

NANCY WYNNE PREDICTS GAY WEEK FOR SOCIETY FOLK

The Second Monday Evening Junior Cotillon Will Be Held Tonight—Miss Downs and Miss Penrose Will Be Feted Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan

WITH today a week of gaiety will commence; most of the affairs will be, however, for the younger set. Tonight will see the second meeting of the Monday Evening Junior Cotillon, which will be held in the Rose Gardens of the Bellevue-Stratford, and will take the form of a dance and buffet supper. The Harry Thayers will give a dinner for Elizabeth Griffiths before the cotillon; Elizabeth is, by the way, quite one of the greatest belles in the city. Dame Rumor has it that we will soon hear some news in connection with her, but then these news debs have so much attention from so many suitors, how is it possible to be sure until they tell us themselves, and goodness knows they have plenty of time to make up their minds before deciding on their "Life Sentences."

Tomorrow night Bessie Downs and Sarah Penrose will be given a supper-dance at the Ritz-Carlton by the James Francis Sullivan, which will be fun no doubt. Mrs. Sullivan makes a charming hostess on all occasions.

There will be a lot of children's parties at the Doll's performance of Cinderella tomorrow afternoon, which will be given by the Misses Mixer at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Mrs. Charles Harrison, Jr., will give one for his little girls, Mrs. Thomas G. Ashton, Frederick W. Schmidt, Miss Mary Converse, Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., and Mrs. Howard Ellison will also entertain for children, and so will Mrs. Edgar V. Seeler.

It was truly a goodly gathering at the meeting of Mrs. J. Hutchison Scott's Supper Club on Saturday night, at the Bellevue-Stratford, and, by the way, it was the last one of the first series. These supper dances have become so very popular that there is quite a waiting list for membership, and Mrs. Scott has decided to start a second series of dances, beginning next week.

On Saturday night it was necessary to throw open both the Rose Garden and North Garden to accommodate the guests, and let me say here a word as to the management. Things certainly do go well at the Bellevue. There were all sized tables for large and small parties, and every one was most efficiently served. Two orchestras had to be placed, for the Rose Garden was too crowded for every one to dance in there, so all that had to be planned out and arranged for, and I don't think it could have been better.

No one expected to do anything but dance and sup, and behold we were given a surprise in the appearance of the fabled oyster of darkness, who, "dressed to kill," danced and cake-walked, much to their own enjoyment as well as the laughing guests, for they were extremely funny, especially a little man with a red Turkish cap and a swallow-tailed dress suit made of bed ticking or awning material in large and wide stripes. They were a source of keen amusement, and it was a short space of time to watch these more than comic entertainers.

There were a great many parties, and several girls up from Baltimore, among them Selby Zell, who was a guest of the Spencer Millers, but it's almost impossible to say who is a guest of who at these parties, for we all change around so much from table to table, because, you see, every one knows every one else. Mr. Alfred Norris and Dorothy had a party and the Charles A. Potter Jr.'s had eight guests, among them Anne Spencer, who is a sister of Mrs. Potter. Heath Barnard entertained a large party. His sister Margaret looked so lovely in a stunning gown of light-blue pompadour silk, made with a high-backed bodice and open, square neck.

Mrs. Henry Augustus Berwind entertained for Margaret, and Mrs. Robert W. Downing also had a large number of guests.

Mr. and Mrs. William Coleman Freeman had a table, and among her guests was Charlotte Bain, who looked very sweet in a dark blue chiton frock.

Among others who entertained and were entertained I noted Charlie Gilpin, Anna Gilpin, Mary Steele, Margaret Patton, the Churchills Williams, Charlie Harrison, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Billie Hirst, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fitter, Emily Ehret, Neddy Page, Roddy Page and the new Mrs. Roddy, Jean Thompson, Gertrude Pancoast, Roddy Wister, the Sam K. Reeves, the Evans Roberts, Major Porter, Commander Nelson, U. S. N., Commander Bull, U. S. N., Judge Audenried, York Stevenson, the Littlehousens, Saunders Meade, the Gardner Cassatts, Mariana Gowen, Lisa Norris, Sarah Neilson, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney P. T. Brock, Marguerite Patterson, Hannah Randolph, Lila Fisher, Betty Scott, the Ridgway Rellys, Billy McAleer, Jim Lineaweaver, Frances Clark, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Rosenbarten, Joe Rosenbarten, Jr., the Jesse Williamses, Ed. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Earle White, the Jimmie Potters, Mary Thomas, Marie Sellers, Ethel Shields, Jack Potter and innumerable others.

What interesting, not to say amusing, sideights are thrown on our accepted conventions now and again by the proletariat! We go along the even tenor of our way forgetting that there is a world outside our own little orbit, and a very real one, too, in which many people are living and dying as much as we are own friends and acquaintances. And frequently laughing and at us, I am afraid. On Friday night I was riding in a Spruce street trolley, that line which has become dear to us through the efforts of many facetious rhytmists, among whom is the one who jocosely described the car as "loitering" down Spruce and "wobbling" out Pine. On this evening, as usually is the case, there were numerous members of the "submerged tenth" seated in the car, who were not so much interested in the efforts of the rhytmists as they were in the efforts of the "submerged tenth" to get out of the car at 20th street or thereabouts three

TO AID IN CHARITY AFFAIR FOR CONVALESCENT HOME

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

MISS MILDRED CARTER

MISS MAY FELIN

MISS HELEN CONROY

Along the Main Line

MERION—The second annual informal "get together" dinner of the Merion Civic Association, to be held Thursday, January 27, at 6:30 in the ballroom of the Overbrook Golf Club, and which will be presided over by Mr. Edward Bok, president of the association, will be called Railroad Night, and promises to be a unique affair in the history of the club.

Every branch of the railroad system will be taken up and practically explained by men actually "on the job"—men who have safely carried the limited express over thousands of miles, through dense fog, blinding blizzards and in sweltering weather, men from the electric road to the Pennsylvania Railroad, Main Line division, who, with the assistance of lantern slides, will tell of the intricate details of this latest railroad development; men from the tower room, who have worked the wonderful signal code that has saved hundreds of lives; men who have drafted the gigantic network of thousands of miles of railroad beds; men who have the responsibility of a whole train on their hands and without whose signal no stop can be made; men who have "run back" hundreds of feet with the red flag to warn a fast-moving express of danger ahead; men from the wrecking crew who have directed the tragic work in connection with big and small wrecks; men, in fact, who have done "the run" in every quarter of the railroad world. Altogether the night of January 27 promises to be one long remembered not only in the minds of the men of the Merion Civic Association, but in the memory of "the men from the ranks," who are looking forward with much pleasure to this explanation of their exciting work, in whose telling many thrilling incidents and interesting side lights will doubtlessly be revealed.

Mrs. Carl E. Lindgren entertained at bridge and dancing on Saturday evening. Her guests included Mrs. Thomas Williams, of Scranton; Colonel and Mrs. Frederick T. Pusey, Dr. and Mrs. William Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. George Pequot, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Cunniff, Mr. Edward Field, Mr. W. Field, Miss Katherine Quinn, Miss Marie Cambles, Miss Kathleen Delany, Mr. John Murney, Mr. Harry Dunham, Mr. Earl Hopburn, Mr. Philip Miller, Mr. William Turner, Mr. Samuel Turner, Colonel William Carson and Mr. Carson Rhodes.

Friends of Mr. Walter Jones, of Wynote, will be glad to hear he has recovered from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFarland, of Lenox road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFarland, of Lenox road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFarland, of Lenox road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFarland, of Lenox road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Along the Main Line

MERION—The second annual informal "get together" dinner of the Merion Civic Association, to be held Thursday, January 27, at 6:30 in the ballroom of the Overbrook Golf Club, and which will be presided over by Mr. Edward Bok, president of the association, will be called Railroad Night, and promises to be a unique affair in the history of the club.

Every branch of the railroad system will be taken up and practically explained by men actually "on the job"—men who have safely carried the limited express over thousands of miles, through dense fog, blinding blizzards and in sweltering weather, men from the electric road to the Pennsylvania Railroad, Main Line division, who, with the assistance of lantern slides, will tell of the intricate details of this latest railroad development; men from the tower room, who have worked the wonderful signal code that has saved hundreds of lives; men who have drafted the gigantic network of thousands of miles of railroad beds; men who have the responsibility of a whole train on their hands and without whose signal no stop can be made; men who have "run back" hundreds of feet with the red flag to warn a fast-moving express of danger ahead; men from the wrecking crew who have directed the tragic work in connection with big and small wrecks; men, in fact, who have done "the run" in every quarter of the railroad world. Altogether the night of January 27 promises to be one long remembered not only in the minds of the men of the Merion Civic Association, but in the memory of "the men from the ranks," who are looking forward with much pleasure to this explanation of their exciting work, in whose telling many thrilling incidents and interesting side lights will doubtlessly be revealed.

Mrs. Carl E. Lindgren entertained at bridge and dancing on Saturday evening. Her guests included Mrs. Thomas Williams, of Scranton; Colonel and Mrs. Frederick T. Pusey, Dr. and Mrs. William Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. George Pequot, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Cunniff, Mr. Edward Field, Mr. W. Field, Miss Katherine Quinn, Miss Marie Cambles, Miss Kathleen Delany, Mr. John Murney, Mr. Harry Dunham, Mr. Earl Hopburn, Mr. Philip Miller, Mr. William Turner, Mr. Samuel Turner, Colonel William Carson and Mr. Carson Rhodes.

Friends of Mr. Walter Jones, of Wynote, will be glad to hear he has recovered from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFarland, of Lenox road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFarland, of Lenox road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFarland, of Lenox road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFarland, of Lenox road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB OF LANSDOWNE WILL MEET

Members to Be Addressed by Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Houston and Miss McConnell—Mutual Progress Society Holds Evening of Grieg Music

MRS. H. S. PRENTISS NICHOLS, vice president of the Eastern District of the State Federation, will address the meeting of the Twentieth Century Club of Lansdowne tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Howard K. Houston, of the Women's Club of Ridley Park, will speak on "Americanizing the Immigrants," and Miss Mary McConnell, of Philadelphia, will speak on "Educational Interests of the Consumer's League."

Mrs. Isaac H. Rhodes, Federation secretary, will be in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Helga Borgen addressed the Mutual Progress Society in its clubroom, 427 Christian street, on "Edward Grieg and His Music" on Friday evening. Mrs. Borgen was assisted by Mr. Isadore Corak, Mr. Anthony De Luca and Mr. Joseph Rosenman, of the society, who played musical selections by the great Norwegian composer.

The Auxiliary of the Hebrew Ladies' Emergency Society held its regular semi-monthly meeting at its rooms, 206 Pine street. Mr. George J. Burris presided. Reports were read from the following committees: Entertainment, Mr. Mitchell Fox, and Membership, Mr. Solomon Sacks. Mrs. Jacob Ginsburg, chairman of the Ball Committee of the main organization, addressed the members and also extended an invitation to the annual ball, which will be given on February 22 at Mercantile Hall. A committee was appointed by Mr. Burris to secure donations for the ball. The committee consists of Miss Julia Greenwald, Miss Paula Bodek, Miss Adeline Cohen, Miss Pauline Harrison, Miss Jessie Savitsky, Miss H. Sulzow, Miss Bertha Berkouty and Miss Looman. A special entertainment and dance for the members will take place February 6 at the clubroom.

Mr. Charles A. Fisher entertained at a stag dinner at the Commodore on Thursday evening. Covers were laid for 20 guests, who included the Rev. William K. Fisher, Mr. James Sheble, of Reading, Pa.; Mr. Lyman Hoffman, of Pennsylvania; Mr. Calvin B. Hess, of Heliopolis, Pa.; Mr. William Durham, Mr. Arthur Hood, Mr. Ernest Smythe, Mr. Jess Schultz, Mr. Alexander Hannell, Mr. James Kennedy, Mr. Henry Koenig, Mr. William C. K. Walle, Mr. Joseph Hostetler, Mr. Adam C. Fisher, Mr. I. W. Kloppe, Mr. Jacob Ritzman, Mr. Earl McFeeter, Mr. Harry King, Dr. J. S. Parker and Mr. Fred Lambert.

Advance will be given in the Masonic Hall, Beverly, N. J., on Saturday evening. The patronesses include Mrs. T. Burnett Baldwin, Mrs. Burton D. Blair, Mrs. Alexander C. Ferguson, Jr., Mrs. John M. Hamer, Mrs. Benjamin F. Hamilton, Mrs. Walter Holloway, Mrs. William T. Kirk, Jr., and Mrs. Louis S. Kite. The committee in charge of the affair includes Mr. John W. Hamer, Mr. Alexander C. Ferguson, Jr., Mr. G. Walter Holloway, Mr. Louis S. Kite and Mr. Frank W. Thacher.

An informal surprise party was given for Miss Catharine McClelland upon the anniversary of her birth at her home, 2515 Parrish street, last week. Mr. John Carr and Miss Marie Heath rendered several operatic selections in duet, accompanied by Mr. Clifford Porter on the mandolin and Mr. Thomas Porter on the guitar. Among those present were Miss Mary Fletcher, Miss Genevieve Ford, Miss Helen Ford, Miss Theresa McManis, Miss Catharine Kilgarriff, Miss Ethel Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter, Mr. Edward McGowan, Mr. James McGulgan, Mr. George Fitzpatrick, Mr. James Fury and Mr. John Lee.

A dinner-dance was given last week by Mr. and Mrs. William Wright, of 1402 Oxford street, to the members of their dancing class. A feature of the evening was the cabaret performance given by some of the members, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. W. Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. E. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. G. Eise, Mr. and Mrs. Volper, Mr. and Mrs. F. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. C. Verkes, Mr. and Mrs. W. Maule, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. F. Verkes, Mr. and Mrs. F. Strauss, Mr. and Mrs. H. Reeves, Mr. T. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. Shudaker, Mr. F. Pinkenhous, Mr. and Mrs. A. Milander, Mr. and Mrs. W. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. W. Busby.

The members of the K. K. Klub were entertained last week by Mr. Fred Schaeffle, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Craig, of 1402 Pashall ave. Those present were Miss Natalie Craig, Miss Emma Peterson, Miss Blanche Chapman, Mr. George McKane, Mr. G. D. Craig, Mr. G. D. Craig, Mr. George McKane, Mr. Lawrence Gettings and Mr. Calvin Craig.

The Grandis Amcne gave a party at the home of Miss Reba Zager, 849 North 19th street, on Sunday. Covers were laid for 12 guests. Pink carnations were used as decorations. Mr. Abraham Cohen entertained as a comedian and vocal soloist were Miss Molly Gelber and Mr. George Schwartz. Among those present were Miss Molly Gelber, Miss Estelle Katin, Miss Rose Shapiro, Miss Fanny Osman, Miss Gladys Fox, Mr. Benjamin H. Solomon, Mr. Ludwig Molnar, Mr. Howard Lannin, Mr. Abraham Cohen, Mr. George Schwartz and Mr. Harry A. Feldman.

Miss Sarah Gerson, of 200 South 5th street, entertained the Unique Club, of which she is a member, at her residence. Miss Gerson is an ardent worker for the bazaar and dance to be given by the club on February 2 at the Gladstone Club rooms, southwest corner 15th and Susquehanna avenue, for the benefit of the war sufferers.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Laskawitz, of 761 Bainbridge street, announced the engagement of their daughter, Matilda, to Mr. Maxwell Dietch, of Camden, last Sunday evening, and also announced the engagement of their son Herman to Miss Ida Mar-mour, of 2118 South 16th street, on Sunday evening.

The ceremony was followed by a reception attended by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Laskawitz, Mr. and Mrs. M. Dietch, Mr. and Mrs. A. Marmour, and Mrs. M. Levin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marmour, Mr. and Mrs. I. Marmour, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Salkin, Mrs. S. Needle, Mr. and Mrs. H. Schumler, Mr. and Mrs. Shumsky, Mr. and Mrs. Pogatch, Miss Ida Marmour and Miss Jeannette Marmour, Miss Ida Snyder, Miss Matilda Needle and Miss Raba Needle, Miss Anna Matilda and Ethel Laskawitz, Mr. Herman Laskawitz, Mr. J. Levin, Mr. Samuel Carmel, Mr. Weiss and Mr. Rosenthal.

A long talk on "War Sufferers in Europe" was given by Mr. J. A. Salkin. On Sunday, the members of the fast-growing Creamtown Country Club, of South Philadelphia, Mr. Harry P. Henry, Mr. John J. McDevitt, Mr. W. Leo Dougherty, Mr. Charles J. Rogers, Mr. Karl O. Lindberg and Mr. Stephen Richardson, obtained a beautiful site for their new home, mainly through the efforts of their treasurer and secretary, Messrs. Rogers and Dougherty, respectively. A meeting was held Sunday, when the membership was increased to 12 members, and the final arrangements were made for their first annual dance to be held in the near future.

Mrs. William D. Rock, of 1933 Spring Garden street, gave a small dance on Saturday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. Sims, of Illinois.

Mrs. William D. Rock, of 1933 Spring Garden street, gave a small dance on Saturday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. Sims, of Illinois.

Mrs. William D. Rock, of 1933 Spring Garden street, gave a small dance on Saturday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. Sims, of Illinois.

Mrs. William D. Rock, of 1933 Spring Garden street, gave a small dance on Saturday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. Sims, of Illinois.

Mrs. William D. Rock, of 1933 Spring Garden street, gave a small dance on Saturday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. Sims, of Illinois.

Mrs. William D. Rock, of 1933 Spring Garden street, gave a small dance on Saturday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. Sims, of Illinois.

Mrs. William D. Rock, of 1933 Spring Garden street, gave a small dance on Saturday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. Sims, of Illinois.

Mrs. William D. Rock, of 1933 Spring Garden street, gave a small dance on Saturday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. Sims, of Illinois.

PNE FOREST INN
AND COTTAGES
SUMMERVILLE, S. C.
Newly improved.
Pne Forest Inn, 15 miles from Greenville, S. C., is a beautiful resort for the winter. It has a large swimming pool, golf course, tennis courts, and a fine dining room. The cottages are comfortable and well-furnished. The inn is open all year round.

HOTEL CHAMBERLIN
OLD POINT COMFORT, VA.
Swimming Pool, Golf, Seafood Cuisine, European Bath and Treatment. For terms, write GEO. F. ADAMS, Manager. "Ask Mr. Foster," 12th and Chestnut Sts., Cor. York, 127 Broad St., Phone 8-1, C. 1423 Chestnut St.

Hotel Dennis
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.
Superior location with an unobstructed view of beach and boardwalk. A recognized standard of excellence. C. 1423 Chestnut St.

TRAYMORE
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.
Has set a new standard of service, comfort and beauty. LARGEST FIRE-PROOF RESORT HOTEL. BATHS, IN THE WORLD.

House Hunting
is always tedious—particularly when you must continually hunt for the janitor. You can eliminate the bother and futility of the task and quickly locate possible houses by advertising your wants in the Public Ledger.

Every morning—early—the Public Ledger is read by a vast number of people who, more than likely, can accommodate you.

An advertisement in the classified columns will bring you immediately in touch with these people.

PUBLIC LEDGER

What interesting, not to say amusing, sideights are thrown on our accepted conventions now and again by the proletariat! We go along the even tenor of our way forgetting that there is a world outside our own little orbit, and a very real one, too, in which many people are living and dying as much as we are own friends and acquaintances. And frequently laughing and at us, I am afraid. On Friday night I was riding in a Spruce street trolley, that line which has become dear to us through the efforts of many facetious rhytmists, among whom is the one who jocosely described the car as "loitering" down Spruce and "wobbling" out Pine. On this evening, as usually is the case, there were numerous members of the "submerged tenth" seated in the car, who were not so much interested in the efforts of the rhytmists as they were in the efforts of the "submerged tenth" to get out of the car at 20th street or thereabouts three

What interesting, not to say amusing, sideights are thrown on our accepted conventions now and again by the proletariat! We go along the even tenor of our way forgetting that there is a world outside our own little orbit, and a very real one, too, in which many people are living and dying as much as we are own friends and acquaintances. And frequently laughing and at us, I am afraid. On Friday night I was riding in a Spruce street trolley, that line which has become dear to us through the efforts of many facetious rhytmists, among whom is the one who jocosely described the car as "loitering" down Spruce and "wobbling" out Pine. On this evening, as usually is the case, there were numerous members of the "submerged tenth" seated in the car, who were not so much interested in the efforts of the rhytmists as they were in the efforts of the "submerged tenth" to get out of the car at 20th street or thereabouts three