

FRIDAY
January 14, 1916

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

FRIDAY
January 14, 1916

PICTORIAL SIDELIGHTS ON THE NEWS OF THE DAY AS REVEALED BY THE CAMERA

FIRST U. S. AVIATORS ON FOREIGN SERVICE

Photo by International Film Service.
Left to right are Lieutenants Douglas B. Netherwood, Redondo Sutton and Earl L. Canady, of the First Aerial Squadron, of Fort Sill, Okla., leaving San Francisco for Manila, where they will establish an air station.

SOCIETY GIRLS IN THE "GAMBOL OF THE GODS"

Here are two of the attractive choruses in the entertainment given for the benefit of the School of Industrial Art in the Bellevue-Stratford last night. The upper group comprises, left to right: Misses Rachel Fittler, Elizabeth Wheeler, Sara Franklin, Valentine Mitchell, Emily Kennedy, Sara H. B. Penrose and Hannah Wright. Lower group: Esther Lallou, Esther Bochmann, Denise Mercur, Helen Gleason and Eleanor Vogdes.

EVIDENCES OF POPULARITY

Harry W. Mace, the new Assistant Director of Health and Charities, is highly thought of by his acquaintances, judging by the presents that have flowed into his office since he took his seat the first of the year.

BULL MOOSE NATIONAL COMMITTEEMEN SHOW NO SIGNS OF DEPRESSION

Photo by International Film Service.
This picture was taken during the recent meeting of the Progressive leaders in Chicago. Left to right are: Cecil Lyons, William Flinn (shaking hands with William Allen White, of Kansas), Harold L. Ickes, George W. Perkins and John McGrath.

HEALTH IS A LIVE SUBJECT JUST NOW

Dr. Wilmer Krusen speaking to members of the Ocean City Yacht Club at a luncheon held yesterday in the St. James Hotel on the subject of keeping well.