

PERSONS, SCENES AND EVENTS PROMINENT IN THE NEWS FROM AN ACTIVE WORLD

HEROINE IN ROMANCE OF PURE FOOD SHOW
 Miss Isabel Bollo is an English girl who hands to patrons sample cups of tea at the Food Exposition in Reading Terminal Market. The tea is made by Oka Bundi, of Ceylon, whom she is to wed next month. She was a customer when she met him.

ROUND MIRROR LATEST FAD IN HOUSEFURNISHING
 P. T. Frankl, an Austrian artist, points out that round glasses are less harsh to the eye than the square. He gives his frames brilliant colors and hangs them with a cord.

THE SIGHT THAT CHEERS MARKET STREET MERCHANTS
 After a period of leaness and anxiety that began with the war, the shopping thoroughfare has assumed its wonted holiday aspect, and department store owners spell prosperity with a big P.

AND THIS IN KENTUCKY!
 Governor Stanley has jolted the country by coming out for prohibition and declaring that Demon Rum must chase himself.

STATE FORESTER EVANS BAGS BIG BUCK AND BEAR

Left to right are Ranger Ralph Limbaugh, Mr. Evans, E. M. Hollands, R. K. Walter and H. M. Messimer. They entered the Pennsylvania mountains on December 3 and returned with these trophies of the chase. A record number of hunters are in the hills this year.

LEADERS OF THE TROUBLESOME TROLLEY STRIKE IN WILKES-BARRE
 Left to right are D. J. McCauley, Thomas Edgell, Lawrence Hart, Love Lynch, Charles Boyle, Charles D. Vose, Thomas H. Hatch and John Hughes. They are the labor generals in a struggle that promises to be long drawn out. It has been marked by much disorder, which these men ascribe to imported guards.

SAVED FROM THE HAREM AND SERAGLIO
 These are Armenian women and girls, who managed to escape from the zone which the Turks are accused of devastating. They were rescued by British and American warships and taken to Egypt, where they have to get in line for a daily dole of bread.