

WHERE THE NEWS IS, THERE IS THE EVER-ACTIVE CAMERA MAN TO BE FOUND ALSO

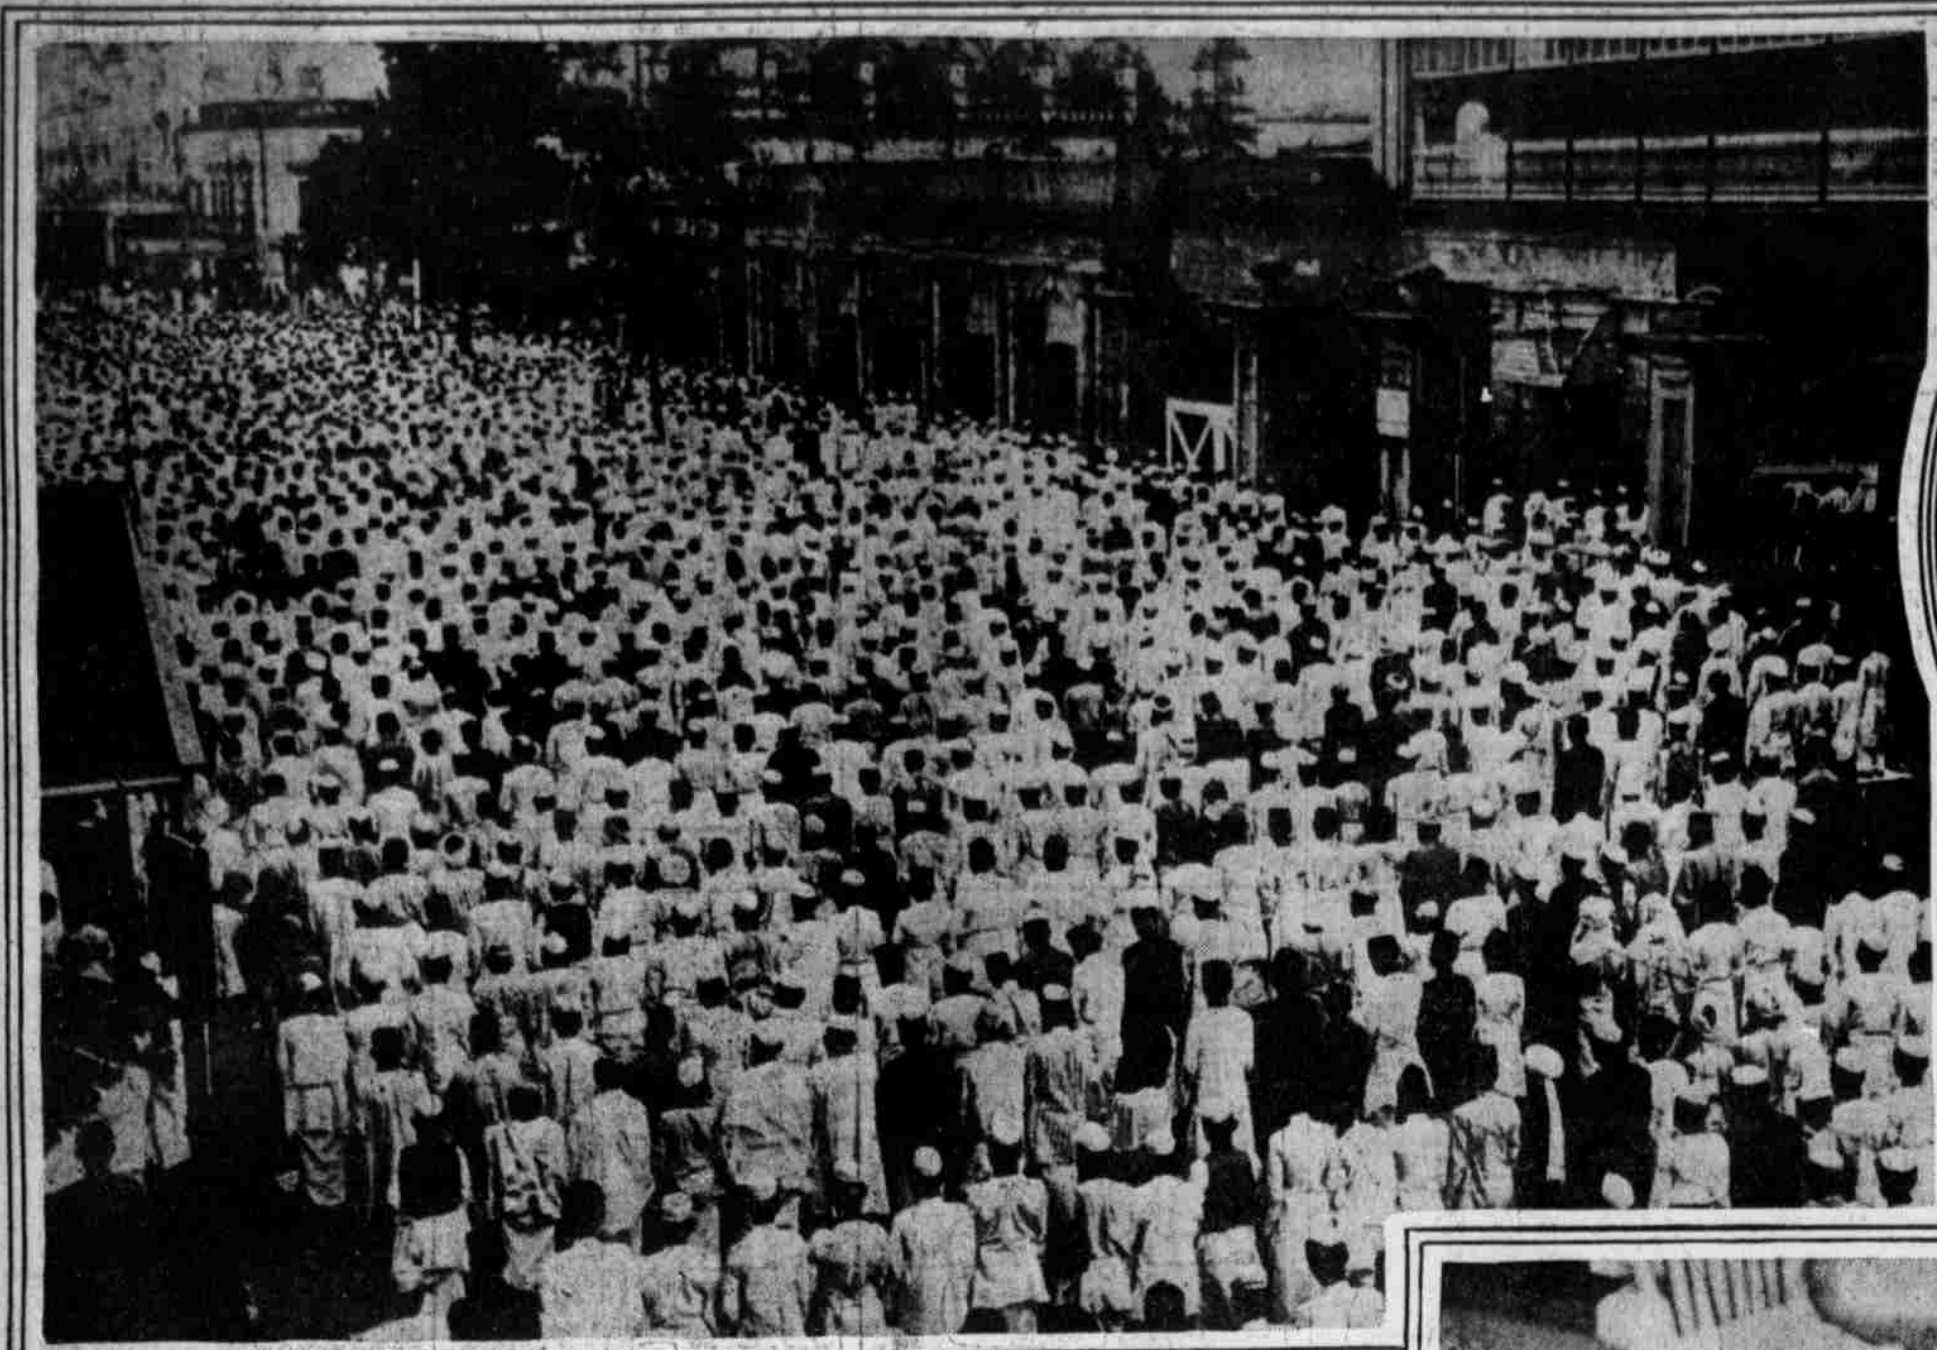

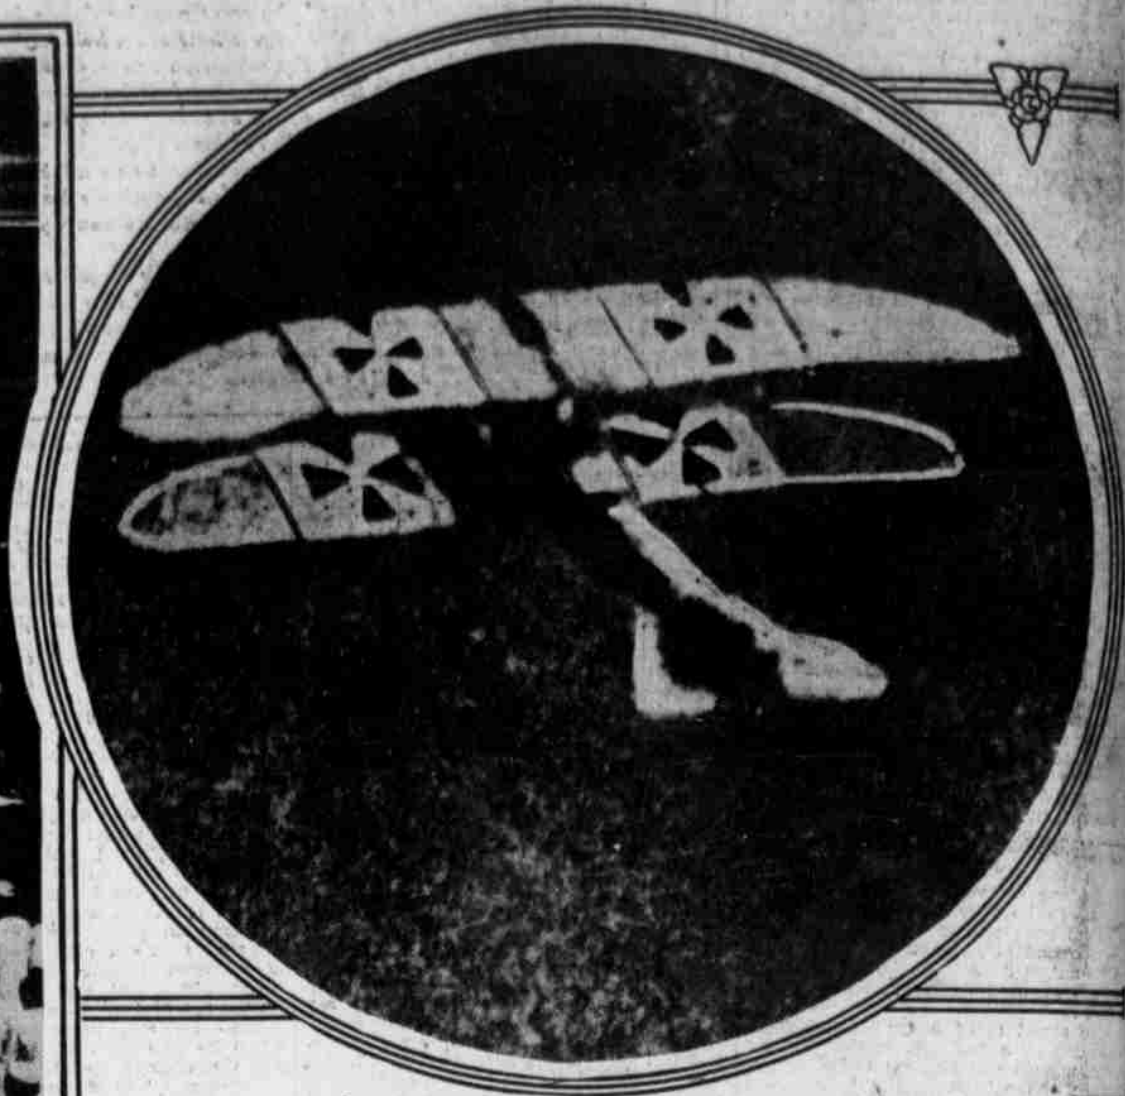

Photo by Paul Thompson.
THOUSANDS OF WHITE-CLAD EGYPTIANS PRAYING FOR SUCCESS OF BRITISH ARMS
This picture was taken during the feast days of Id-ul-Fitz, which is the Yuletide of the Mohammedans. On this occasion patriotic and religious sentiments were combined.

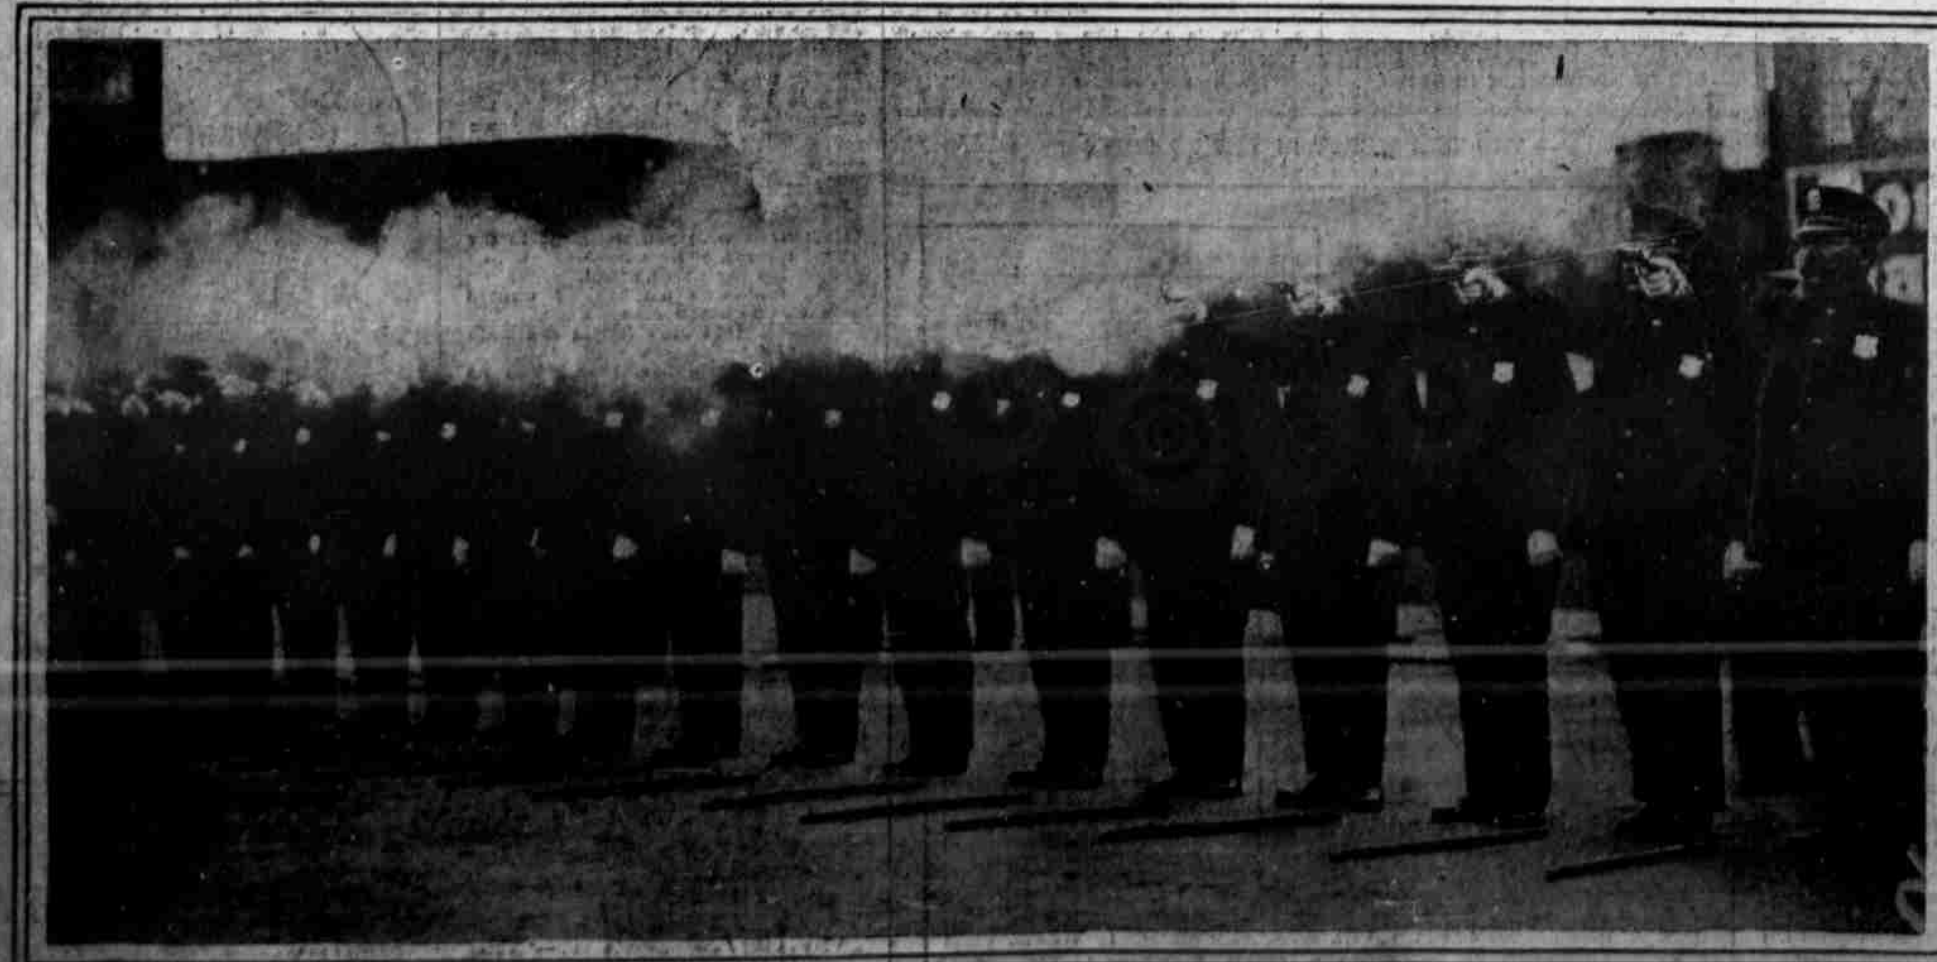

EVEN THE BIRDS OF THE AIR
The Kaiser, in his enthusiasm, has been most generous with the Iron Cross. Note the German biplane with the royal insignia of merit on its wings.

PENN STATE FRESHMEN RECEIVING THEIR FIRST LESSON IN "PREPAREDNESS."
There are 2300 boys of this type under military training at the college. These students are drilling in civilian dress until their uniforms arrive.

THESE CHAPLINS FAILED TO RESIST THE LURE OF COPPER
They held a Charlie Chaplin parade in Camden yesterday, which was the second day of the business men's celebration of the attainment of 100,000 population. Some miscreant threw a handful of pennies into the line of march, with the result as shown above.

HOW PHILADELPHIA'S POLICE WOULD MEET A CHARGING MOB
The riot squad is shown here drawn up in military formation and firing a broadside from their revolvers at an imaginary mass of disturbers. This is a practice drill at the police carnival, which is to be repeated Saturday.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
THE FASTEST TROTTING HORSE IN THE WORLD
This magnificent animal is none other than Uhan, who can cover a mile in 1 minute 54 seconds. He is carrying his owner, C. K. G. Billings, who paid $50,000 for him.