

CHRISTMAS EVE SNAPSHOTS OF ACTIVITIES IN AND ABOUT THE CITY OF FATHER PENN

THE SKATING SEASON IS ON IN FULL BLAST
According to the weather observer, the ice on the park lakes is thick enough to last through the holidays. Here is a bevy on Hunting Park Lake

A YEAR AGO AND NOW
At the left is a scene at the Moyamensing Soup Kitchen last Christmas. On the right is a last-minute rush of tree and wreath buyers, all with money in their pockets. The contrast is noteworthy.

CHEF AND HIS CHRISTMAS CASTLE BUILT OF TALLOW
Sarcendo Tamagno, who presides over the culinary department of the Hotel Hanover, is justly proud of this palace, patiently constructed of tallow mixed with cornstarch.

BOYS OF THE PHILADELPHIA TRADE SCHOOL HOLD CHRISTMAS BASKET PARADE
Students of the school at 12th and Locust streets formed themselves into a procession yesterday, when they marched out for their annual distribution of Yuletide presents.
