

NANCY WYNNE GIVES RESUME OF THE WEEK'S HAPPENINGS

An Unusually Brilliant Calendar Marks Incoming of the New Year—Numerous Festivities, Large and Small, Occupy Society

THE gaieties of the midwinter season came upon us with full force this week, perhaps because the very young set home for the holidays added zest to the parties, but each day was crowded with brilliant events, from the Benedicks' ball following the opera on Tuesday evening to the New Year's Eve festivities, among which the George Wharton Peppers' ball and the much talked-of Hecksher party at the Bellevue-Stratford were the most conspicuous. The holidays ended officially on Saturday night—or shall we say Sunday morning—with Mrs. Scott's Supper Club, for some 300 or more of the very smart set drifted in there to dance at midnight. The club met in the rose gardens, which were converted into a charming fairland for the occasion. The walls were hung with smilax, from which twinkled hundreds of varicolored electric lights, and down each side were placed rows of low and fir trees, giving a most festive appearance.

Those who arrived late were forced to content themselves with tables set outside in the lobby. There was an unusual number of debutantes present and also several of the recent brides. An interesting group at one table included Gurnee Munn and his handsome bride, Marie Louise Wanamaker, which was also her cousin, Brownie Warburton. The Roddy Pages, who returned from their honeymoon in time to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Kremer, made their appearance early in the evening with two members of their bridal party, Cecile Howell and Saunders Meade. In fact, almost the whole Kremer wedding group seemed to be present, as the Shipley Dixons, the Hecksher Wetherills, the Munns and the Spencer Millers were all dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Norris gave a party for their daughter, Miss Dorothy, who dances with such unusual grace. Another interesting group included the Howard Pancoasts, who had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Miles Carey, of Baltimore. Miss Betty Scott had a party of young people, including Josephine Foster, Katherine Seeler, Gertrude Pancoast, Agnes Brockie and Catherine Cassard. Among those who occupied tables were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Evans Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Barkie, Mr. and Mrs. "Ned" Page, the "Ned" Crozer, the Philomen Dickinsons, who have had Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Dickinson, of New York, as their guests for the week-end; Mr. and Mrs. George Sharp Munson, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Emlen Hutchinson and Mrs. Walter Steele, the Churchill Williams, the Lewis Nelsons, the Charles Potters, Jr.'s, the Saunders, Heath Barnard, Jr.'s, Mr. Robert W. Downing, the Cecil Filfers and the Myers Filfers, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Voorhees, the Harrison Caners, the Welderselms, the Isaac Schlichters and the Gazzams.

Popular little Molly Thayer will be given a theatre party and supper at the Ritz-Carlton this evening by the William Linton Landreths, who will have a number of the younger set as their guests, including Miss Charlotte Eleanor Pepper, Miss Elizabeth W. Griffith, Miss Eleanor G. Cuyler, Miss Charlotte M. Cheston, Miss Marie T. Graham, Miss Alfreda C. Lewis, Miss Sarah S. Myers, Miss Margaretta D. Myers, Miss Almee Hutchinson, Mr. Joseph T. Thayer and Mr. Rodney N. Landreth. Agnes Brockie is another bud who will be feted this evening, as the William Wilson Curtins are giving a theatre and supper party for her.

The engagement of Miss Margaret Gladys Marks, of New York, to our own Henry Rawle Geyelin will prove interesting to Philadelphians, even though they both make their home in New York. Doctor Geyelin, who is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, class of 1906, spent several years doing post-graduate work in Berlin, and is now a member of the medical faculty of Columbia University. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Laussat Geyelin, of Villanova. Miss Marks, who is a sister of Julian Marks, who married Nancy Hollingsworth last year in London, makes her home with her sister, Miss Adah Marks, at 133 West 11th street, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus Remak, of the Rittenhouse, will give a theatre party Friday, January 28, in honor of their debutante daughter, Miss Margaret Orendonk Remak.

Dr. and Mrs. George Woodward, of Kriebheim, Chestnut Hill, have issued cards for two musicales, the first of which will be given on January 8 and the second on January 22, at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Earle and his bride will be at home after May 1 at Haverford.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Wanamaker entertained at luncheon yesterday at their cottage at Tuxedo Park, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Yeates Brinton spent the New Year holidays at Lakewood, N. J.

Miss Henrietta B. Ely, who spent the holidays at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., has returned to her home in Bryn Mawr.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Latta, of 3813 Spruce street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Corryell Latta, to Mr. Frank Milburn Rees, son of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Rees, of Pittsburgh. Miss Latta made her debut last season with her sister, Miss Elizabeth Latta, whose singing at the Biddle concert aroused so much favorable comment.

Mrs. William Woodward Arnett and Miss Arnett will receive informally tomorrow afternoon at their home, 215 Pine street, and the succeeding afternoons in January. No cards have been sent out.
