

Evening ILLUSTRATED Ledger

FRIDAY
October 15, 1915

SCENES FROM THE LIFE OF THE FUTURE MISTRESS OF THE WHITE HOUSE AND THE ST. DAVID'S FETE

JUDGE AND MRS. W. H. BOLLING
Father and mother of the President's bride-to-be.

THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. EDITH GALT
From a picture taken by an EVENING LEDGER photographer at the Phillies' Park in this city.

SISTERS OF MRS. GALT
At left, Mrs. Maury, second sister, and Miss Bertha Bolling, third sister of Mrs. Galt.

GROUP OF THE BOLLING CHILDREN
Little Miss Edith, then four years old, appears in the centre.

THE OLD BLACK "MAMMY"
"Aunt" Sally Steptoe, who was nurse of the Bolling children, is still living at the age of 72.

FÄIRIES IN THE FETE AT ST. DAVID'S
Left to right—Erica Stahlknecht, Evelyn Waples and Edith Treat.

PARTICIPANTS IN THE HARVEST HOME FETE HELD YESTERDAY IN AID OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD LEAGUE AT "WALMARTHON," ST. DAVID'S
At left, Miss Sarah Phillips and "Peter Bolder." In centre, Mrs. J. T. Campbell and Mrs. C. H. Quimby at the gipsy camp. On right, Miss Jean Kaye Chandler and "Topsy Turvy."