

HILLIES' DEFEAT DUE TO SPLENDID WORK OF BOSTON HURLERS AND BREAKS OF GAME

GOOD PITCHING AND "BREAKS" OF GAME BEAT PHILLIES FOR HONORS

Red Luderus Played Remarkably Brilliant Game in Field and at Bat—Duffy Lewis, of Red Sox, Was Big Hero for the Boston Followers

The world's series is now a thing of the past, and local fans must look toward the 1916 season. The Phillies were beaten in the world's series, but after the greatest struggle ever staged between the pennant-winning club of the National and American League. It was no disgrace to lose to a club that played the wonderful brand of ball the Red Sox displayed.

Phillies Were Outlucked But while admitting that the Phillies were outlucked and that the two teams should be staging another battle today, it is not hard to find the cause of the defeat. Three of the bulwarks of the Philly team, and a trio has played havoc with opposing pitchers in the pinch throughout the local league season, fell down hard.

Cravath Disappointment Cravath, the home-run king and league leader in driving in runs, could send home a single tally in the series, though he had many chances. In the game at Philadelphia he hit three balls an unusual distance, and all would have been home runs in the short Philly park; but in this city he was helpless.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment. Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Why Cravath Did Not Hit Cravath did not hit because he was trying to do too much. He struck out six times during the series simply because he was trying to do too much. He struck out six times during the series simply because he was trying to do too much.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

Whitted's Brilliance Whitted's brilliant play in the series, every one who has seen him play would agree, was the greatest ever shown by Whitted in 1914; but they were doomed to disappointment.

PHILS OUTBATTED, NOT OUTGAMED, IS 'CAP LUDY'S' VIEW

'Ifs' of the World's Series Noted, and Why Moranmen Lost

DOPE SHIFT YESTERDAY

By FRED LUDERUS Captain and First Baseman of the Champion Phillies

Looking back over the five games of the world's series, it seems to me that the biggest consolation the Phillies have is that every man on the team fought in every game.

Before going into any of the details of that game, or of any other games, I want to say that I am proud to have been captain of the Phillies this year.

They played great ball all season and great ball in the world's series against the Red Sox. They won the race in the National League, but they were outbatted in the series, and that caused their downfall.

Before the series began I was confident that we would win, because I figured that Alexander would win every game in which he started, and I still believe that if we had been able to get that game yesterday "Alex" would have won today.

That "Alex" lost his game in Boston to "Dutch" Leonard was not his fault. He pitched wonderful ball for a world's series contest, and if we had come through with the hitting which we did yesterday, there would have been nothing to it.

"ALEX." HELD IN RESERVE. I suppose there are a lot of Philadelphia rooters who are wondering today why we did not pitch Alexander yesterday. Probably some of them think that "Alex" wasn't in condition to go the distance. But he was, as I said, we were counting on winning the series, not just getting as many games as we could.

That we calculated, would have given us the sixth game in Boston, and we would have had Chalmers to fall back on for the seventh and deciding game of the series. We were trying to figure out how to win the series and not just to prolong it. That is why Rixey went in yesterday after Mayer had shown that he didn't have as much stuff as we thought he had.

If yesterday had been the sixth or deciding game we would have put Alexander in to finish after the Red Sox had been hitting Mayer hard, but that would have left us nobody who could have gone in tomorrow, and, as I said, we were counting on winning the series, not just getting as many games as we could.

I don't think there is any pitcher who can work a great game against us two in one series. Shore didn't pitch as well in the game he beat us as he did the first, when we beat him, and I believe he came back yesterday after beating us last Saturday and we got him for nine hits for a total of thirteen bases. If we had got Leonard again I think we would have got to him as we did to Foster yesterday.

So far as the Red Sox outclassing us in the series, I think that is just about as absurd as anything that could be said. There has never been a series since they were begun that the games were so closely contested as that which we played the Red Sox. We won the first game 3 to 1, and even that game was closer than the score would indicate, for we had all the

LEHIGH DID NOT 'ROUGH UP' YALE, REITER CONTENTS

Injuries to Players of Both Teams Not Due to Unnecessary Roughness

OFFICIALS BLAMELESS

Yale has not yet recovered from the hard game with Lehigh last Saturday, and it is probable that she will feel the effects for weeks to come.

Those Old Short Fences I don't suppose any one can say now that the short fields of our park are an advantage to us. Yesterday's game was won by the Red Sox through this fact alone.

On the other hand, Lewis' fly that landed just inside the center field bleachers would have been an easy out for Parkers if he could have gotten to it on a big field.

If any one thinks that Carrigan believed that he had us licked without half trying, as he said in a Boston paper, they should take notice of the way he handled his men yesterday. As soon as Rixey went into the box he sent Cady in to catch, and it wasn't long before Carrigan was on first in place of Hobbitel.

When it comes to fielding I think that our players were just as good as the Red Sox. It is true that they made more spectacular plays in the outfield, but it is because we happened to be hitting their pitchers harder at the time they were hitting ours. It was up to their backs to get these balls or we would have won.

On the infield, I think that even with Barry's great work our fellows showed them up. Stock played a great game at third and Bancroft did far better work than Scott. Eddie Burns handled all of our pitchers in a way that shows that we are not weak in that department even with Killefer out of the game.

Before closing I want to say that the umpiring of the series was the best I have ever seen. We had four different umpires in different positions in the first four games, and all of them, I thought, were not only fair but competent in the extreme.

MRS. G. S. MUNSON WINS MERION GOLF TITLE

Holes Full Mashie Shot on 18th Green for the Match, Defeating Miss Phipps, 1 Up

By a spectacular finish to an uphill match, Mrs. G. S. Munson won the women's golf championship of the Merion Cricket Club by defeating Miss Anita Phipps in the final round today. 1 up.

Miss Phipps held the lead during the early part of the contest, and when the pair went by the clubhouse on the way to the 18th tee she was 2 up. Mrs. Munson staged a rally, and succeeded in squaring the match on the 17th.

Both were 75 yards short of the 18th green in two, but Mrs. Munson put the hole and the match beyond dispute when she holed out her full mashie shot from that distance for a "bird" three. Summary:

FINAL ROUND. Mrs. G. S. Munson defeated Miss Anita Phipps, 1 up.

TOMORROW NIGHT—TOMORROW NIGHT NATIONAL ATHLETIC CLUB BOLDER McCARRON vs. BARTFIELD

Announcement The Peerment Cigar Co.

HAS PURCHASED THE CIGAR STORES SITUATED AT 1105 Market Street S. E. Cor. 5th and Market Streets 911 Market Street 826 Chestnut Street Continental Hotel Stands and, as manufacturers of cigars of long-established reputation over the entire country, they will endeavor to deserve the support of Philadelphia smokers on their own factory brands—by selling such quality of cigars, as well as smokers' articles, as will be sufficient argument to induce each customer to step out of his way to supply his wants at one of our establishments. One of our most popular brands is the

"Generalidad" (Havana Cigar)

We manufacture this cigar in various sizes From 3 for 25c to 2 for 25c

It is made of pure, mild Havana tobacco. Try the Generalidad and you will realize how much superior it is to an ordinary cigar.

$7 to $11 Per 100 Boxes—25 or 50

POWER AND ACCURACY IN GOLF LIE IN EASY, RHYTHMIC SWING

Once Started Right, Proper Positions Are Assumed Naturally—Drives, Putts and Other Shots From Philadelphia Cricket Club

By JOHN ALBERT SCOTT

WHEN you have performed the simple exercise described in the last article you will find your hands are where they ought to be; that a line dropped as indicated will strike the ground inside the right heel; and that they have reached this position without any swing around the body of themselves.

Long banks of fog fluttered about the links at the Cricket Club and gobbled up all the shots that couldn't get tangled up in anything else. Despite the gloom the fog added to the scene. There were some very cheerful shots made.

Boxing Officials Named Sullivan Memorial Tournament to Have Best Judges

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—At a meeting of the committee in charge of the Sullivan memorial boxing tournament officials were appointed for the bouts to be held in the gymnasiums of the New York A. C. and Crescent A. C. on October 29 and 30. A meeting will be held on October 25 to award the classes to each of the clubs.

New York A. C.—George Schwesler, referee; John J. Walsh and Joseph Conlon, judges; Paul Pilgrim and John J. Deignan, clerks; Robert Stoll, timer and Joseph Ruddy, announcer.

Crescent A. C.—Eddie Forbes, referee; J. J. O'Brien and J. W. Stumpf, judges; R. Levine and S. Byrne, clerks; Prosper Clust, timer, and D. Sherrin, announcer.

Cleveland already has announced its intention of holding city championships and sending on the winners to compete at the tournament. Pittsburgh, Boston and Philadelphia, it is believed, will hold similar tournaments.

THE STETSON SALUTE TO THE WORLD'S CHAMPIONS. Up in the crowded stands, when the last man's out and hats go off to the winning team, you'll see the ever-present STETSON Soft Hats and Derbies. Worn by particular men of every age. Stetson Hats have won so many World's Championships that it's hard to keep count without reference to the records. Year after year, in open competition with other makers, the name Stetson has reigned pre-eminent—a symbol of faultless style, absolute comfort and perfect workmanship. This year, as usual, the Stetson was awarded the highest honors by the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Stetson Fall and Winter models embody several new and exclusive features. JOHN B. STETSON COMPANY Retail Store, 1224 Chestnut Street Stetson Hats are Sold and Featured by Prominent Dealers Everywhere

EVENING LEDGER MOVIES—AND THE PITY OF IT, LOUIE, IT LOOKS JUST LIKE HE HAS GOT HIM

