BIG PARADE TO MARK

TIOGA EXPOSITION

Spectacular March Through Streets of Section Tonight. Many Surprises Planned

The biggest celebration in the history of Tloga will take place in that section tonight, when the Tioga Industrial Exposition will open with a parade in which the social, industrial and commercial life of the community will be well represented. Many fraternal and military organisations will also be in the line of march. There is a blage of color throughout the neighborhood in which Old Glory and hanners of blue and white, the colors of the Tioga Bosiness Men's Association, predominate. Many surprises will figure in the parade in the way of novel floats. Some have been designed with an eye to heavily and others will represent the inbeauty and others will represent the in-dustrial progress of the community. Among the concerns which will have floats in line are the Philadelphia Electric Company, National Cash Register Company and the Ivins Bakerles. The pa-rade will start at 8 o'clock, forming at Broad street and Eric avenue.

The marchers will parade through the principal streets, and after passing the reviewing stand at the headquarters of the Tioga Business Men's Association, 3547 Germantown avenue, will dismiss at Rising Sun avenue. In connection with the industrial exposition, a $50 diamond ring has been offered as a prize to the most popular girl in Tioga.
