WILL PAT MORAN WANT ANY OF THESE?

ADDIE BRENNAN

When the Federal League players are distributed throughout the leagues of organized baseball, fans are wondering if Pat Moran will want to take Doolan, Knabe, Brennan and Seaton back into the Philly fold, from which they jumped to the Feds.

BACKHAND STROKE IS WEAKNESS OF MOST PLAYERS

flut let us all remember that we are not yet Polls and Williamses and therefore let these trick shots alone. For marvelous at these shots are, they are individual and unique and should not be copied until the fundamental backhand ground stroke lecomes second nature. Once that is accouplished then we can begin to work out the peculiar shot which will become an attacking power.

Do not shield. Barron, of Pennsylvania, undoubtedly earned his place at centre forward. He keeps his winas together splendidly, is an accurate kicker with either foot, and there is always lots of sting behind his

Do not chop your backhand until you have acquired the flat ground stroke or drive. No less an authority than the E. E. Dewhurst says unequivocally, "Never chop your backhand under any circumstances." Doctor Dewhurst ought to know, for there is no greater authority or tennis atrokes in American today than he. a game for Christmas morning at 2d and Clearfield streets. Full expenses will be paid for 12 players within the city limits. Teams can communicate with A. A. Wel-

Chop Is Tabooed The reason for this notice against the chop stroke is not that it is necessarily a bad shot, but that it lacks page. Today pace is an absolute necessity, since the surest way to pass a man at the net is pace plus fair direction. The very nature of the chep stroke in itself tends against great speed, and the result is that it is an easy shot to volley once it is reached. n easy shot to volley once it is reached that Do not think that this is advocating ease.
