

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

THURSDAY
January 20, 1916

THE WORLD'S KALEIDOSCOPE OF EVER-CHANGING EVENTS AS SEEN THROUGH THE CAMERA'S EYE

SKATERS DOT SURFACE OF CONCOURSE LAKE

NEW TRAFFIC GUARDS AT CITY HALL

To put a stop to the many accidents on the curves around Penn Square, Director of Public Safety Wilson has stationed men at the corners of the hall.

GOING FORD ONE BETTER—THE AUTO SLED

Abe and Frank, two West Philadelphia bicycle repairers, have hitched power to the old-fashioned bobsled. The small motor-driven wheel sends the children over the hard-packed snow at a high rate of speed.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood

A SUFFRAGIST CIR-CUIT RIDER

To reach the remote sections of the Ozarks, Mrs. Alice Moyer-Wing rides a horse as field secretary of the Missouri suffragists.

NEW YORK WOMEN ORGANIZE CLASS IN ROPE-SKIPPING TO REDUCE WEIGHT

They meet on the roof of the Hotel Majestic and bound about under the eyes of an instructor. A physician stands by to mitigate the straggling whenever it threatens to become excessive. The class has started out bravely with 29 members, with the prospect of many more recruits.

Photo by International Film Service
MEANTIME THEY'RE BATH-
ING AT PALM BEACH

Showing what a country we have, when skating at one end is matched by surf outings at the other.

Photo by International Film Service
A SKATING COSTUME IN THE MODE

A composition of white broadcloth and fur, with the fashionable hooped effect. The pants are of white silk tulle with white kid boots.