NANCY WYNNE PREDICTS A GAY TIME AT THE STEWART WURTS AFFAIR

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart Wurts Will Give Unique Entertainment Tonight for Miss Uytendale Baird and Miss Josephine C. S. Foster

MosT unique will be the party which dinner of 12 covers this evening at their home, 270 South 18th street. give tonight for Uytendale Baird and Jesephine Foster. An impromptu and original cabaret dance, where forty guests will be seated at small tables, and in between times, as the spirit moves them, so to speak, one or another, perhaps even two, will rise from their places to do various stunts, and exhibition dancing will also be the order of the evening. Mrs. Wurts tells me it will be absolutely impromptu that no special program has been arranged. I am sure Mary will dance, as she did very prettily at the Gambol of the Gods, and surely Uytendale will recite. She is so talented and so very effective in her evening gowns. I do not know of many girls who can wear the gorgeous colors which are so becoming to her rich complexion.

From what a little bird told me there will be other displays of local talent. It is whispered that perhaps Valentine Mitchell will sing, Provost McMichael will be there, I understand, so he will probably be persuaded to recite, and I hear that Francisco Valdez will probably do some of his wonderful stunts.

I am willing to wager all forty guests are looking eagerly forward to no end

It is interesting to learn that Dorothy Welsh and Ethel De Coursey have epened a studio together at Walnut and 8th streets, and have taken up interior decorating in real earnest. They are painting furniture and doing all sorts of new and interesting things. Dorothy is such a delicately pretty type, with her fair hair and blue eyes, new undertaking.

There is no doubt about it, Mrs. Scott's Supper Club is a great institution, and with the opening of the secend series on Saturday night a number of new subscribers have been added to the list, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Eton Cromwell, Mr. and Mrs. William Coleman Freeman and Miss Julia Berwind.

The Rose Gardens and North Garden were both crowded with tables, the Isaac H. Clothiers' party for Elizabeth Wheeler alone numbering 49 guests, and the George Harrison Fraziers had 24 guests. The Sydney Emlen Hutchinsons and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Donner each had 10 in their parties. The Henry Pepper Norrises and the Alfred E. Norrises were there. Miss Julia Berwind entertained a party of seven.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartol Brazier, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rittenhouse Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Miller, 3d; Mrs. Ned Croz.r, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Dale, the D. Webster Doughertys and Marian, Mr. and Mrs. | New Orleans William Hirst, Mr. and Mrs. George Munson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Neilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Potter, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Pease, the Evans Roberts. Joe Rosengarten, Jr.; Mr. and scher Wetherill, Harlow Voorhees, Walter Thayer, Margot Scull, Margaret Wright, Sarah Neilson, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Baugh, Jr., of Baltimore; Penn street. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Eugene Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Huhn, Mrs. Huhn Walsh, Margaretta Myers, Sarah Myers, Uytendale Baird, Carolyn Sheppard, Mildred Sheppard, Arthur and Walter Wheeler and Dick Bullitt. There must have been at least 350 guests.

It's rather inspiring to note how immensely martial our women are becoming; the Colonel's talk on preparedness is striking home evidently, for meetings are being held daily by patriotic women, who are ket a to see their fellow sisters engaged in the work. Mrs. Bob Strawbridge has been one of the most loyal adherents of the preparedness crusade and every day last week was on hand at the Widener Building answering questions Lolish and profound and adding hourly to the enrolment list. She tells me that no end of out-of-towners, too, have sighiffed their interest in the work, and a number of this season's buds are North 37th street, entertained a number of their greatest to take lessons in first aid. Already they see themselves white-linened and white-capped. with all the giorious possibilities of a medal or two for signal bravery. Mrs. George Wharton Pepper and Miss Cadwalader are others whose activity in the matter is absolutely unlimited. NANCY WYNNE.

WASHINGTON, Jan 31.—Unofficial so-ciety probably has a lot better time at its dinners here than the elect, and certainly Miss Lois Root Goodnow, for whom a dinner was given Friday night, got more out of being the guest of honor than either the President at the the President or the Vice President at the state affairs.

SAYS EMOTIONS FORM POISONS

Fear, Anger, Hatred Injurious, Asserts Christian Science Speaker

Poisons may be formed in the human Poisons may be formed in the builds a system by the arousal of emotions, according to George Shaw Cook, of Chicago, a member of the board of lecture-ship of the Christian Science Mother Church, in a lecture on Christian Science at the Orpheum Theatre, Germantown, yesterday.

"Human emotions, such as fear, anger worry or hatred, are now said to produce polsonous conditions on or in the physical body," he said, pointing out the danger of yielding to such emotions. "If this is so, may not many cases of chronic poi soning in the human system be traceable to a chronic disposition to give way to the emotions?

He explained the Christian Science the ory that all disease originates in the mind and that the cure rests there. Mrs well, the speaker said

HOUSING EVIL CORRECTED

Commission Forces Property Owners to Make Necessary Repairs

Property owners who do not visit the houses to correct housing evils are being pursued by the Philadelphia Hous' a Commission, which within the last 12 months has caused more than 100 property owners to make 500 corrections of nuisances, this costing more than $11,000. The annual report has just been made public.

Owners who refused to make repairs recommended by the commission lost 146 tenant families, who were directed to more sanitary houses by the commission. Besides making 5,000 visits in the last year, the commission has added a new department, which co-oberates with ownestimating the cost of recommended

PLAN CAMDEN POLICE SHOW Beneficial Society Ready for Carnival Next Week

Ail of the space for the 4th annual industrial show and carnival of the Police Beneficial Society of Camden has been disposed of and the work of decorating the 3d Regiment Armory, where the show is to be held during the week of Pebruary 7, commenced today.

Boszell's 3d Regiment Band, of Camden, has been selected to furnish the music, according to an announcement made today by Chairman Arthur Colsey. There has been much interest shown in the "Queen's Contest" during the last week and all of the seven young women who are entered are within a few votes of each other for first honors. Misse Prieda Kadisch continues to lead, with Misses Mattle Williams and Mary Mc-Taggeri following closely. Taggert following closely,

NEW MUSIC SCHOOL AS A SUFFRAGE LURE IS CALLED THE FUTURE HOPE OF REPUBLIC'

Ex-Governor Stuart Lays Cornerstone of Building in Memory of Mrs. Louise Knapp Curtis

'HOME OF OPPORTUNITY"

The movement to "Americanize through music took concrete form when former Governor Stuart laid the corneratone of the new Settlement Music School, at 416-428 Queen street, in the presence of bun-dreds of prominent men and women and an enthusiastic throng of American children of foreign descent, yesterday after-

Simple ceremonies marked the dedica-Simple ceremonics marked the dedication of the building, now under course of construction as a memorial to Mrs. Louise Knapp Curtis, mother of Mrs. Edward Bok, one of the vice presidents of the school. The building is to cost $150,000 when completed, and will provide commodious quarters for the school, which now numbers 200 pupils, and is conducted at 427 Christian street.

Ex-Governor Stuart, in laying the cor-nerstone, recalled to mind a picture of a high school building, in front of which stood several hundred pupils. At the conclusion of the address Mrs

Bok placed in the corneratone a zinc box containing a copy of The Ladles Home Journal for January, 1883, when it was edited by her mother; a copy of the Public Lepons and a copy of the first lesue of the Evening Ledger, that of September 14, 1814.

Among the guests gathered around the tlag-draped stand were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Fels, Miss Catherine McIntire, Mr. ue: S. CHARITY SOCIETY'S CAMPAIGN FOR MEMBERS BEING PUSHED

Prominent Men Assist Work of Increasing Interest

with the Society for Organizing Charity in its campaign to increase its member-ship from 400 to 10,000 and to raise $150, 600 for the maintenance of the organiza-

The campaign literature is being mailed to hundreds of citizens in an effort to influence them to take a deeper and more personal interest in the work of alleviat-ing the burdens of the poor. The society has 82 workers on its payrolls and does about one-half of the entire charity work accomplished in Philadelphia. More than 250 persons have already signified their desire to know more about the society. Among the prominent men dientified with the campaign are Samuel M. Curwen. Charles C. Harrison, Rudolph Blan-kenburg, S. W. Colton, Jr.: Cyrus H. K. Curtis, N. T. Folwell, Samuel Res, Charles J. Rhoads, Richard L. Austin,

John Hampton Barnes, James Crosby Brown, Robert L. Montgomery, J. R. McAllister, S. D. Warriner. "We want more members," said Stevens Heckscher, president of the society, as well as more funds-volunteer citizens who will give of their time and service in visiting and helping the poor. A more intimate, personal contact be-tween those who have of the fullness of life and those below the life-line will

Girls' High Tonight
