

HEROES AND VICTIMS PRODUCED WHEN BOSTON WON THE THIRD WORLD'S SERIES GAME

SCENES AND EPISODES IN YESTERDAY'S HEART-BREAKING GAME

The upper left-hand picture, from left to right, shows Captain Good, of the Boston police; Manager "Bill" Carrigan; Tris Speaker, whose triple in the fourth paved the way for Boston to tie the score; J. J. Lannin, president of the Boston club; and Paul J. Lannin, son of the president. At the right, Jack Barry, whose wonderful playing saved the game for Leonard, is seen shaking hands with "Pat" Moran, whose back is towards the camera. This was before the game. Barry is easily the star of the series. Lannin is shown in the centre waiting for a good one. Carrigan and "Bill" O'Loughlin are following the approaching ball with their eyes. The bottom picture is that of a number of Philadelphia's idols during batting practice. From left to right they are: Killifer, Burns, Bancroft, Duguey, Stock, Alexander and Cravath.
