FAST EXPRESS TRAIN ON GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY STRUCK BY SNOWSLIDE AND ROLLED DOWN MOUNTAINSIDE
Six persons lost their lives and several were injured when the "Cascade Limited" was overtaken by this catastrophe in the Cascade Mountains on the line to Seattle, Wash. These pictures were taken as the buried passengers were being dug out. That at the left shows how the rear end of the train was cut off by the slide, leaving part of it hanging on the mountain side. The picture at the right shows the dining car, in which most of the lives were lost.
