

SIDELIGHTS ON THE NEWS OF THE DAY AS GATHERED BY THE EVER-PRESENT CAMERA MAN

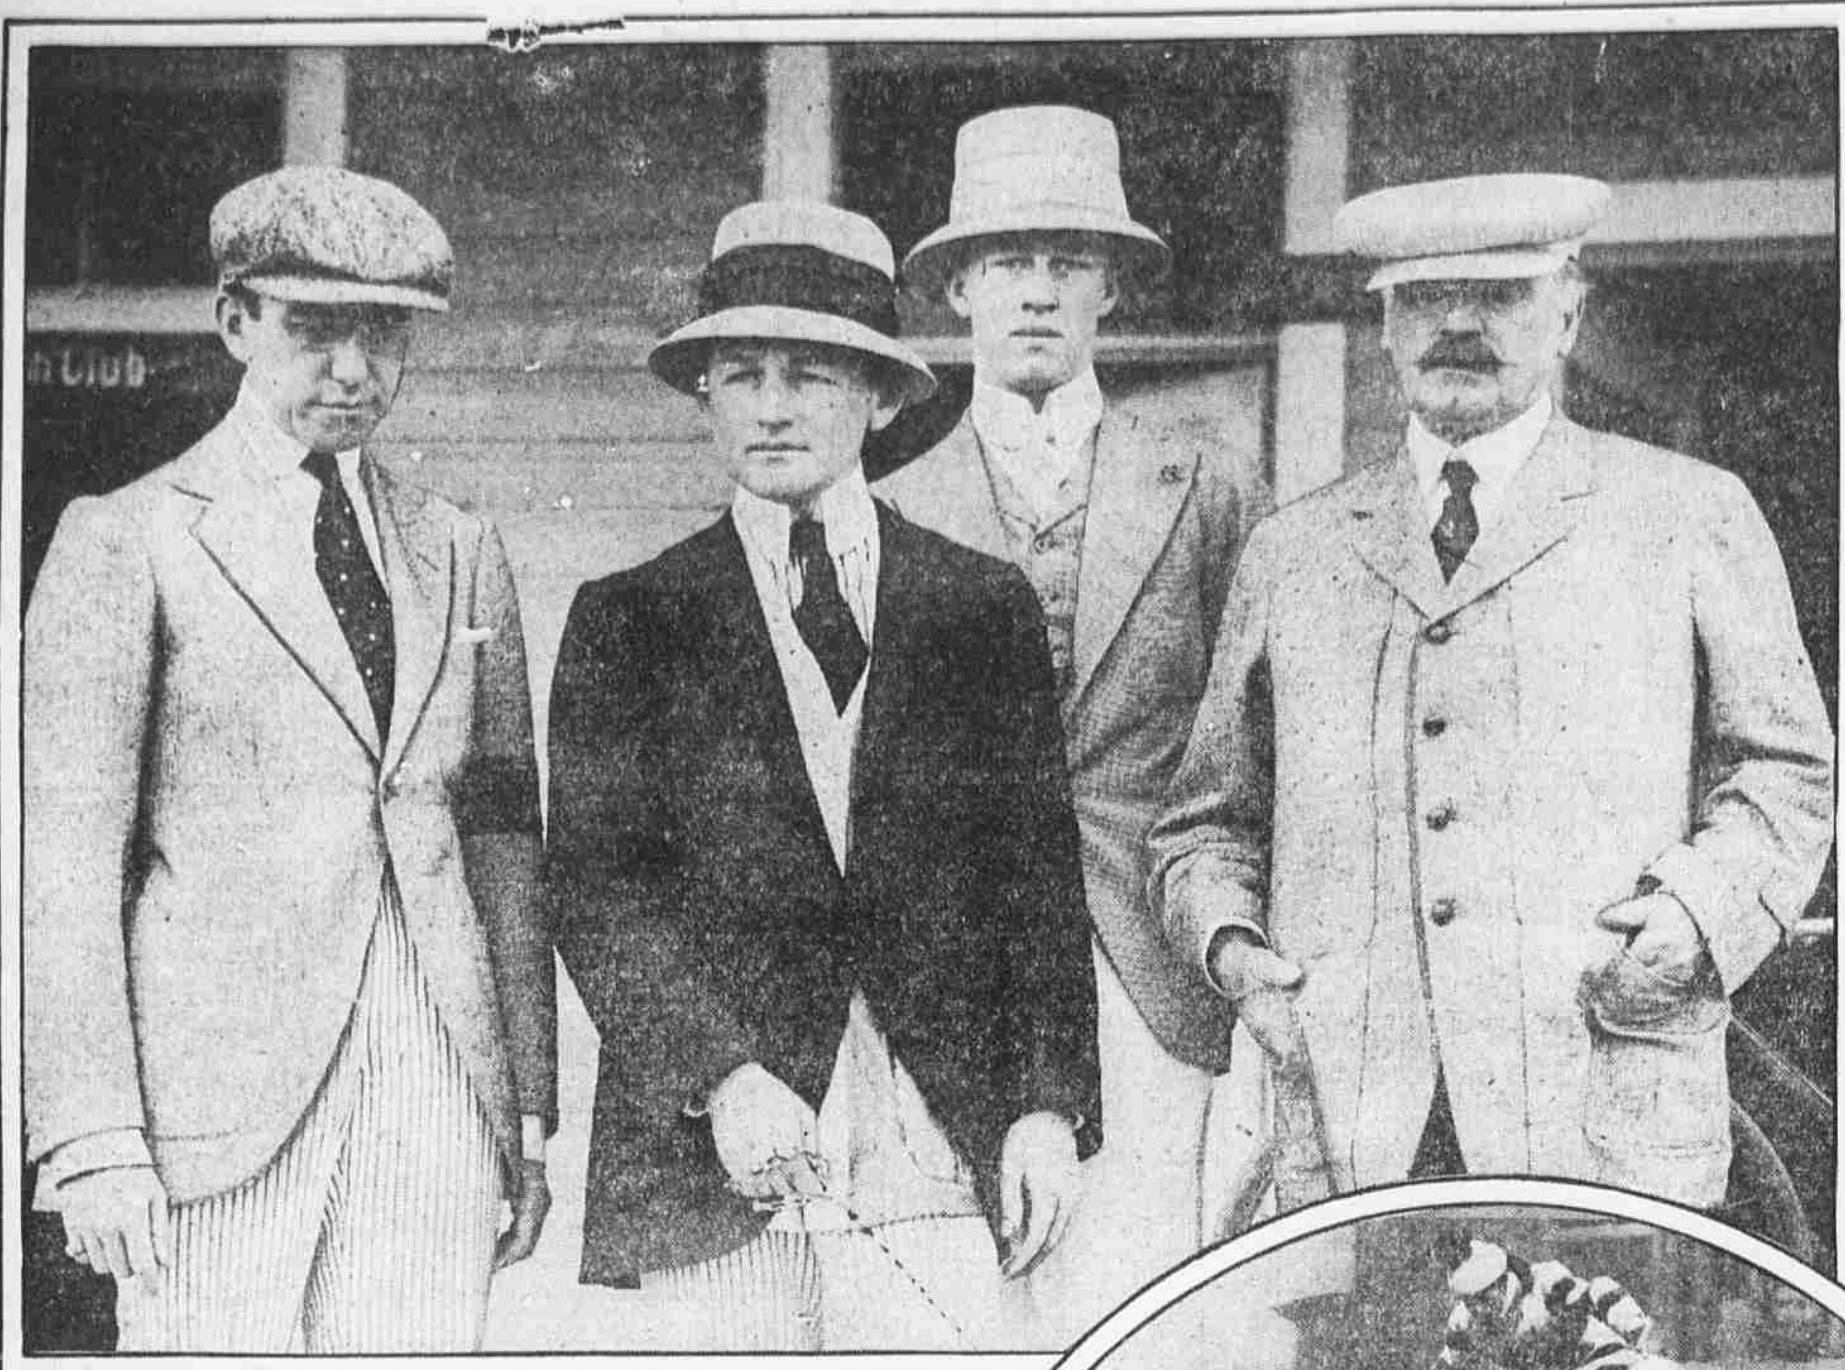

Photo by Underwood & Underwood
PRINCIPALS IN THE ST. CYR CASE, WHICH HAS MADE A STIR IN THE SOCIAL WORLD
 Left to right: Robert Swem or "von Schwenn," crony of St. Cyr; Jean Harald St. Cyr, who is declared to be Jack Thompson, of Waco, Tex.; C. O. Woodhouse, another crony of St. Cyr, and Major E. G. Pendleton, who is said to have introduced St. Cyr to his present wife, who was Mrs. J. H. Smith.

Photo by International Film Service
PALM BEACH'S LATEST BATHING SENSATION
 Every year the Florida resort sees one bathing costume beside which the others pale into insignificance. "This one was worn by a New York society woman."

"BOUNCING" BEAUTY OF NORTHWEST WINTER SPORT CARNIVAL
 This event in St. Paul, Minn., corresponds to the Mummer's parade in Philadelphia. Here is the Glacier Park Marching Club's idea of paying signal honors to its queen.

REPRESENTING PHILADELPHIA ON SOUTHERN SANDS
 Mrs. Gurnee Munn, who was Miss Marie Louise Wanamaker, and Mrs. Arturo de Heeren, who was Miss Fernanda Wanamaker, at Palm Beach.

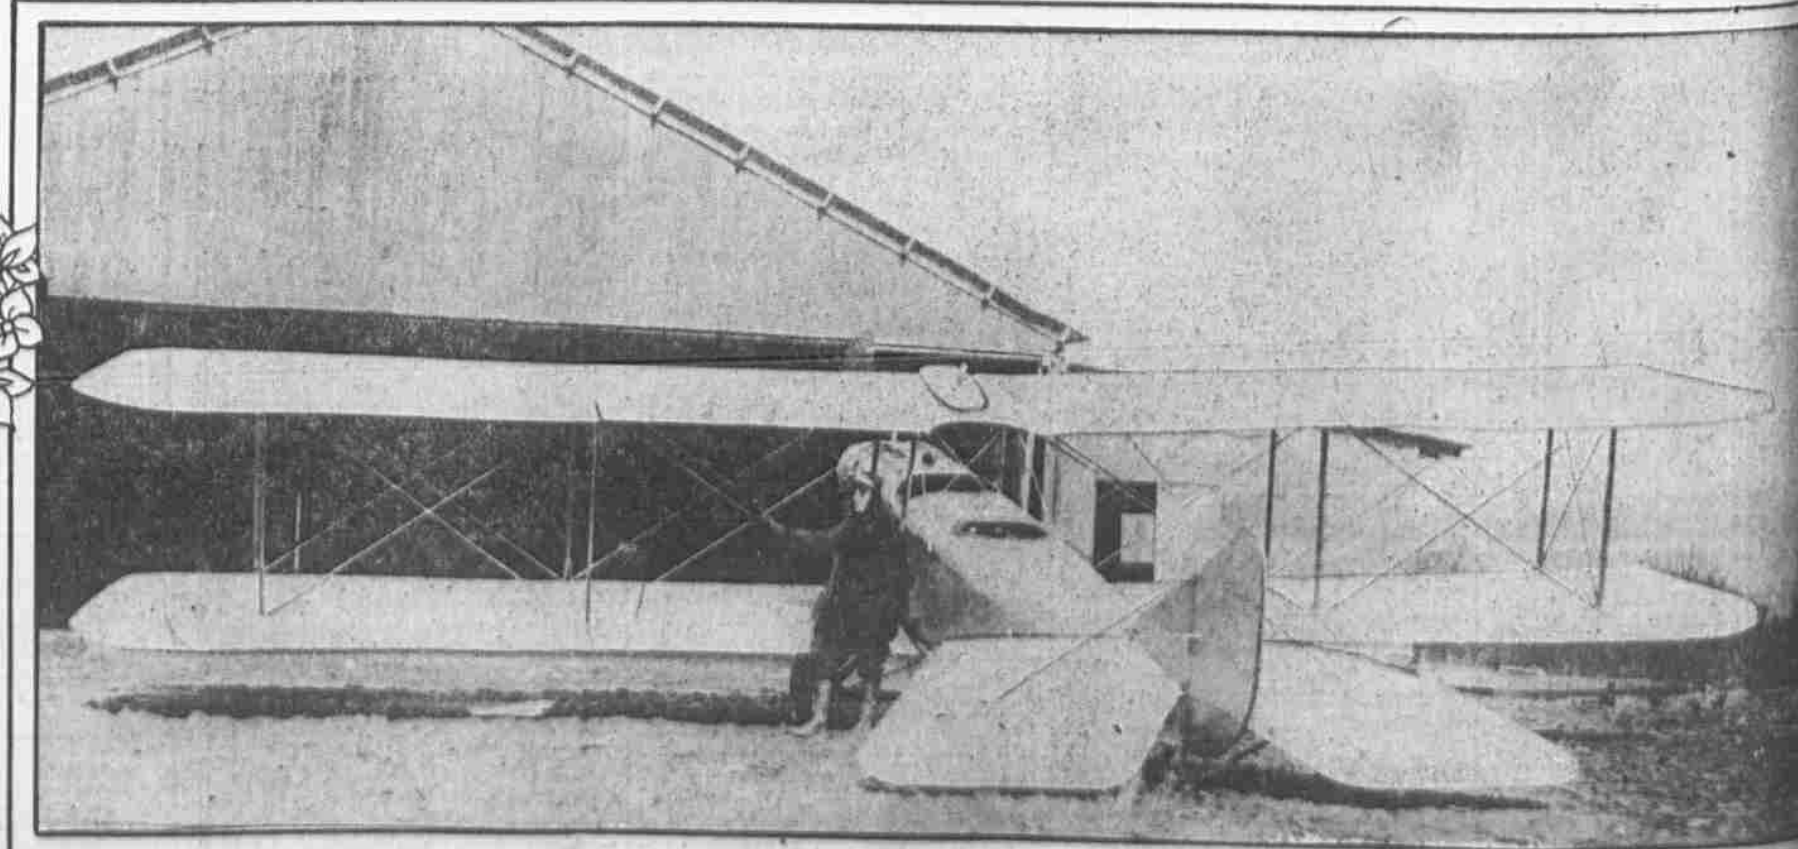

Photo by Underwood & Underwood
NEWEST UNITED STATES AEROPLANE BREAKS ALL AMERICAN SPEED RECORDS
 The Thomas Military Tractor, built at Ithaca, N. Y., in tests timed by representatives of the Aero Club flew at the rate of 95 miles an hour, five miles less than the reported speed of the German "Fokker" machine.