NANCY WYNNE'S DAILY GOSSIP ON MATTERS OF SOCIAL INTEREST

The Fortnightly Dancing Class Will Meet Tonight at Horticultural Hall-Numerous Box Parties for "Magic Flute" at Opera House-Other Doings

HE second meeting of the Fort- and Mrs. William J. Smyth, before the nightly Cotillons will be held to- meeting of the Formightly cotillon. at Horticultural Hall. These gairs were started a number of years to for the girls already out, and the verlasting" debutantes to whom verything is given over were not alawed to put their wee noses into these arties, which were first given at the id Natatorium Hall, then at Asher's, and as they grew in the number of subscribers were finally transferred to Horticultural Hall, where they are still ald. But alas! The original plan has not been held to, and many a debuante attends these parties as well as er older sisters.

The chaperones of the Fortnightly this year include Mrs. George Mason Chichester, Mrs. Arthur H. Lea, Mrs. Joseph Parker Norris, Mrs. Jones Wiser, Mrs. J. Madison Taylor, Mrs William Wurts Harmar, Mrs. Howard Wurts Page and Mrs. William Penn

The Harry Thayers' dance last night the Ritz-Carlton was a wonderful Purviance. affair in the form of a Black-and-White costume party. Mrs. Thayer has made myriads of friends since she married Harry some two years ago, and is one of the most popular young matrons in town. She is extremely pretty, of a blonde type, with very clear complexion, and has a keen sense of humor, which is a kindly one as well, so every one likes her immensely, and she and her handsome hig husband are always at every affair of importance.

Strange to say, Elizabeth Griffiths was absolutely the only debutante present. There were a few of last year's debs, and most of the other guests were from the younger married set And judging from those who attended it was, indeed, quite "a dream of fair vomen." Just think, Mrs. Gardner Cassatt, Polly Dixon that was; Mrs. Tem Ridgway; Mrs. Archie Thomson, Mrs. Andrew Wheeler, Mrs. Charlie Munn, Mrs. William Donner, Mrs. Marechal Brown, Jr., Mrs. Harry Hart, Mrs. Sidney Brock, Mrs. Craig Biddle. Mrs. Bob Large and many others. It was really a great success.

There will be a number of opera box parties tonight, when, with the return of the Metropolitan Company, the grand tier will once more scintillate and twinkle anew with jewels and gorgeous gowns on equally gorgeous women. Aleck Yarnall will give a party in his grandmother's, Mrs. Alexander Brinton Coxe's, box for his flancee, Elise Hopkins. And Mrs. Harrison Smith will also entertain. The Henry Pratt McKeans will give a dinner early in the evening and entertain in their box, which they own jointly with the Tom McKeans.

Last night seemed to be an off-night for the debutantes as there were no dances, though a few theatre parties were given, and several family parties were given at the various theatres; r instance, at the performance of "On Trial" at the Garrick last night, Mrs. Megargee Wright was in a box with her two daughters, Margaret and Hanna, and her sister, Miss Mae Con-Billie Carter in the orchestra seats with his son, young William T. Carter, and his nephew, Carter Leldy. They were all intensely interested in the play, one little girl of about 14, who was with her parents, finding it difficult to restrain the tears. Her mother was regretting that she had not seen it first before bringing her, as fine though it was and filled with strong lessons. A lighter play would lave been more suitable for one of er years.

As Thursday approaches our interest in the "Gambol of the Gods at Monte Carlo," which will be held that night in the Bellevue-Stratford ballroom, waxes greater and greater. I think the cast is splendid, and am wondering just how the whole thing will be put together. Doctor Hoyt, of the Plays and Players, is in it, and you know he is always interesting. I never saw a man perform so many remarkale tricks (that is, an amateur). I am sking forward to a wonderful pernance. All the entertainments gotup for the Museum and School of industrial Art are apt to be unique in the extreme. NANCY WYNNE.
