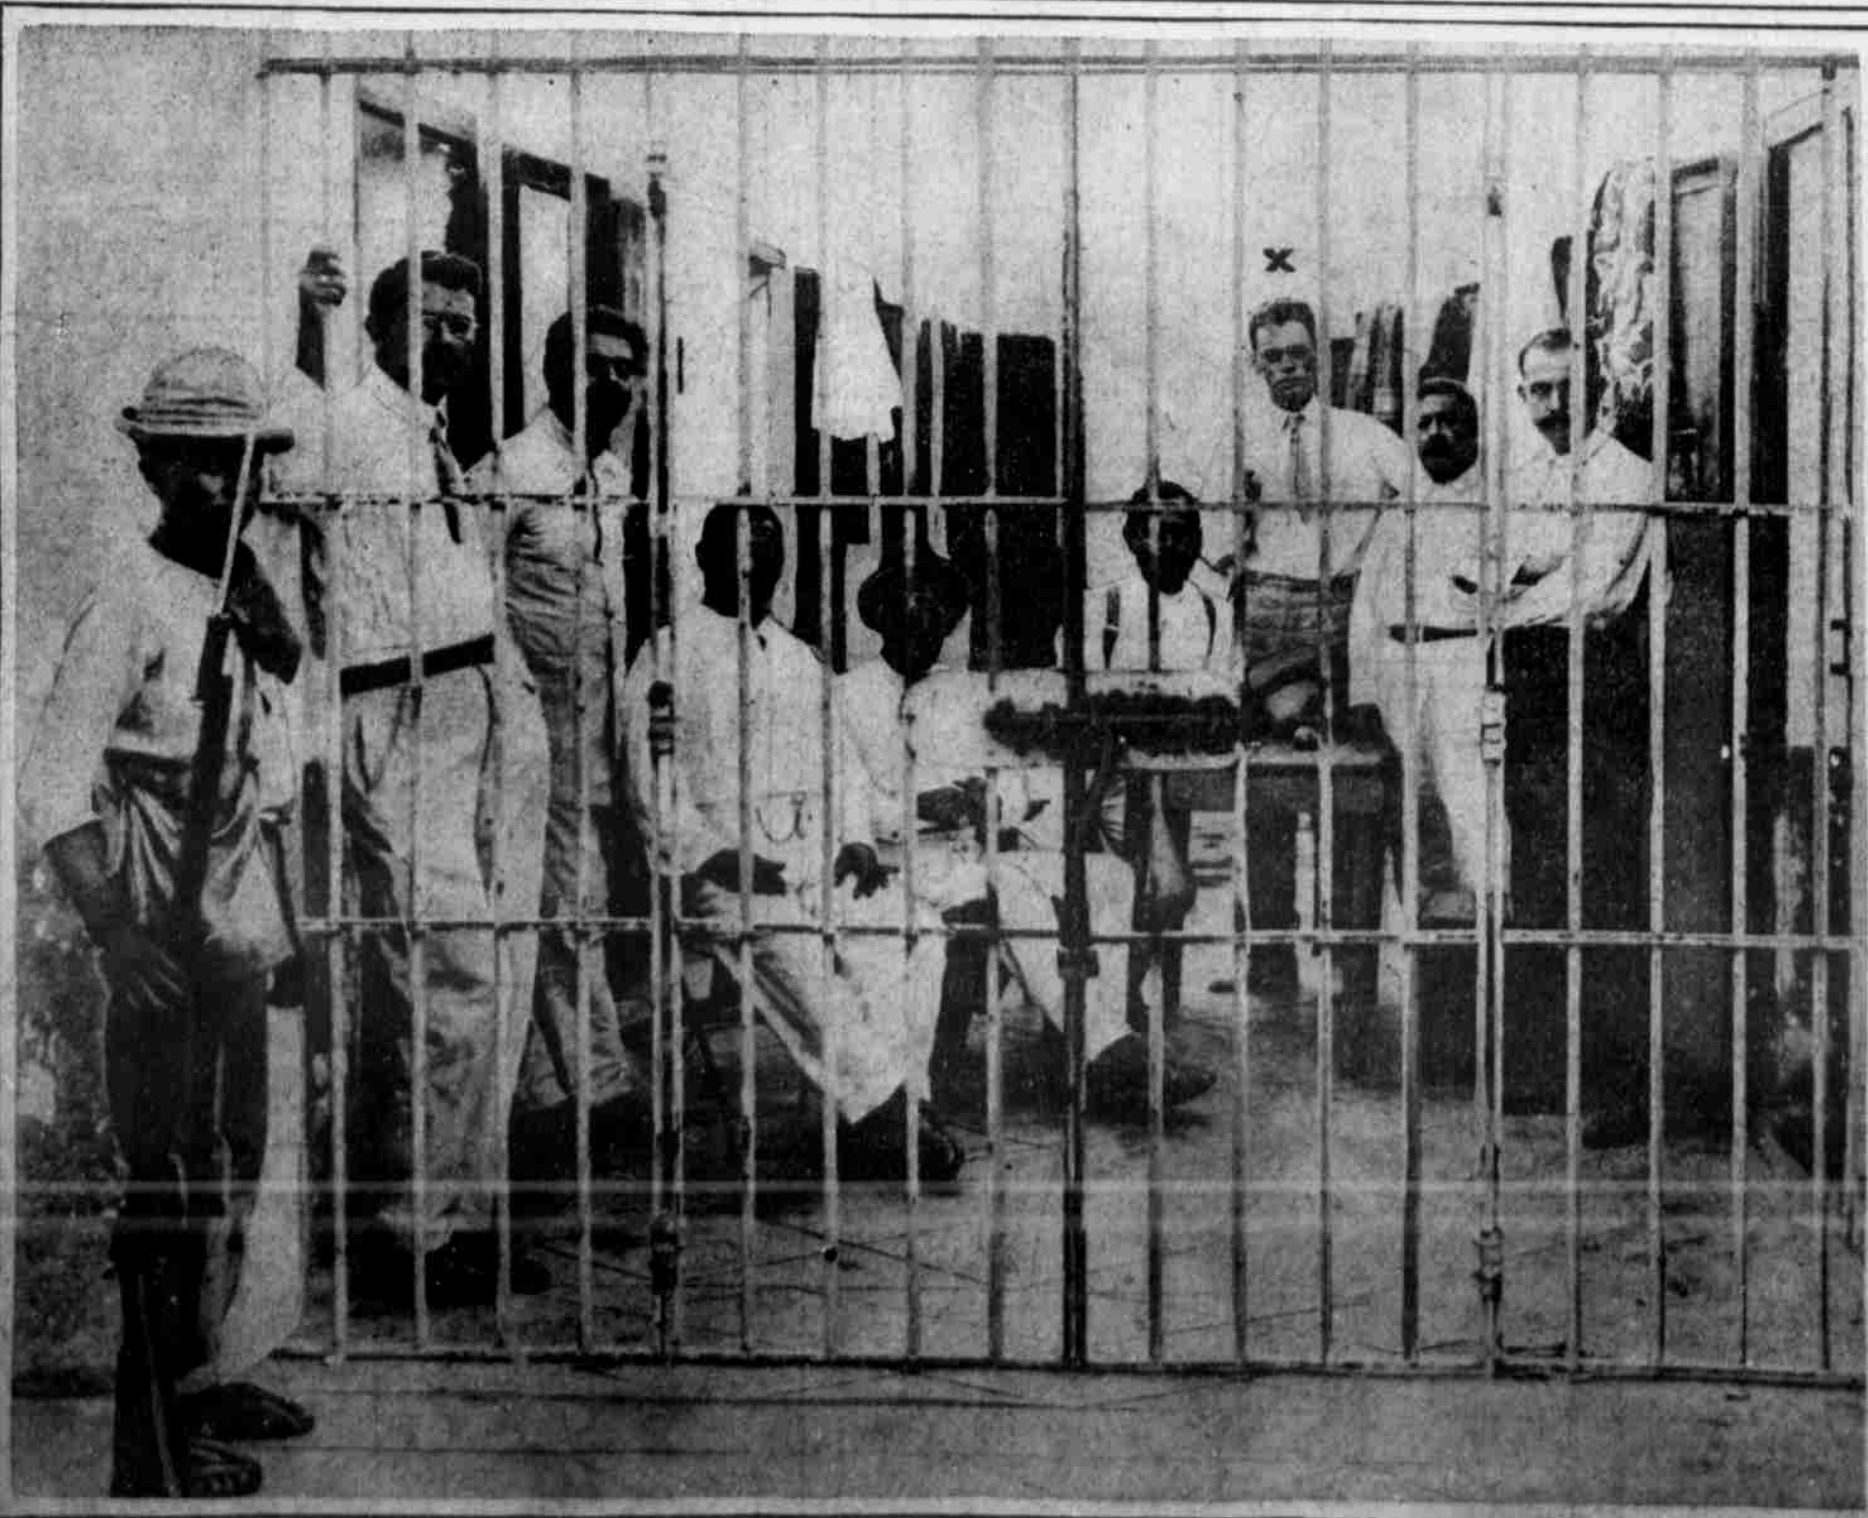

UP GOES THE YELLOW BANNER
Mrs. W. B. Deer raising the standard of the Woman Suffrage party at 1780 Chestnut street.

600 CHILDREN HAVING THEIR HAIR CUT BY 50 BARBERS AT ST. JOHN'S ORPHANAGE
The roof of the orphanage building was the scene of the clipping. Fifty chairs were occupied most of the afternoon. The barbers donated their services. The style produced in every case was the "feather-edge," which means to remove all of the hair save enough in front to permit the boy to comb it.

SUPFRAGIST GENERALS OFF FOR THREE-DAY WHIRLWIND TOUR IN NEW JERSEY
Left to right are Mrs. W. D. McCallum, Mrs. Harry Whiteside, Mrs. Robert Erving, Mrs. Robert Finley. Below, Mrs. Laura G. Cannon and Mrs. F. A. Bailey.

POLITICAL PRISONERS IN VERA CRUZ INCLUDE AN AMERICAN
The figure marked X is that of H. W. Francis, a member of the staff of the EVENING LEDGER until he went to Vera Cruz, where, in his work as a representative for a news agency, he incurred the displeasure of General Carranza. He was later released. Note the grim guard on the left.

MONSTER SEPTEMBER PEACHES GROWN NEAR CITY
Mr. W. A. Prudergast raised this fruit in Springfield township, Delaware County. The baseball gives you an idea of their size.