

WISCONSIN CASE
SETTLEMENT

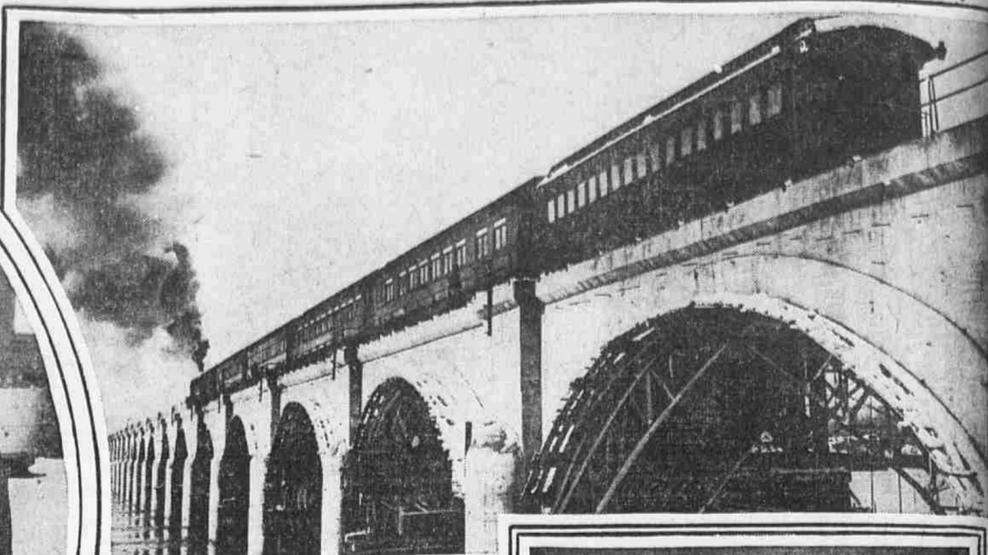

ILLUSTRATED
Evening Ledger

WEDNESDAY
February 9, 1916

SIDELIGHTS ON THE NEWS OF THE DAY AS GATHERED BY THE EVER-PRESENT CAMERA MAN

ACTRESS CONDUCTS RESEARCH WORK IN BIG PIE FOUNDRY
Miss Ray Cox, comedienne in a company now playing in this city, who is an expert pie-maker, believes that a good custard is the remedy for marital discord. To interest her friends she recently took a group of them to a giant bakery in Chicago. She appears here at the extreme right

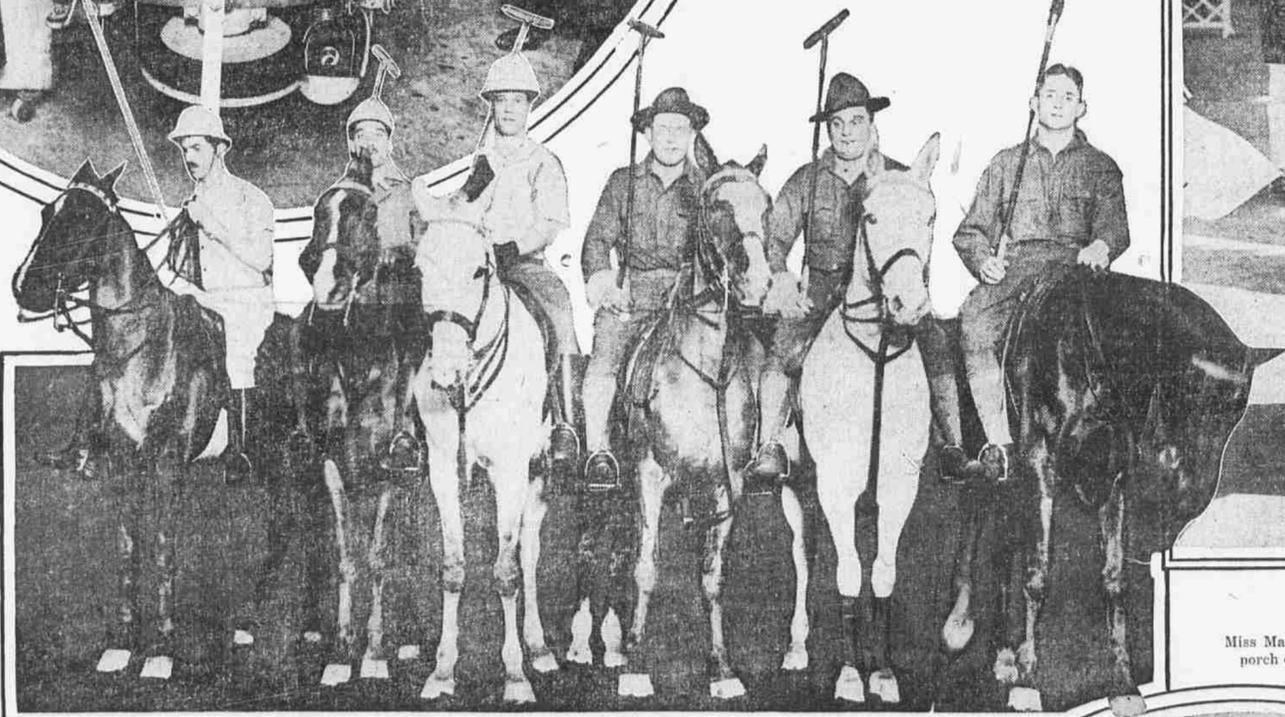

PRESIDENT'S TRAIN TESTS NEW MILLION DOLLAR BRIDGE

President Wilson's train crossing new million dollar concrete bridge of Cumberland Valley Railroad over the Susquehanna River at Mulberry street, Harrisburg. The Wilson train was the third to cross. Only one-half of the new bridge has been built. The old steel bridge will now be demolished and the second half of the new bridge built.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood
DANCING AT PALM BEACH
Miss Mary Warburton, of Philadelphia, dancing on the porch of the Breakers, at the Florida winter resort.

INDOOR POLO IS TRIED OUT BY CAVALRY HORSES

Left to right: L. M. Fleisher, Walter Rosback, Howard De Laney, Robert B. Shields, F. G. Smith and P. B. Smith, members of Troop A, 1st Regiment Cavalry, N. G. P., who had a game Tuesday night on the tanbark at the Aldine stables.

Photo by International Film Service
FLOODS SUBMERGE WHOLE TOWNS ALONG LENGTH OF THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY

This picture shows what happened to the town of Hickman, Ky. Inhabitants were driven entirely out of their homes and in many cases persons who were caught in upper garrets died from exposure and hunger. The devastation has extended far into Arkansas.

Photo by International Film Service
WED ON A DARE, NOW FACES DIVORCE SUIT
Mrs. Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, who has been appearing in the chorus of a musical show in this city, has started counter suit against her husband, who was a Princeton student.