

GAYEST WEEK OF EARLY SEASON WILL FINISH WITH HALLOWEEN

Luncheons, Dinners, Theatre Parties, Dinner Dances, Informal Dances and Debutante Teas to Form a Busy Week

THE gayest week of the "little season" will be the coming one, with Italian parties as a splendid finish. The debutante affairs will go merrily on, though few teas will be given. The ball season will start rolling on Monday with two luncheons: Mrs. Robert W. Downing will entertain at her home, 1624 Locust street, in honor of Mrs. Stephen Gerstein, of New York, and Mrs. Francis Xavier Deane, New York, will give a luncheon at the Philadelphia Country Club for her debutante daughter, Miss Mary De Haven DeLeon.

On Tuesday Miss Ruth Cox and Mr. W. Standley Stokes, whose wedding will take place on November 30, will be given a dinner of honor at a dinner, to be given at the Rabbitt, by Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Gerhard. That in evening also, Captain J. H. H. Buchanan Casvatt will give a dinner, and the wedding of Miss Helen B. Clemens and Mr. William C. Hesse, Jr., will take place. Miss Alfreda Cope Lewis will be presented by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Draper Lewis, on Wednesday at their home in Germantown; and in Chestnut-Foster, and Miss Mildred Gould Graham French, and Miss Mildred Gould Patton will become the bride of Mr. Henry Rogers Cartwright. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dallas Dixon will give a theatre party and supper in honor of Miss Mary Dixon Thayer, Miss Sarah Egeant Myers and Miss Margaretta Dixon Myers. On Thursday Mrs. Marla Thayer Graham will be the honor guest that evening at a dinner which Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rush and their daughter, Miss Charlotte Rush, will give.

With Thursday's coming Miss Josephine C. S. Foster will be given a small luncheon by her mother, Mrs. Thomas C. Foster, and Miss Emilie Posey Kennedy, another debutante, will be the honor guest at a small dinner dance which her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell Posey, will give at the Radnor Hunt Club.

Miss Dorothy Bureas, of 6306 Germantown avenue, will give a dinner this evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Darlington Wilkinson, who will leave in a few weeks for a trip to the Orient.

There will be an executive meeting of the officers of the Alumnae Association of the Stevens School on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the ladies' clubhouse of the Germantown Cricket Club.

Debutante Doings

Miss A. Marjory Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland L. Taylor, will be the debutante to make her bow this afternoon at a tea to be given by her parents at the Germantown Cricket Club from 4 until 6 o'clock. Among the debutantes who will assist in receiving will be Miss Anne Brown Merrick, Miss Margaretta Dixon Myers, Miss Sarah Egeant Myers, Miss Martha Thornton McAllister, Miss Helen B. To Aid the French

Much interest is centered about the recital which Mr. David Blipham will give on the evening of Wednesday, November 3, in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford for the benefit of the French Relief Fund, and under the auspices of the French Relief Committee.

The committee in special charge of the entertainment has Mrs. Harold Yarnall as chairman, and includes Mrs. Alexander J. Casvatt, Mrs. Alexander Van Hensel, Mrs. Edward T. Stotenburg and Mrs. Charlton Yarnall. Mrs. Cornelius Steverton is chairman of the French Relief Committee. The evening promises to be more than enjoyable. Mr. Blipham's reputation is too well known to require any comment, but especially fine is his famous opera singer in his impersonation of Beethoven in that great musician's "Adelaide," and it is in this masterpiece that the great basso will be heard. Mr. Blipham has also promised to give the musical skit "The Rehearsal," assisted by his own company.

OUTING AND ENTERTAINMENT ENJOYED BY BLIND PATIENTS

Automobile Riding, "Goodies" and Songs Were a Part of the Afternoon's Excitement—Minstrel Show to Be Given Tomorrow Night—Other Entertainments

OVER 35 delighted old blind women from the out-wards of the Philadelphia General Hospital were given the time of their lives Thursday afternoon when they were actually motored out to Overbrook in five taxis to attend the second annual entertainment arranged for them by Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. du Mee at their Overbrook avenue home. A long table decorated with flowers and fruit and fairly loaded with sandwiches, cakes, ice cream and candies was placed in the centre of the spacious porch of the du Mee house. The old women were graciously served by Mr. and Mrs. du Mee. Father Singleton, S. J.; Father Robert Tracey, S. J.; of the Gesu Church; Mrs. Charles E. Hanna and Miss Emily L. Fallon, who did all in their power to give them a real "red-letter" day, while "Nora," who devotes her life to the blind and is a well-known figure to every visitor and worker at Blockley, looked after her charges and joined with the others in helping to make the afternoon the delightful success it proved to be. Even the taxi drivers entered into the kindly spirit of the day by deferentially assisting the blind women in and out of the machines. After the refreshments were served the old women sang many Irish and comic songs, and at the close of the afternoon they carried away, with unforgotten delight, bags of goodies and "left-overs" from the feast as souvenirs of a long-to-be-remembered day in the country.
