

THE NEWS OF THE DAY SET FORTH IN PICTURES THAT COME FROM HOME AND ABROAD

THEY ALL CROWD EAGERLY AROUND WHEN COLONEL ROOSEVELT COMES TO TOWN
The former President appears here in the centre of a group which surrounded him yesterday as he came out of City Hall, where he sat for a time in the Municipal Court. He is accompanied by E. A. Van Valkenburg, who appears on the right in the derby hat.

BOY SCOUTS GET A LINE ON FIRST AID TO THE INJURED
Troop 95, first troop organized on the city playgrounds, meets at Starr Garden, 7th and Lombard streets, where it is instructed in points pertaining to first aid by Dr. Joseph Walch.

AMONG THE FIRST PATRONS OF THE WARM SANDS OF PALM BEACH
Mr. and Mrs. Gurnee Munn, of Washington, and their pet German sheep dogs. Mrs. Munn was Miss Marie Louise Wanmaker, of this city.

WOMAN "CANS" INDIAN MUSIC FOR UNITED STATES MUSEUM
Miss Etancon Donmore, expert in the red man's lore, has spent years collecting phonograph records of tribal songs. Here she is shown transposing the music to notes that may be played on the piano.

SERBIAN CHILDREN GET THEIR FIRST OUTFIT OF AMERICAN KHAKI CLOTHES
These are the sons and daughters of refugees gathered at Salonica following the overrunning of their country by the Teutonic armies. They have been clothed in garments contributed by a wealthy citizen of Tarrytown, N. Y., and distributed by Mrs. Dora Grouitch, who visited this country a few months ago, and Miss Alva Read, an American girl, who returned to Serbia with her.
