WILSON, FIANCEE AND PARTY PASS THROUGH CITY

Presidential Train Stops Here on Way to New York

TO RETURN TOMORROW

Mrs. Galt Draws Great Attention-Orders Chief Executive's Luncheon

The pretty custom of "pulling the wishbone" was observed by President Woodww Wilson and his flancee, Mrs. Norman galt, of Washington, as the presidential Gait, of Washington, as the presidential special train approached Philadelphia to-day an route for New York.

Smilingly the President and the fuinversident and the sent of the full dining table and watched the senterty is the train sped into Philadelphia. The other members of the party were Mrs.
William H. Bolling, Mrs. Gait's mother:
Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, Dr. Cary
T. Grayson and Secretary Tumulty. The train passed through Philadelphia at 130 p. m.

Before the party left Washington it was reported that the Chief Executive and Mrs. Galt would be married in the latter part of November, instead of December, as was at first reported. They will be married simply and unostentation of the heads.

feesly in the home of the bride.

As the train rolled into Philadelphia, the President and Mrs. Galt gross and stood in the centre of the aisle, so as to avoid as many of the curious eyes as Their car was the last on the train and afforded them a good view, as well as making it comparatively easy for wes to peer in from the outside. ca. Galt, tremendously excited, it ural beauty and color were displayed to dvantage in a black silk velvet suit, a mail black toque and a black half-vell that accentuated rather than concealed lustrous dark eyes with their long She wore a corsage bouquet of hids with which the President had preted her before the start. She is about feet 4 inches in height.

Her mother, Mrs. Bolling, is white-haired and stately. She wore a bouquet of red roses, the gift of the President. too, appeared very happy. Miss was dressed in black also, and the blance between her and Mrs. Galt sas remarked upon by those who saw future mistress of the White House assumed charge of the Presidential m.m. Mrs. Galt ordered President Wilson's luncheon down to the last item. This was what the bride-to-be selected and what the President ate without pro-

Fried chicken a la Maryland (Southern tyle). Eweetbreads on toast.

Charlotte russe.

Adolphus Green, negro cook on the pres-dential specials for years, grinned broad-y when the order was handed him and stended himself to serve his new missuttenly will serve some luncheon " he confided. hour of the party's departure Washington had been kept se-and it is believed that fact prerented the gathering of a large crowd. The President was the first to arrive at the station. He came with Miss Bones in a White House automobile. Smiling, he excerted his niece to the presidential room at the station, Hardly a minute elapsed when Mrs. Galt, with her mather and Destre Grant Presidential. mother and Doctor Grayson, arrived in an electric brougham. They went at once to the presidential room, and the party remained there a few moments chatting.

When the party left the room to walk to the train a line of relice was explained. o the train a line of police was quickly armed through the rotunda. Immediateby the crowd at the station flocked to the platform, and as the President passed slong there was much handelapping.

The gray-haired mother was escorted to the train from the private waiting room by the President, Mrs. Galt walking with Miss Sones. The party boarded the train about five minutes before it left.

The President doffed his hat and kept it off practically all the time until he reached the private car Superba in the traingless.

The score of policemen and detectives in band had nothing to do but look

Plans for including the world's series game at Philadelphia in the week-end extrasion were modified to provide for another day in New York Saturday in case rain should postpone the game. The seriy, leaving here at 18-03 o'clock, was us to reach New York at 3:19 p. m., and slauned going directly to the home of Coincel House. With the exception of the Iresident, who will stay at the House aeme, all will be guests of a New York hetel tonight, following the theatre party. San Diego and San Francisco, with their Tappaitions, already are bidding earnestly for the honor of entertaining the President and his bride on their wedding trip, but it has not yet been determined that it it has not yet been determined that

Screwless Eyeglasses

(The Martin Perfex)

Inde without a single screw to Shaking No Breaking rade in your old mountings sets once. We give full credit every cent of value in your mountings.

A. MARTIN, Inc.

1728 Chestnut Street
Bell Phone—Locust 1172

CONSUMER It is to your advantage to buy your coal now. We handle only the BEST COAL Our autos deliver North of Market BL, East of Soth St. 88, $6.75 Stove, $7.00 cinut, $7.25 Large Pea, $4.75 atisfied customers for 30 years in the to every ton for 30 years WEN LETTER'S SONS

Cont Vage in Philindelphi Ave. & Westmoreland S

RAOUL NAUGHTON The Phillies' Mascot, who takes pride in the fact that they had good luck all season

TOKIO SEER PREDICTED PRESIDENT'S MARRIAGE

Also Prophesied Defeat for Re-election as Chief Magistrate

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8 .- On April 20 last, while Prof. Don Show Kodama, of Tokio, was visiting on this coast, he predicted that President Wilson would wed widow about 40 years old, that the coude would reside in New York, have a long and happy life and be blessed with two children, both daughters,

Professor Kodama is a seer from Nip-con, who uses the sengi blocks (sacred bamboo sticks), prayer and imagination to solve the mysteries of the future. His system, which he admitted was not popular here, is 4000 years old in Japan, and is called the "divination."

In speaking, through an interpreter, of the President, Professor Kodama said: "I have just had a dream or vision Woodrow Wilson. In it I see that the President will wed a widow some time before next March. She will be 40 years old. They will live in New York after the marriage, and after Mr. Wilson's term expires, as he will not be re-elected; their life will be long and happy, and they will be blessed with two daugh-

VETERANS HOLD REUNION

"Gallant 79th" Pennsylvania Infantry Celebrates Its Baptism of Fire

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 8.—The annual reunion of the 79th Pennsylvania Infantry regiment, which gained the title of the "gallant 79th" during the Civil War, and all but one company of which-D, of Allegheny-was recruited in Lancaster County, was held here today.

This is the SSG anniversary of the bat-tle of Perryville. Ky., the first time the regiment was under fire, this "baptism of fire" taking place exactly one year from the date on which the soldiers left Lancaster. With more than 1000 men originally on the rolls, only 75 of the 150 survivors were present today. Only four captains survive, and no officers above that rank. At the business meeting Captain John H: Druckenmiller, Sayre, Pa., was re-elected president. During the last year 13 members have died.

Neighbor's Windows your own—everybody's windows—will radiate comfort, cheer and hospitality with the use of the beautiful abundant light of the

Welsbach "Reflex" Gas Mantles

Formerly Now 15c Awarded Grand Prixe Highest Honor Panama-Pacific International Exposition 100 Points Excellent

FOR SALE by Gas Company & Dealers

hen you know Welsbach

hting you prefer it

PRESIDENT'S FLANCEE HAS RELATIVES HERE

Her Democratic Manner and Pleasing Personality

Exclusive arrangements to show the scores of the world's series games at 10 motion picture theatres were comp'eted inte this afternoon by the Evening Ledger Photophy Department. The scores will be flashed on the screins, inning by inning, direct wires from the ball navignoscopies. ball park connecting with the theatres. The playhouses which will show the Victoria, bth and Market streets.

Favoy, 12th and Market streets.
Market Street, 4th and Market streets.
Princess, 10th and Market streets.
Auditorium, 8th and flace streets.
Globe, Juniper and Market streets.
Leader, 40th street and Lancaster avenue,
William Penn, 40th street and Lancaster

WORLD'S SERIES SCORES WILL

ment Arranges With Theatres

SUNSHINE COSTS MAN $10

Speculator Raises Prices for Tickets When Sunlight Appears During Argument Prior to Sale

A set of world's series tickets glinting in the sunlight was worth $10 more than that same set was a few minutes earlier when it was tinted drab by the overhanging clouds. And the moral seems to have been, "Get 'em while the gettin's

At 37th and Market streets a speculator had one set of tickets, face value $5 a game, or $15 for the lot. A West Philadeiphia horse dealer wanted the tickets, but he thought $48 enough to pay for them. The speculator atuck to his $50 ultimatum. The horseman glanced at the clouds and sald, "No."

Whereupon the sun jumped out from behind the gloom and flashed on the pasteboards. Do you know how the big series tickets look? They're very pretty, with a baby blue background and nice, black printing and red numerals that stand out like an

"That sunlight will cost you just $10 more," remarked the speculator. He was right. The horse dealer handed over $60 in yellow-back currency notes.

Pedestrian Knocked Down by Auto William J. Flinn, 47 years old, of 1912 Jackson street, is in a serious condition in St. Agnes Hospital today as a result of injuries he suffered last night when he was struck by an automobile at Passayunk avenue and 19th street. The machine was owned by J. J. Sweeny, of 1717 McClellan street and driven iv Calir Wood, of 2013 South 18th street. Wood will be arraigned before Magistrate Briggs at the 29th and Federal streets

New Lunch Room Opened A new buffet delicatessen lunchroom has opened at $28 Chestnut street by the Supplee Dairies. Light foods, such as sandwiches, cakes, pies, ice cream, will be served. Chairs with wide arms have been installed in the restaurant, and the patrons may place the food on the arms while resting comfortably. Supplee dairy products will be served in the restaurant and also Supplee ice cream.

The most striking and universal interest of women is-CLOTHES.

This is a feminine common-factor. Many women do not care about cooking, some are indifferent to music and a few are averse to children; but practically all women love clothes.

The Designer recognizes this feminine attribute and accordingly its most important department is devoted to women's and children's apparel. The other departments of The Designer are exceptional, especially the fiction, but we lay special stress on the fashion department, because women themselves have placed the accent

Advertisers in The Designer profit by the intensity of the reader's interest in the publication. There are more than 350,000 such homes.

Standard Fashion Company, N. Y. DESIGNER

magazines called by advertising men The Butterick Trio and bought as an adver-tising unit. The other members of the Trio Magasine. The average monthly net circulation of The Butterick Trio is guaranteed to be in excess of 1,400,000.

Finest oil from the greatest olive district

E. Bradford Clarke Co.

1520 Chestnut Street

Mrs. Norman Galt Praised for

The childhood of Mrs. Norman Galt, of Washington, President Wilson's flancee. BE SHOWN DURING MOVIES is being recalled today by the many relatives and friends of the next "First Lady Evening Ledger Photoplay Depart-In the Land," who live in Philadelphia.

In the Land." who live in Philadelphia.

Among the relatives are Dr. Robert H.
Bolling, of 8705 Germantown avenue.
Chestnut Hill: Blair Banister, of the Equitable Life Insurance Company: Robert Bolling, of North Philadelphia, and Harry Bohlen Bolling, of Vineland, N. J.
As one of the four "Bolling girls."
Edith, who is to marry the President, is pleasantly remembered by former residents of Wytheville, Va., who now live in this city.

Ferhaps the Philadelphian who has known Mrs. Gast longest is Miss Jessie
Lane, a native of the old southwest Virginia town, who now lives at the Presser
Home for Retired Music Teachers, Ger-

Home for Retired Music Teachers, Ger Home for Retired Music Teachers, Germantown. She is 70 years old. Others who knew Mrs. Galt when she was a little girl are Charles T. Richardson, 2127 Columbia avenue, and William G. St. Clair, Witherspoon Building.

Mrs. Galt, who was the youngest of four daughters of Judge Willam H. Bolling, was at one time the belle of Wytheville, according to her friends. Although the member of one of the oldest families the member of one of the oldest families of a State which prides itself on its families, she was extremely democratic and for that reason all the more popular. She was educated in private schools at Wytheville, at Martha Washington College, Abingdon and at Powell's School for Young Ladies, at Richmond. She married Norman Galt at Wytheville in 1896.

Another Nearing Protest Drawn Up Another document to be added to the Another document to be added to the mass of protests and petitions regarding the dismissal of Scott Nearing from the Wharton School faculty, which will be presented to the trustees of the University of Pennsylvania when they meet Monday, was drown up today by a committee representing the Wharton Association, a body composed of students of the Wharton School. The committee, composed of three representatives of each class and headed by John Scott Lansil, of the 1916 class, was appointed by Gorof the 1916 class, was appointed by Gor-don Hardwick, president of the association, following a protest meeting of two weeks ago. The meeting was held in the offices of the Pennsylvanian.

Dozen Scalpers Arrested

A dozen ticket scalpers who declared they would defy the police and sell as many baseball tickets as they pleased were rounded up this afternoon by de-tectives and taken to City Hall. The men were attempting to make sales on Broad. Market and Arch streets. They were accused of disorderly conduct, and will be arraigned late this afternoon before

TRAIN ROBBERS WOUNDED

Bandit Shot Seven Times in Battle With U. S. Marshals

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 8.-Tom Collier is is a hospital here with seven bullet younds in his body and Jim Rapor is alightly wounded after attempting to hold up Louisville and Nashville passenger train No. 7 at 4 o'clock this morning and a buttle with two United States marshals and Detectives Boedeker and

The attempted hold-up occurred near Poyles. Ala., only three miles north of Birmingham.

HALLAHAN'S

CHOOL

For Big and Little Girls

Strong and sturdy enough for every day, yet good-looking enough to wear for best. Sizes 6 to 8,

Sizes 81/2 to 11, $1.35 Sizes 111/2 to 2, $1.65 The biggest and best shoe values in Philadelphia. For sale at all Hallahan stores; our branches are saving time and money for hundreds of families in the surrounding neighbor-

P. T. HALLAHAN 919-921 Market Street

New Crystal Corner, 60th & Chestnut Sts. 4028-30 Lancaster Ave. 2746-48 Germantown Ave. 5604-06 Germantown Ave.

A UNIQUE NEWFLAT SILVER BASKET, WITH HANDLE, FOR SERVING FIVE O'CLOCK TEACAKES

J. E. CALDWELL & CO.

902 CHESTNUT STREET

Centemeri Gloves

Genuine Imported Kid, Fall Weights

"Alberta" Which we suggest as an example of black and white contrasts.

"Pearl Dome" Tranchant In new Browns, Tans, Grays and Blues,

A table of seasonable weights, broken sizes, from our New York Wholesale Department, specially priced at $50 and $1.15.

1223 Chestnut Street

"Faultless" Bedding

Counterpanes, Comforts, Blankets

Reliable Hair Mattresses Luxurious Box Springs

Attractive Brass Beds

Beautiful lines of these necessities carefully selected to meet our standards of daintin luxury and economy. All sizes to fit cribs, single and double beds and extra large beds. Now is the time to choose yours and be prepared for the cool, snappy nights.

We renovate bedding almost equal to new.

Dougherty's "Faultless" Bedding 1632 CHESTNUT STREET

Aren't they Dandies!

$15, $18, $20,

Fall Overcoats

that have everything in Philly beat a mile!

"BOX-BACK" OVERCOAT BUTTON-THROUGH FRONT MODEL 762

Cont silk-faced to edge, otherwise entirely akeleton. A model of elegance and luxury, eliminating every ounce of superfluous weight. Coat has high, narrow shoulders, straight-hanging box back, and is made in blue, in Oxford and Cambridge gray, and in fancy

SINGLE-BREASTED "BOX-BACK" OVERCOAT

MODEL 700

Another version of our box-back style. Has velvet collar or cloth collar; low, narrow, soft-rolling lapels; button through front or fly front; various cuff treatments. Sometimes full silk lined, sometimes only skeleton lined. Made in conservative colors and fancy

And when it comes to Suits!

Cloth-Values, Tailoring, Models more than you can shake a stick at!

And Style!

Its "N. B. T." touches stick out all over them!

Take a look, that's all!

Perry & Co., "N.B.T." 16th & Chestnut Streets