TO HOLD RACES ENROUTE

"Salling Down the Chesapeake Bay" is a fitting ritle for the annual cruise of the various classes of boats of the Corinthian Facht Club, which has its headquarters on the Delaware River at Essington, Since its debut into the yachting game more than 25 years ago, after a split had eccurred in the ranks of the Philadelphia Yacht Club, in 1880, the Corinthian Yacht Club has been a great sponsor of fleet crusing.

Commodore Charles Longstretch, recently elected, is planning this extended cruise for the latter part of May, Old Point Comfort will be one of the stopping points and the central point will be at Annapolts. It is planned to hold races for the racesbouts and dinglys of the fleet at the various places enrouts.

Last season the cruise to Chesapeake waters was participated in by every sort of craft from the auxiliary schooner to the high-speed express cruiser. It was the first occusion for the club officers to try out the new regulations as regards to squadron managements.

Each season, starting in with the spring and continuing until late fall, the boat owners of the club fleet together for trips to distant points. In the early days when the three-masted, full-rigged schooners and sailing craft were the means of pleasure for the men who loved the water, the club gathered in all the boats belonging to the club fleet and set sail for Long Island, Boston and other points down East. Visits were paid the various yacht clubs along the Atlantic coast. When in the vicinity of New York and Marblehead, the Corinthian yachtemen competed in the races of test between Kilbane and Chancy in Philadelphia. A promater in your etty proposed the match to me and it looks as if they are trying to make Kilbane the gout. I said nothing shout Billy Rocap. He will referee if Chancy and Kilbane fight.

DOUGHERTY MEANS BUSINESS IN ANGLING FOR CHANEY AND KILBANE 15-ROUND CONTEST

Billy Rocap Will Referee, No Matter Where Bout Is Staged, Says Jimmy Dunn

Jimmy Dongherty will hang up a purse for 15 rounds and I am willing to box for him. In fact, I have accepted his terms. As for Harris and Bletzer, NOTHING DOING. I nover will box for them. This is FINAL, JIMMY DUNN.

Means Real Business

The entrance of Mr. Dougherty into the arena as a bidder for the match and the acceptance of his terms by Dunn for Kil-hans, presents a new angle to the affair. niface from Leiperville means busi The boulface from Letpervite means desires, and is on the job with a well-upholatered bankroll, which contains real money. His offer is a bona fide one in every respect, and, as Kilbane has accepted, it is up to Chancy to do the same.

"Yes, I am after the Kilbane-Chancy bout," said Dougherty today. "I am offerbout, said Dougherty today. "I am offer-ing $10,000 for the match, and am ready to go through with it when Chaney is ready to talk business. Where will the bout be held? Well, I really don't know as yet. However, it will be a 15-round affair, and the location will be announced as soon as both boxers sign the articles and post their forfeits. I might say right now, however, that the contest will NOT be held in Baltimore if I have anything to do with it." to do with it."

Judging from late developments, it Judging from late developments, it looks as if the challenger has most to say in this case. In a way, the challenger-meaning Chaney—is right, as articles for the Baltimore scrap have been signed, and Chaney merely is insisting that they be carried out to the letter. But no forfelts have been posted, so what are you going to do about it? Money is the best little conversationalist we know and until some of that stuff is exposed by the boxes, nothing serious can happen.

It must be realized, however, that werld's champion has the right to die tate some of the terms in a battle for the title. Kilbane has consented to box Changy 15 rounds. He will not meet Chancy at a club run by Sammy Harris and Bletzer. Jimmy Dougherty has of-fered $19,000 and his offer has been ac-cepted by Kilbane. Rocap has been as the referee. Everything now points to Chaney and it is up to him to make the next move.

Tiger Captain May Prove Dangerous Opponent for Penn Record Holder in Quarter

NEW quarter-miler appears over the A horizon. He is "Billy" Moore, captain of the Princeton track team. It was he who set such a hot pace in the New York A. C. games the other night that Ted Meredith was compelled to make a new world's record for the 500 yards in order

It looks as though Moore will be Mere dith's strongest competitor in the out-door I. C. A. A. A. championships. His chances to turn this trick last year were ruined by an accident which com-pelled him to give up competition alto-gether. A "pulled tendon" put him down and out.

his greatest ambition is to beat Meredith in the quarter mile. He did beat him once last spring in 49 1-5 seconds with the aid of a liberal handleap. Keene Fitz-patrick, his coach, thinks that Moore can beat 49 seconds from scratch and that if he does not beat Mcredith this year he will at least be the runner-up to him. Moore is even more famous as a foot-ball player than as a track man. He was principally responsible for the Tigers' great second half rally against Yale in | to win a permanent place.
