

FORD PEACE 'DOVES' FLY AWAY FROM KIRKWALL

Resume Trip "to End War," but Part of Cargo Will Be Held as Contraband

LONDON, Dec. 17.—After being detained at Kirkwall more than 24 hours, Ford's peace ship was released under bond last night, and, according to word received here, has started on her way to Christiania.

The detention was due to the fact that part of the cargo carried by the Oscar II was contraband, and that the whole cargo will have to go into prize court before any of it can be released. Exactly what was the character of the contraband officials would not divulge.

Included in the cargo, it is stated, is a shipment of prizes, but these are not on the contraband list. The authorities would have been privileged, on finding contraband in the cargo, to have unloaded it at Kirkwall, in which event the peace pilgrims would have been kept aboard for several days while the unloading was in progress. It was decided, however, not to detain the ship, but to allow it to proceed to Christiania, where the cargo will be unloaded and brought back on another vessel.

This makes it possible for the Ford party to get to work in Norway within a couple of days on the scheme to end the war before Christmas. Had the authorities chosen to hold the ship at Kirkwall, Ford's dream of a strike in the trenches before Christmas would have been ended long since.

During the stay at Kirkwall the passengers were not permitted to land, but before the voyage was resumed they were allowed to send ashore messages and letters for England, the correspondents, of course, being subject to censorship.

DOG THAT BIT NINE WAS MAD
Pasteur Treatment Will Be Administered to Two of the Boys Who Were Attacked

The bulldog that bit four boys and five men on Wednesday night in the neighborhood of 2nd and Locust streets was mad, according to the report of an examination of its brain made today at the Veterinary Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania.

The Pasteur treatment will be administered today to Clarence Jones, 14 years old, 1311 South 18th street, and Joseph Gallagher, 17 years old, 2907 Cypress street. They are the most seriously injured of the nine victims. Gallagher's nose was almost torn off by the teeth of the dog. The boys are being treated at the Children's Hospital, and the men at the Polytechnic Hospital.

Relatives of the sufferers are awaiting developments and almost every mother in that section of the city is carefully guarding against dog bites by forbidding her children to play in the streets.

WILL IRWIN TO LECTURE ON WAR EXPERIENCES

Famous Correspondent, Home From the Front, Will Give Benefit Talk in Germantown

Will Irwin, war correspondent, will speak tonight before a large meeting of society in the Germantown Y. M. C. A. Hall, at Germantown avenue and Haines street, under the auspices of the Germantown Army and Navy Relief Committee, which was originally organized during the Spanish-American War and which was reorganized a year ago to assist the destitute abroad. The subject of his lecture will be "Personal Experiences and Observations on the European War Field."

Mr. Irwin was abroad twice since the war started and will return to Europe in January. His lecture is said by those who have heard it to be a vivid description of conditions in the trenches. The lecture will be for the benefit of women and children in the stricken countries and particularly for the hospital at Dol, Brittany, and the American Ambulance Hospital at Paris.

Mrs. Francis Howard Williams is president of the Army and Navy Relief and Mrs. Charles A. Martin is treasurer. Patrons of the affair include Mrs. Alfred Reginald Allen, Mrs. Louis F. Benson, Mrs. H. Kent Day, Miss Maria Dickinson Logan, Mrs. Louis C. Madeira, Mrs. J. Willis Martin, Mrs. Edward J. Moore, Mrs. William Henry Newbold, Mrs. William Baird Page, Mrs. James De Wolf Perry, Mrs. James Starr, Jr., Mrs. William Jay Turner and Mrs. Horatio Curtis Wood.

Old Offender Sent to Jail
"Mickey" Gallagher, who has been causing the police trouble for several years, was sentenced today by Judge Ralston in Quarter Sessions Court to an indefinite term of five to eight years in the Eastern Penitentiary. The prisoner entered a plea of guilty to charges of attempting to break into the meatshop of John Gertz, at Ashmead and Wakefield streets. He has been arrested nearly a score of times and has had prison sentences aggregating 15 years inflicted on him for various offenses.

Germany Seeks Swiss Loan
GENEVA, Switzerland, Dec. 17.—Germany is reported to be attempting to raise a loan in Switzerland in order to relieve exchange, as the mark (about 28 cents) has fallen to a franc (53 cents), the lowest figure since the war began. Exchange with Austria is fixed at 100 francs for 140 crowns.

The Charms of the Old-Fashioned Christmas Story

In Sunday's Public Ledger Joseph Jackson has a delightful article on the mystic charms of the old-time Christmas stories. He shows us how the Yuletide tale originated with Washington Irving, though Dickens became its most popular exemplar. Mr. Jackson traces the trend of holiday literature from a recount of ancient customs to tales of philanthropy and good cheer. The article is freely illustrated with reproductions of old cuts, which remind one of the Christmas books our forefathers treasured.
