

"COPS" NAB STRIKER WHO STIRRED FURRIERS TO JOIN IN WALKOUT

Samuel Gore Arrested After Argument With Employer. Men in All Shops of Trade Called Out

BARBERS MAKE DEMANDS

One man was arrested today, a short time after the local union of furriers called a general strike, when he tried to have employees of Louis Rappaport, of 1277 Walnut street, walk out. The prisoner is Samuel Gore, one of 125 furriers. He will be arraigned at central station this afternoon.

Notices that the strike had been called were sent to all fur shops in this city on a running red bulletin by the General Strike Committee of the Philadelphia Furriers' Union, Local No. 55. Announcement was made in the bulletin of a mass meeting to be addressed by several speakers, at 505 Reed street.

Union fur workers were especially warned by the committee against any sign of violence. They were instructed to march quietly to the Reed street hall. The strikers want shorter hours and more pay.

At the headquarters of the strikers it was said that 75 per cent of the large furriers in this city already had signed up or agreed to. Theodore F. Siefert, of 1636 Walnut street, a furrier, admitted today that he had signed a contract with the union under which he is to employ only union laborers. He said he did this to avoid trouble, as this was the busiest season of the year in the fur business.

Rappaport sent for police protection shortly after he opened his shop today upon receipt of information that the strike had been called. Policemen McDewitt and Kamassky, of the 15th and Locust streets station, were detailed to his store.

Gore entered at 11 o'clock and told Rappaport that he intended to call out the fur workers. After a short argument Gore was arrested. There was no other sign of disorder. Rappaport says he has but one union man in his shop, and that this man and all other employees there are satisfied and will not strike.

Other labor problems in and about the city are occupying the attention of business men and manufacturers today. The barbers of South Philadelphia are planning to strike; the upholstery workers have come to an agreement with the manufacturers and a general strike has been averted, while the situation at the Edgelyne plant of the Remington Arms Company remains unchanged.

More than 600 barbers in the shops in South Philadelphia are planning to walk out today and persons desiring hair cuts or shaves may have to perform the delicate operations themselves or go to another section of the city.

The upholstery situation has been cleared by the announcement that an agreement has been signed by the employers and employees, the terms of which will benefit both. According to the agreement, the workmen will be granted a 15 per cent increase for all piece work.

THE WEATHER

Official Forecast WASHINGTON, Oct. 15. For eastern Pennsylvania—Unsettled and cooler tonight, with probably local rains; Saturday partly cloudy, gentle variable winds, becoming northeast. Showers occurred all along the Atlantic coast and covered the greater portions of the Ohio and the St. Lawrence basins during the last 24 hours. Cloudiness continues over most of that territory this morning, with light rain in a few widely scattered localities. Partly cloudy weather is reported generally from the central valleys and the upper lake region, with scattered showers in the middle plains States. The temperatures continue above the normal at most places east of the Rocky Mountains.

U. S. Weather Bureau Bulletin Observations taken at 8 A. M. Eastern time. Table with columns for Station, Temp., Wind, Clouds, etc.

The Tides PORT RICHMOND. Table with columns for Low water, High water, etc.

Observations at Philadelphia S. A. M. Table with columns for Barometer, Temperature, etc.

Almanac of the Day Table with columns for Sun rise, Moon sets, etc.

Lamps to be Lighted Auto and other vehicles. 3:30 p.m.

Scrapple Time is Here

Youngsters and grown-ups welcome Philadelphia's favorite fall game, the scrapple. 1915.

ALLEN'S SCRAPPLE Advertisement with logo and text.

MAN ACCUSED OF BIGAMY

Prisoner Pleads Guilty to Larceny, Then Faces New Charge

A man was led from the Court of Common Pleas, where he had pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny, to the Central Police Court today to face two women, each of whom said she was his wife.

He was Arthur W. Cowles, of 1381 North Masscher street. One of the women said she was Mary Brozman, of the same address, daughter of the woman, Mrs. Bridget Brozman, from whom he stole jewelry. She said she had married Cowles in July.

The other woman told the Magistrate she was Elizabeth Verdle Riley, and that she had married Cowles in 1906. She had two children with her in court, of whom she said Cowles was the father. She said she was living at present in Gloucester, N. J. Cowles was held under $500 bail for court on the charge of bigamy. He explained that he had lived apart from his first wife for five years, and thought that constituted a divorce.

U. S. FILES BRIEF IN SHIP POOL SUIT

Action Against Transatlantic Line Charges Violation of Sherman Law

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Contending that the anti-trust laws of the United States apply to ocean transportation, the Government today filed in the Supreme Court its brief in the case against the Hamburg-American Line and other members of the so-called transatlantic steamship pool, comprising virtually all the companies engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

The Government also charges that by unfair competition practices, such as the joint operation of "fighting ships," the defendants engaged in North Atlantic steamer trade. It is charged they have entered into a combination and have appointed among themselves, by definite percentages, all the business.

ANTHRAX VICTIM DIES AS HEART GIVES WAY IN STRUGGLE FOR LIFE

George F. Stackpole Succumbs After Complete Cure of Dreaded Disease Is Effected by Physicians

BACILLI CONQUERED

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—George F. Stackpole, whose fight for life against the dreaded anthrax has held the attention of the medical world for the last week, died early today in Bellevue Hospital, not from anthrax but from heart disease.

Physicians had said the anthrax poisoning had been completely cured by the serum compounded by Dr. Adolph Eichhorn, of the Federal Bureau of Animal Husbandry at Washington.

The long fight against the anthrax bacilli, however, had weakened Stackpole's system and his heart proved the most vulnerable organ.

Mr. Stackpole was conscious almost until the end and met death with the same unperturbed courage and faith which he showed when physicians told him before the serum was used that he probably would not live.

According to the physicians his case demonstrated the fact that the serum rushed to New York from the laboratory at Washington can be used successfully in combating the disease in human beings.

Mrs. Stackpole left the patient's room five minutes before he died and awaited the end in an ante-room with a son and daughter.

Martin Brodsky, a laborer, who has been under observation as a possible anthrax victim, was released today, physicians being confident he was not suffering from the disease.

Dr. William J. McNaul After an illness of nearly a year, Dr. William J. McNaul, of 333 Richmond street, died last evening. The physician, who was 42 years of age, was prominently identified with the Masonic order, being a member of Kensington Lodge, No. 21, F. and A. M., Kensington R. A. Chapter, No. 251, Kensington Commandery, No. 54, K. T. Brotherhood of America and other organizations. He is survived by a widow and three children.

Child Dies of Tetanus Tetanus was responsible for the death of Maggie Clifton, 5 years old, of 2514 Kalchm avenue, Camden, today. She died in the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital.

Magistrate Pennock Felicitated Magistrate Evan T. Pennock, the youngest Magistrate in this city, is 20 years old today. When he arrived at his office, 509 Germantown avenue, his desk was bespiced with flowers sent to him by friends and a pile of postcards and letters bore congratulatory messages. Magistrate Pennock was elected to office in 1913. When he was 16 years old he was a member of Common Council and the city's youngest Councilman.

Woman Tries to Pass Bad Money TRENTON, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Minnie Kotchis, an attractive married woman of Elizabeth, was found guilty of having counterfeited money in her possession and of trying to pass it by a jury in the United States District Court here late last night. The jury recommended her to the mercy of the court.

Originality the dominant Style Note Never has there been a season when the fashion in gowns brought the foot and ankle so prominently into view. More than ever before, shoes must dress the feet, not merely cover them.

Originality is the keynote. Geuting's "Queen Quality" styles show the smartest, daintiest, cleverest innovations ever conceived in boots—yet never crossing the line to the frankness that so many have fallen into in an effort to get "something new."

The showing of the new styles at $4.75 is truly remarkable. And by all means see Geuting's "Classic" Series of exquisite new boot novelties—exclusive at this store—in imported glass kid, in all the newest shades. Both in stock and to-order at $8.50 to $12.

Queen Quality in button and lace, $4.75 & $5.50

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

Develop the Arch

TEUTONS TAKE SERVIAN FORT-CITY BY STORM

Continued from Page One Cusak and Stazard, the Servians suffering very heavy losses, the War Office announced this afternoon. Bulgarians have captured the passes between Bjeogradick and Knjasevac, the War Office also announced. Knjasevac is a Servian town about 30 miles northeast of Nish, the present capital. Bjeogradick is opposite it, on the Bulgarian side of the frontier, which is midway between them. The two are some 20 miles apart.

"We are driving the Servians farther south from Bjeogradick," the official bulletin issued this afternoon declared. Announcement of the Bulgarian invasion of Servia by the German War Office was the first official information on Bulgarian operations in the Balkan theatre.

A Russian fleet has bombarded the Bulgarian port of Varna on the Black Sea, according to a dispatch from Bucharest. Four German submarines that had been taken to Varna overland are reported to have escaped into the Black Sea before the blockade began.

Servia today declared war upon Bulgaria. The following announcement was issued at Nish: "Owing to attacks on the Servian army by Bulgaria on the fronts of Zaitchar and Radoviate Servia considers herself at war with Bulgaria."

The Austro-Germans have taken all the heights dominating Belgrade and the various Danube crossings, the Vienna War Office stated today. They were reported pushing southward from Semendria. They captured several Servian cannon when they stormed Mount Lipar.

Servian troops, who made a stand before the Austro-Germans advance southeast of Belgrade, have been defeated in battle, and are retreating eastward into the Avala Mountains, it is officially announced by the Austrian War Office.

Another battle raged between Servians and Bulgarians on the Servian eastern frontier. The Geneva Tribune reports Servians are inflicting terror on the Germans, Austrians and Bulgarians in their triple invasion of Serv territory.

"On the Drina," it says, "the Serbs, having received reinforcements, repulsed the Austrians, inflicting enormous losses. Near Shabatz the Serbs destroyed a German brigade, taking 1000 prisoners."

Allied troops continue to land at Salonica, the French Ministry of Marine announced today. The following statement was issued in Paris: "The transport and the disembarkment of Allied troops at Salonica continues under good conditions. The transport, with General Sarrail, commander-in-chief of the French army in the Orient, arrived at Salonica on October 13."

Field Marshal Mackensen and General Gallwitz and Eichen have arrived at Belgrade and taken command of 30,000 Germans and Austrians engaged in the drive through Servia, said a Bucharest dispatch received today.

Mackensen was already in command of the expedition, but not actually at the front. Gallwitz and Eichen were brought, respectively, from the Austrian and German eastern fronts to act as his chief lieutenants.

500 MINE WORKERS STRIKE Pottsville Colliery Men Object to Forced Use of Safety Lamps

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 15.—Five hundred mine workers struck this morning at the Maryd colliery at Tucumora because the management of the company insisted that miners shall use safety lamps in certain parts of the mine because of danger of gas explosions.

The management declines to meet a committee of workmen until the strikers first return.

Nothing old-fashioned in our Fall fabrics They'll wear just as well as they look. New suit models for men of all ages and all tastes: $15, $20, $25.

Take a minute to try on the best Overcoat you ever saw at $15, $20, $25.

Manhattan Shirts, Scarfs and Gloves in choice designs. Everything for boys as for men. Be assured in advance of Complete Satisfaction.

1524-1526 Chestnut Street

Wright, Tyndale & van Roden, Inc. 1212 CHESTNUT STREET

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

announced today. The following statement was issued in Paris: "The transport and the disembarkment of Allied troops at Salonica continues under good conditions. The transport, with General Sarrail, commander-in-chief of the French army in the Orient, arrived at Salonica on October 13."

Field Marshal Mackensen and General Gallwitz and Eichen have arrived at Belgrade and taken command of 30,000 Germans and Austrians engaged in the drive through Servia, said a Bucharest dispatch received today.

Mackensen was already in command of the expedition, but not actually at the front. Gallwitz and Eichen were brought, respectively, from the Austrian and German eastern fronts to act as his chief lieutenants.

500 MINE WORKERS STRIKE Pottsville Colliery Men Object to Forced Use of Safety Lamps

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 15.—Five hundred mine workers struck this morning at the Maryd colliery at Tucumora because the management of the company insisted that miners shall use safety lamps in certain parts of the mine because of danger of gas explosions.

The management declines to meet a committee of workmen until the strikers first return.

Nothing old-fashioned in our Fall fabrics They'll wear just as well as they look. New suit models for men of all ages and all tastes: $15, $20, $25.

Take a minute to try on the best Overcoat you ever saw at $15, $20, $25.

Manhattan Shirts, Scarfs and Gloves in choice designs. Everything for boys as for men. Be assured in advance of Complete Satisfaction.

1524-1526 Chestnut Street

Wright, Tyndale & van Roden, Inc. 1212 CHESTNUT STREET

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

DUC D'ORLEANS CALLS BULGAR KING A TRAITOR

Returns Decorations Ferdinand Bestowed and Denounces His Alliance With Germans

PARIS, Oct. 15.—A letter couched in terms of bitter hatred has been sent by Louis Philippe, Duc d'Orleans, pretender to the French throne, to King Ferdinand of Bulgaria. The Duc d'Orleans has returned all his Bulgarian decorations, and in his letter refers to the Bulgarian monarch as a betrayer.

"Your attitude in this war imposes upon me the melancholy duty of asking your Majesty to take back the Bulgarian decorations with which you have invested me.

Alas, I cannot send them to you myself, but you have only to demand them from your ally, Germany, whose troops occupied my chateau near Brussels and fled my safe.

"Your Majesty must understand that the day you lift arms against France your name will be blotted from the Order of Knights of the Holy Ghost.

"From childhood your Majesty wanted to attach himself to France, first as an Orleans and then as a Bourbon. It has always been your ambition. Your vnr regalia, your attachment to the Holy Ghost order and numerous portraits prove that. You have since developed another ambition to become Emperor of the East, and now the son of an Orleans princess has renounced his origin and alliance to throw himself into the arms of our worst enemy.

"The Duc d'Orleans has torn off the mask and assumed his real role. I don't see your Majesty to return the regalia of the Holy Ghost order. I prefer that you keep that as a souvenir of the France you betrayed, and may it bring everlasting remorse to you."

Quality First Says Your Grocer: WILBUR'S COCOA 1/4 Pound Tin 10 cents

Wilbur's is never sold in bulk No first quality Cocoa can be sold for less than WILBUR'S

Sheffield Plate In Old Butler Finish For Wedding and Holiday Gifts

Platters Covered Dishes Trays Tea Sets

Candlesticks Pitchers Trivets Vases

Wright, Tyndale & van Roden, Inc. 1212 CHESTNUT STREET

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

Philadelphia & Reading Ry.

announced today. The following statement was issued in Paris: "The transport and the disembarkment of Allied troops at Salonica continues under good conditions. The transport, with General Sarrail, commander-in-chief of the French army in the Orient, arrived at Salonica on October 13."

Field Marshal Mackensen and General Gallwitz and Eichen have arrived at Belgrade and taken command of 30,000 Germans and Austrians engaged in the drive through Servia, said a Bucharest dispatch received today.

Mackensen was already in command of the expedition, but not actually at the front. Gallwitz and Eichen were brought, respectively, from the Austrian and German eastern fronts to act as his chief lieutenants.

500 MINE WORKERS STRIKE Pottsville Colliery Men Object to Forced Use of Safety Lamps

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 15.—Five hundred mine workers struck this morning at the Maryd colliery at Tucumora because the management of the company