

PERSONS AND SCENES THAT APPEAR IN THE DAY'S ACCOUNTS OF A WORLD'S ACTIVITIES

THE AUTUMN HARVEST OF DEATH REAPED BY THE FRENCH IN THEIR DRIVE AGAINST THE GERMANS OVER THE FIELDS OF CHAMPAGNE. On the left is the scene of desolation that remained after the storm had swept over the 17-mile front on which the Gallic legions concentrated their attack. A solitary cavalryman rides over a field strewn with mutilated bodies. On the right is revealed the harvest as gathered—row upon row of graves bearing empty shells, helmets and even bottles as headstones.

Photos by Meusem.

"MY VOTERS" IS WHAT ONE OF PENNSYLVANIA'S BEST KNOWN ANTI-SUFFRAGISTS CALLS THESE EIGHT STURDY BOYS. They are the grandsons of Mrs. Brinton Coxe, of 1515 Spruce street, one of the most determined workers in the Pennsylvania Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage. Left to right, they are Oscar Brinton Teuber, son of Captain Teuber, of the Austrian army, and Mrs. Teuber, who was Miss Charlotte Coxe; Daniel M. Coxe, William George Gerhard, Arthur Middleton Young, Brinton Coxe, Christopher Young, Arthur Howell Gerhard and Alexander Coxe Young.

LADY DE BATHE

Lillian Langtry, the famous "Jersey Lilly," has just arrived in this country for a theatrical tour. Though persons who keep up with such things say she is 63 years old, the "Lily" appeared in one of the snappiest of short skirts.

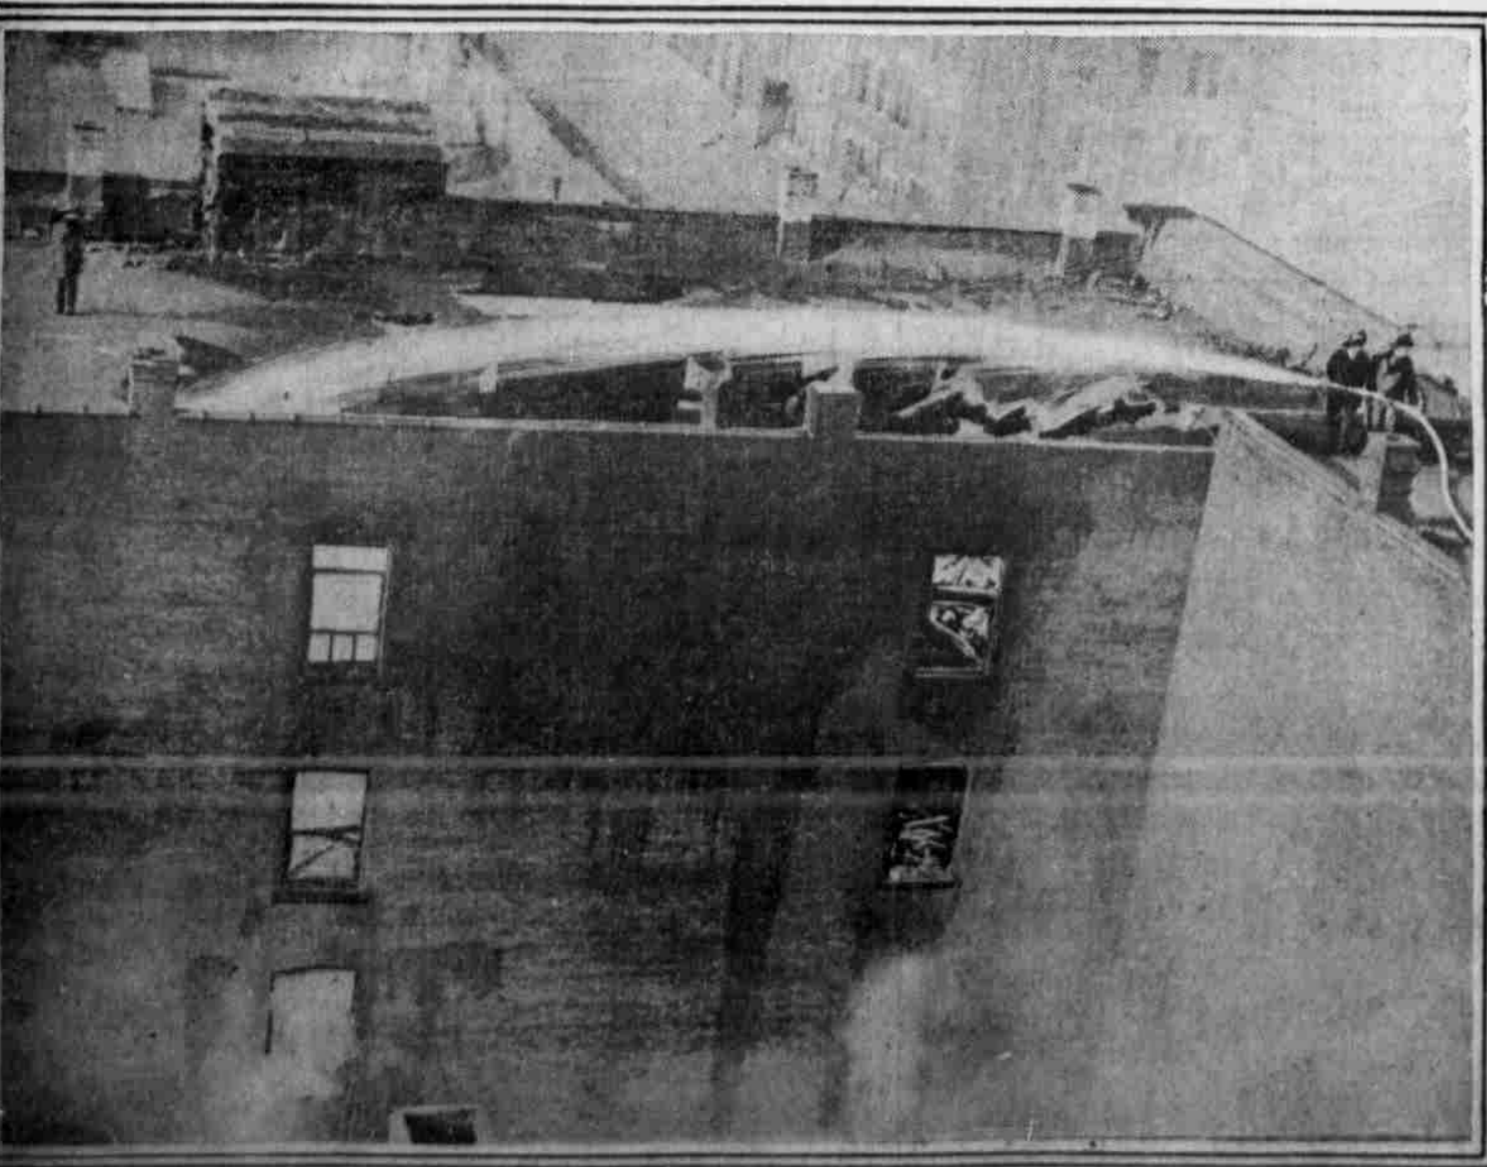

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

ROOF OF BURNING PITTSBURGH PAPER BOX FACTORY, WHICH FELL IN, KILLING 12 GIRLS. The shirtwaist factory horror in New York several years ago came near being repeated in the Smoky City on Monday, when 11 persons lost their lives and eight were injured in a fire which furnished a series of thrilling rescues. One hero was lost after saving six girls.

GEORGE M. COHAN BREAKS BOTTLE ON CORNERSTONE OF NEW FRIARS' CLUBHOUSE. The Friars are the press agents and publicity representatives who make it their business to get pieces in the papers about actors and actresses and their plays. Feeling wealthy, they have decided to build themselves sumptuous quarters in New York.