and of galety from morn to eve, don't you think?

all afternoon Marie Wright will be be given at the Bellevue-Stratford lardens by her parents, the Rev. a. Amph's rectory, Bala.

garle is very charming and extremely She is a great favorite in the of set and will have some of the t popular debutantes receiving with today, among them Margaret Re-Anne Merrick, Sarah Neilson, na McAllister, Margaretta and ich Myers, Elizabeth Griffiths, Eliza-Adams, Marion Grant, Eleanor er and Frances Scott.

Her sister Sibyl will also receive tothe with some of her friends. Sibyl's sent to Ozzy Contes was aned last spring. She came out two rs ago, the same year as Emilie ams, who will be in the receiving ty today also, as will Mary Williams, sbeth Williams, Lucia Warden and ness Baily. I suppose most of them I stay after the tea for the Hutchindance, which will be given in the ons also. Danny and Reggy hinson and John Mears' cards were in the invites and judging from the larity of these same men, I predict god time.

Mrs. Hutchinson is always a pleasant ss and so many of the younger set or her well, as she has for several ars very successfully chaperoned one the popular dancing classes, so there no doubt about the good time every will have. The girls are having at fun suggesting that it is Danny's Regry's debut, to cay nothing of hn's, so I would not be surprised if received nosegays and all the lous other debutante presents. The etts will give a dinner for Elizath Adams before the Hutchinson ce and the Horace Eugene Smiths Ill also entertain.

That the charity ball was a success ere can be no doubt. And the openfeature was beautiful in the excome. Charlie Morgan did himself E. Norton and Mrs. Kane S. black and had donned a white wig a danced in the centre and drove he two teams of the Valentine group and and round in circles, while Deember as Santa Claus and Christmes trees and January in snowball mes danced gracefully around them. The Valentine group was lovely and I think really outdanced all the then in point of grace and perfecion of technique.

The November bunch was the least fuctive in costume, and yet the girls ere very pretty. They had plain litsleeveless polo coats, of black and walte stripes, with very short skirts ser riding breeches and boots. Sophie ris, who loves the bizarre in everying, outsiriped the others by at least is inc. and a half in the width of the bars on her coat. It seems always a pity to make a blatant note in an therwise harmonious whole.

The committee deserves all the tredit in the world for the success of the affair, for they have managed to mike it quite a social event, and last ight there were very few people there no did not know. Among the un-hown were two who caused much exment by their scarcity of apparel, and the peculiar hooped skirts of white s which were hung about the hips with satin ribbons.

It is a remarkable thing how well the ball is patronized with so much the going on, and this week we surely the have to fork out a lot of cash with the Prazdnik on Monday, the Bidconcert on Wednesday and the Carity Thursday. But the old Acadfleer is always fine, and when the older people get tired and go home and leave more space, and the two anda do their duty, it is some fun,

Did you know that the Ritz has put own a wooden floor in the Cafe Parisin for the supper-dances? I think that much better for all concerned. Somemes a marble floor is the best ever, at you can't always tell and if it is at all damp, well, it's good night for a walts or fox trot.

People who had inced there on leady night gazed with surprise on es change of affairs on Tuesday. As and says, "It is because of the deand of a few of our guests; much as by like the appearance of the marble they hevertheless find it tiring ad discomforting, so the management et as army of workmen and in an inly short time the entire floor disred and was replaced by this." I very much doubt if the dancing fad really be replaced by the skating. server, the exercise is good in both

Frederic Kay, or as he is afternoon state with dancing which known to his intimates, at Princeton, "Fuzz" Kay, was one of the most popular men of his class and I understand cardens by her pad Mrs. Wright, that not a few of his classmates will accompany him when he arrives. His sister, Lucy, who came out a few years ago and was the most popular girl of her year, will attend as maid of honor. NANCY WYNNE.
