FRENCH FLEET PATROLLING THE MEDITERRANEAN

A picture taken from the forward deck of a member of the cruiser squadron. These watchdogs had a monotonous time of it for a while, but since German and Austrian submarines have begun to operate in the Mediterranean their task is no longer easy.

A SCENE CUT OUT OF A FILM BY THE PENNSYLVANIA CENSORS

This was one of the elisions from the photoplay entitled "Virtue," which brought about the decision permitting "movie" makers to obtain relief by appealing to the courts.

AMERICAN AMBULANCE HOSPITAL, AT PARIS, IN CHARGE OF COUPLE WELL KNOWN IN THIS CITY

This is a scene inside the convalescent ward of the war hospital at Neuilly, just outside Paris. In the midst of the group of soldiers, most of whom bear terribly disfigured faces, are Dr. and Mrs. Hunter Scarlett. The former is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was a famed gridiron star.
