College students, former Episcopal arademy athletes, turned the tables on the Episcopal Academy field hockey team yesterday afternoon in the Churchmen's courtyard, the Alumni squad winning by I goals to 3 despite the fact that one man was missing when the teams lined Thorington and Van Meter, of Princeton, and Meredith Jack, of Pennwere on the Alumni team.

Former Episcopal stars, Kraft, Ringe, T. Waithour and Jack, showed that they could still play a speedy game of shinny. Jack is well known in scholastic and col-lege circles as the junior golf champion and former Episcopal Academy baseball workin.

Kraft played on the school tennis team and Ringe was a member of the cross-country team. T. Walthour was an all-round athlete at Episcopal during his sthletic career, winning his letter i sotball, baseball, track and gymnastics.

The Episoopal first shinny team lined up resterday with the following men in logs: Stoddart, Lallou, Pendleton, Mc-Call, Lathrop, Wilnson and Hamilton. McCall, Lathrop and Hamilton scored the goals for the school team. Young Poole, ef Episcopal, was referee of the match. From a very reliable source the infor- given against the Briton. mation has been received that both Bill Kummer and "Dutch" Wohlfarth may soon he playing with the Jusper five in the Eastern Basketball League. Rummer, who jumped the team in the middle of the 1914-15 season, is ready, may, even Dr. Mathew C. O'Brien, Central High-a anxious, to return, while Wohlfarth, according to the report, wants to play haskethall and will do so if he can obtain some one to run his bakery at Homestead, Pa.

> The return of even one of these players. let alone both, would be a godisend to Kensington basketball fame, who have stuck to the team despite a losing streak of eight straight games. Kummer jumped last winter because the Jasper manage-ment would not meet his terms, which, to tell the truth, were impossible. Now he is ready to return for almost any sum the Jasper management may offer within reason. Wohlfarth's salary while physing with the Jewels was reported to be the largest paid at that time to any player in the Eastern League, but "Dutch" was worth it, and should be come back to the fold. Nonpareil Hall would be taxed to its capacity at every game, and fans would be turned away by the hundreds.

would be turned away by the hundreds. Before Kummer can return to Jasper the Eastern League magnates must re-move his name from the mythical black-list. This they are sure to do, since a whining team at Nonparell Hall will help the other terms in the league as much as it will Jasper. When Kummer left has twinter he played with and managed the Jeannette term. In the West Penn League. Shortly after his arrival there the club lost its hall by free and had to dink the schedule away from home. The West Penn League just drifted through the season, and did not reorganize this year. RISE OF WILLARD FEATURE OF 1915 BOXING CAMPAIGN

BANTAMWEIGHT FUSS

With the exception of the unexpected defeat of Jack Johnson by Jess Willard for the heavyweight championship-which for the heavyweight championant, which was the biggest puglistic accomplishment in five years—the waning 1915 boxing season has been a remarkably quiet year. This fight alone stands out as the one event to start any degree of tongue-wagevent to start any degree of longue-war-ging. The hitherto invineible black was knocked out by the Kansan cowboy be-fore a $80,000 gate at Havana April 5. Despite the fact that he had lived a life of ease in Paris and London after defeating Jim Jeffries at Reno July 4, 1310, Johnson was an overwhelming favor-be. After the greatest black non since 1110, Johnson was an overwhelming favor-ite. After the greatest black man since Peter Jackson actually had started on the rond to complete collapse the question of the white man's supremacy was broached. Willard won, flooring Li'l Ar-thur in the 50h round. There promises to be a merry fuss over the claim of Johnny Ertle as bantan champion, based on his foul victory over Kid Williams. The Baltimore battler rows to take the matter to court if the Kewple continues to make capital of the title. Inseruch as the St. Paul bout was a bobtailed affair, in a State where ref-crees" decisions are unlawful, Williams contends, the referee nor any one else had no power to wish away his laurels camed in a decision bout on the coast.

blace. If Friedman could be developed into pivot man, the team, with Sedran and Kummer, forwarda, and Wohlfarth and Kummer, forwards, and Wohlfarth and Fox at guards, would be a world beater. Sedran and Kummer are both very light, and hence the smallness of the Jasper case would be a handleap But both are good shots, and with Kum-mer averaging 29 out of 25 fouls the Jewels would win at home, since many of the recent games have been lost by a few points and the difference has usually been in foul throwing. Away from home, in the large cages at Cooper and Musical Fund Halls, and at Camden, Trenton and Reading, the Jasper five as male up above would do more than hold its own.
