Among the interesting autumn weddings was that of Miss Mary Constance Burk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Burk, of Toronto, Canada, to Mr. Robert Bruce Wallace, Jr., son of Mr. Robert Bruce Wallace, Jr., son of Mr. Robert Bruce Wallace, of coil Ridge avenue, Roxborough, which took place on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in 3t. Paul'a Anglican Church, Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Archdeacon Cody and was followed by a largely attended reception at the home of the bride's parents. The bride wore a lovely gown of ivory white fails taffeta trimmed with flounces of silk net and chantilly lace. It was made with a court train of brocaded taffeta lined with chiffon. Her tulie vell was edged with seed pearls and arranged with orange blossoms. Orchids and illies of the valley were combined in the bridal bouquet. Miss Phyllis Stephenson was maid of honor and Miss Kathleen Hartney, bridesmaid. They wore quaint frocks of taffeta, the former mauve, and the latter pale blue. A black velvet hat trimmed with a single pink crushed rose, and an arm bouquet of pink rosses completed each costume. The bride's mother was gowned in maize colored satin crepe with trimmings of black velvet and chantilly lace. Her hat was of black velvet with a touch of maize.

Mr. C. Thompson Wallace, of Roxborough, was his brother's best man.
