Country Fair to Hold a Second Day at Darby on Saturday-Harvest Home Fete on Main Line of Decided Interest-Takes Place October 14

afternoon, when the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Francis' Country House for Convalescents will repeat the alphabetical country fair which was given last Saturday in the house.

Nearly all the booths will be featured again. The flag raising, the vaudeville show and the Irish cottage life, withheld last week because of the inclement weather, will be given this Saturday, the first at 3:30 in the afternoon and the latter every hour throughout the afternoon. A baby show will also be another of the interesting features of the afternoon, when children from all over Delaware County will be among the youthful contestants.

While the principal shows will be held after 1 o'clock, followed by afternoon tea, several of the booths will be arranged on the grounds as early as 10 o'clock. Among these will be the flower stand, where in a rose-laden bower, with helds shoring in rustic cages, Miss with birds singing in rustic cages, Miss with birds singing in rustic cages, Miss Marguerite Eagan and her assistants will seil all kinds of exquisite flowers and plants; the little French booth, decorated with the arms and the flags of France, where Mrs. A. N. Burke and her aldes will exhibit very Parisian novelties; the doll booth, where Miss Daddy Leve Leve and Miss Globas Girl dolls Long Legs and Miss Goose Girl dolls will vie with character dolls and wooden dolls, and the patients' table, where useful and fancy articles made by the pa-tients will be sold under the direction of Miss Brooke and Miss Dean.
