

KENSINGTON, AT LAST, GETS GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL

Bids Called for on $400,000 Building to Be Erected Within Year

Kensington is to have a new high school at last. After years of agitation and the frequent petitions to the Board of Education...

These girls now receive instruction in inadequate, antiquated buildings at York and Memphis streets and Indiana avenue and D street.

Bids on the contract will be received by Mr. Dick on February 3. They will be scheduled immediately and the contract will be awarded within a week from that date.

The site of the school is not yet legally the property of the Board of Education. Several private residences and factory buildings have already been purchased and demolished to make way for the school.

"LIPPINCOTT NIGHT" TONIGHT First of Series of Publishers to Be Held at Franklin Inn

A series of publishers' nights inaugurated by the Bookkeepers Association of Philadelphia, will begin tonight at the Franklin Inn.

The speakers will be Joseph P. Remington, editor in chief of the United States Dispensary; Dan Beard, national scout commissioner and author; and Dr. J. Russell Smith, of the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania.

VILLA ESCAPES DEATH BY DASH FROM TRAP

Continued from Page One Sources in Chihuahua stated that the bandit chief was captured alive on a promise that his life would be spared. Three Carranza detachments surprised Villa and his followers, the unconfirmed reports asserted.

Among the 18 bandits captured by Marquez was Colonel Lopez. These murderers were reported to have confessed and were immediately lined up before a firing squad and shot.

Several thousand Carranza troops of all branches have been sent to Torreon to wipe out a large force of guerrillas laying waste the rich country there.

Americans and foreigners, threatened with murder, have fled. The rebels carried away all movable property belonging to Americans and were reported to have damaged Carranza could pay the damage claims.

CARRANZISTAS DEFEATED. General Benjamin Argumedo leads the malcontents. A dash of General Candido Aguilar with a handful of Carranzistas against Argumedo's force at Gomez Palacio, a suburb of Torreon, ended in the slaughter of Aguilar and his men.

When the Carranza army sent to exterminate Argumedo's force took up the pursuit, they found telephone poles decorated with hanging Carranza soldiers. No quarter will be given the rebels if captured.

The seat of the Carranzista Government has been removed temporarily from Queretaro to Celaya. John R. Stillman, special representative of the State Department, accompanied General Carranza to Celaya.

DEATH OF EIGHTEEN BANDITS REPORTED TO WASHINGTON WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The State Department received a report from El Paso today that 18 bandits, said to be members of the band that massacred the American party near Chihuahua recently, had been captured and were publicly executed at Chihuahua City probably today.

Another dispatch to the department stated that the rumor that General Villa has been captured still persists, despite previous denials. The latest report, it was stated, said Villa was caught by General Gaves.

Officials of the War and Navy Departments today said that they had no information confirmatory of reports received in Los Angeles that Japanese soldiers are camped in the Sierra Del Pinal Mountains, in Lower California.

General Hugh Scott, chief of staff of the army, stated that American forces are camped directly across the border from where the Japanese were reported to be located. He said that no reports had been received from the American commander, and he was sure that if there was any truth in the reports he would have been notified.

FELIX DIAZ NOT PLANNING NEW REVOLT IN MEXICO

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—General Felix Diaz, nephew of the late dictator of Mexico, Don Porfirio, the young Diaz whose revolt against Madero set off a train of miseries and misfortunes for Mexico, stood in the reception room of a boarding house at 216 West 72d street last night and assured a reporter as earnestly as seemed possible that he had not organized a new revolution. He added that he was contemplating nothing that would annoy or embarrass the Government of the United States.

There was a story that came over the telegraph wires from Washington yesterday to the effect that agents of the Department of Justice had discovered a Felix Diaz plot to overthrow Carranza, a plot that involved filibustering, arms smuggling and other highly unlawful acts.

The story had it that Secretary of State Lansing knew all about the plot and had taken measures to nip it. General Diaz, after having had his story read to him slowly by his friend and secretary, Pinar del Vilar, who translated the English into Spanish, characterized the statements as nonsense.

It was not easy to locate General Diaz. Although he has been in New York for some time, he has not been seen either at his immediate friends have had his street address and telephone number. For a time he put up at the Hotel Aberdeen, which was a sort of headquarters for the Diaz junta; then he dropped out of sight. But he is comfortably situated now at 216 West 72d street, engaged chiefly in waiting to see what will turn up in Mexico.

The General makes no secret of the fact that he would like to be the President of Mexico and that nothing would give him greater pleasure than to be called home by the reasonably unanimous voice of his fellow countrymen, but he insists that he does not want to fight his way to power, and that he would never do anything to add to the misfortunes of the Mexican people.

MEXICO'S CAPITAL WILL BE MOVED TO DOLORES HIDALGO QUERETARO, Mex., Jan. 21.—A decree from General Venustiano Carranza ordering the removal of the capital of Mexico from Mexico City to Dolores Hidalgo, State of Guanajuato, probably will be issued within the next few months.

All of the members of the Carranza cabinet are in favor of the removal of the capital from Mexico City because of seditious activity in the Federal district. Architects have already begun to draw up plans for the erection of government buildings in Dolores Hidalgo.

The following formal reasons for the removal of the capital were today set forth by a member of the cabinet who favors the change: First—Mexico City is a hotbed of hostile sentiment.

Second—All the traditions of Mexico City are conservative; the constitutional government is radical and revolutionary, and, therefore, Mexico City is no place for the constitutionalist government.

Third—Mexico City is too far south to be constantly and sympathetically in touch with the north. Fourth—In Dolores Hidalgo originated the Mexican revolution against Spain and its tradition of progress still lives.

The government buildings in Mexico City are valued at between $50,000,000 and $70,000,000. These will be sold, according to present plans and the money used to build government structures in Dolores Hidalgo.

MOHR DEFENSE FAILS TO SHAKE MURDER PLOT STORY OF CHAUFFEUR

Heals Sticks to Testimony Against Doctor's Wife Under Terrific Grilling—Gives Graphic Narrative WILL SPEED UP TRIAL

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 21.—Unshaken in the material points of his story, George Heals, negro driver of the death car, left the stand at 11:34 a. m. today in Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr's trial for plotting the murder of Dr. Charles E. Mohr. He probably will not be sentenced on his solo plea until the present trial is ended. Heals has pleaded nolo contendere to a charge of manslaughter.

Heals stuck to his story of the alleged murder plot today despite a terrific three-hour cross-examination by the young widow's defending attorneys. TO SPEED UP CASE. Assistant Attorney General Abbott Phillips took Heals in hand for re-direct examination and, under orders from Judge Stearns to speed up, finished in a short time.

Heals' story in court may be the means of sending the little mourning-clad mother to join him in prison. Her attorneys were cooperative today for a means of discrediting Heals. His story was told without trace of restraint. It was a detailed narrative, and Heals did not falter even in his most minute description of the doctor's death or the shooting of Miss Emily Burger.

Mrs. Mohr was nervous in court today, but appeared less concerned with Heals' testimony than previously. Now and then she eyed the negro severely, but most of the time she talked to her attorneys. MEMORY IS BAD. Fitzgerald started at Heals the moment court opened. Refreshed by the night's interval in his cross-examination, Heals was not as nervous as in the late hours Thursday, but his memory under cross-questioning was no better. He mumbled his replies, mainly the monotonous "I don't remember." Heals for the sixth time could not recall ever having seen Winfield Thompson, a Boston newspaperman, who is alleged to have interviewed Heals in the Bristol jail. In that interview Heals is said to have told Thompson that Mrs. Mohr had nothing to do with the plot.

Fitzgerald closed his cross-examination at 10:10 a. m. He had failed utterly to break down Heals' story of either the plot or the actual murder, but he left the negro's veracity under a serious cloud of doubt.

John B. Edwards, of Providence, a little negro attorney with a long mustache, known as the "Delmas of South Carolina," took up the cross-examination.

HEALIS ASKED FOR AID. A letter from Heals to Edwards, written while Heals was a prisoner in the local jail last October, was introduced by Edwards. Heals admitted he wrote it. The letter asked Edwards to call on him and aid him "and the other two boys" in their defense. That was before Heals turned State's evidence. Edwards tried to show that Heals at that time was giving a different version of the shooting.

Woman's Club Reciprocity Day The Woman's Club of Ardmore held a reciprocity day this morning in the Ardmore Baptist Church. Mrs. S. Prentiss Nichols spoke on "Club Work," and Mrs. Edwin C. Grice on "Peace." Dr. Francis H. Green will lecture this afternoon on "An Interpretation of the Vision of Sir Launfal."

FORD PARTY TO CROSS GERMANY ONCE MORE

Peace Delegates Incensed at Kaiser's Officials for Delaying Permission NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—American delegates and alternates to the Ford permanent peace tribunal have finally won Germany's consent for another trip across German soil en route to Stockholm. The Ford press bureau made this announcement today in a cablegram sent to press associations from The Hague.

The delegates and members of the Ford business staff were scheduled to leave The Hague this noon. They are to travel across Germany to the Danish frontier in a sealed car.

The press bureau of the Ford expedition, however, is evidently quite angry at the Germans. "After being detained nearly a week by the refusal of the German military authorities to permit them to cross Germany," the Scandinavian members of the Ford peace expedition reached their homes today," the cable said. "Besides being extremely annoying to all the Scandinavians, it worked particular hardships on several with pressing duties at home."

The Scandinavian delegates have chosen their members and alternates for the permanent peace tribunal, the cable said. The Dutch delegates are to vote today.

COAL MEN MAY DECIDE NEW WAGE SCALE HERE

President White Announces Conference May Be Held in Philadelphia INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—Promises that coal strikes will be avoided this spring were brighter today. Two developments in connection with the convention of the United Mine Workers of America in session here caused mine leaders to take this view.

The other development was the announcement by President White that a joint wage-scale conference of anthracite operators and miners will be held February 10, either at New York or Philadelphia.

President White also announced that in Indianapolis are representatives of two of the biggest financial institutions of this country, watching the convention, having received a cablegram from one of the allied warring nations to learn whether America is to suffer an industrial war that would affect the manufacture of war munitions.
