LIEUTENANT LYNCH DIES

Detective Succumbs to Injuries Received in Performance of His Duty Two Weeks Ago

Lieutenant of Detectives John Lynch died last night in St. Mary's Hospital as the result of a fractured skull, incurred two weeks ago, when he slipped and fell chasing an automobile.

The lieutenant, whose home was at 2018 Venango street, was passing Broad and Clearfield streets with Detective Mulholising when they saw a young woman thrown from an automobile. The chauf-feur of the car then started to speed away, Lynch and Mulholland pursuing. After running about a block Lynch allipped and fell heavily, striking on his head.

Captain of Detectives Robert D. Cam eron wept when he attempted to tell the detectives of Lieutenant Lynch's death at the roll-call today. "I can't fully ex-press myself, boys," he said, "for no words can bring him back, but we've all lost a good friend and the public has lost a faithful servant." Ex-Director Porter later called up Captain Cameron on the telephone and asked to be informed of the funeral arrange-ments so that he might attend the fu-Mr. Porter praised Lynch in the highest terms and said that he had reinstated him when he was dismissed from the force several years ago, because he helleved the dismissal was for political purposes, and the services and knowledge of Lynch were too valuable for the city

The lieutenant showed improvement spending a few days at the Samaritan Hospital. He insisted on going to his home, despite the advice of physi-cians. Several days later his condition became so serious that he was hurried to St. Mary's Hospital, where physicians found it impossible to save his life. The widow and two daughters, 14 and 11 years old, survive.

Lieutenant Lynch was born in Philadelphia January 5, 1873. He was appointed patrolman February 26, 1894. His work in that department soon brought him promotion to the Detective Bureau. Under the administration of Captain of Detectives Cameron he became a lieutenant and he was looked upon as the "right-hand man" of the captain at City Hall.

One of the most notable exploits of the Heutenant was his capture of Arthur Hutton, wanted for a $15,000 embessiement. in 1836. The arrest was made in the West. In 1915 the lieutenant played an important part in breaking up the gang of New York gunmen said to have been imported to this city to make trouble in the gar-
