

PICTORIAL SIDELIGHTS ON THE NEWS OF THE DAY AS REVEALED BY THE CAMERA

STORM-WRECKED CROSS THAT FOOLED HARRISBURG.

This cross on the pro-cathedral was believed to weigh thousands of pounds. Passage in the street below was forbidden and the authorities trembled at the impending crash. Then a workman went up and found it was of hollow metal and would hardly have smashed a hat.

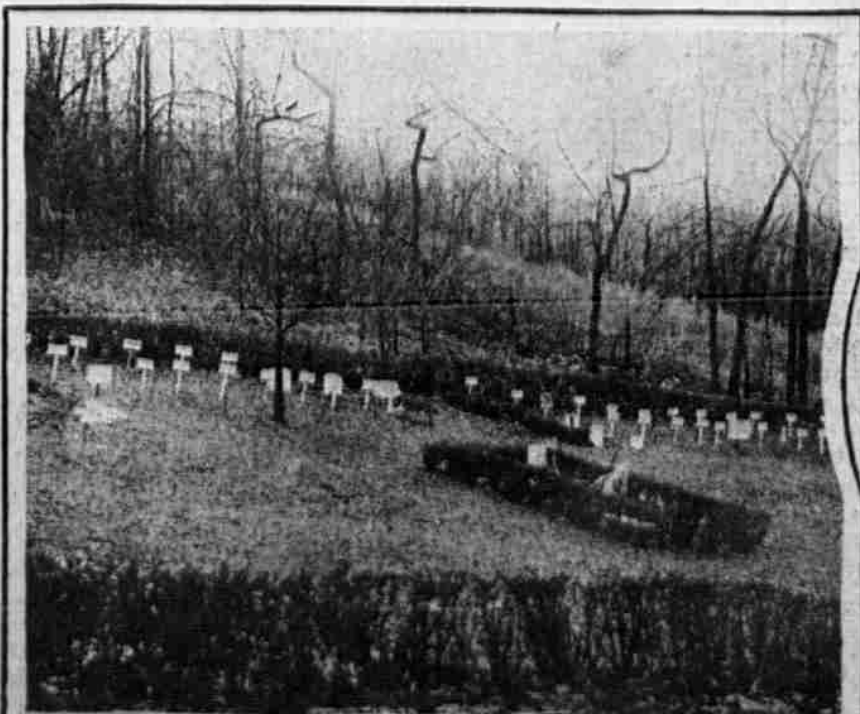

PRESBYTERIANS INVITE PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON TO PHILADELPHIA. His delegation from the Presbyterian Social Union, of this city, went to Washington to ask the President to their dinner on February 28. Left to right: Dr. C. A. Herrick, J. U. Harris, W. T. Ellis, Hugh Dunlap and Philip E. Howard.

CINDERELLA AND THE FAIRY GODMOTHER.

Dorothy Cook Miller and Florence Hunt, as they will appear in the Cinderella opera to be given at the Academy of Music on January 15.

WHERE THE MEMORY OF DEPARTED PETS IS KEPT EVER GREEN.

This cemetery for animals is at Guelph, Pa., where plots may be had for five dollars a year. In the circle is a typical headstone. Dogs and cats are the principal occupants.
