

WHAT THE EYE OF THE CAMERA SEES IN THE LAND OF PLAY AND PHOTOPLAY

FRANK TINNEY
Polo fiend.

CRITIC AT EASE
Walter Prichard
Eaton, who writes of Broadway for the EVENING LEDGER, sits down to a pipe and a book.

REDSKIN AND BOILED SHIRT
H. B. Warner, at Inceville, inducing Chief Two Lance to smoke the modern pipe of peace.

EQUALLY AT HOME IN CAR AND STUDIO
William Elliott, Lillian Lorraine, Lewis J. Cady and "Young Balboa," all of them Balboa-Pathe stars.