BARONESS PAYS $4000 RENT FOR IDLE PALACE

Former Miss Henrietta Smith. With Austrian Home, Marooned Here

Baroness Carl Czoernis von Czoern-hausen, wesithy Main Line society wom-sen, who, before her marriage, was Miss Herrietta Schmidt, Radner, is in a pecu-

Henrietta Schmidt, Radnor, is in a peculiar predicament.

By an iron-bound lease she is compelled to pay More rent each year in opite of the fact that the home for which she is paying is in Vienna, Austria, and the pariness cannot get there to occupy it. For months she has been paying the rent there, and for months she expects to confuse to do so, although there are no prospects of reaching her Austrian home until the war is over.

The Von Czoernig apartments are not substituted in the paying the rent paying the paying is a captain in the Austrian army while he is fightling and the Baroness is margoned on this side of the occan with her mother, whom she has been visiting for some time, dust is collecting on the paying the rent paying the re
