

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

WEDNESDAY
February 16, 1916

SIDELIGHTS ON THE NEWS OF THE DAY AS GATHERED BY THE EVER-PRESENT CAMERA MAN

By Walter Williams Sharpley, Architect.
PROPOSED BRIDGE FROM PHILADELPHIA TO CAMDEN
Once again this project to build a highway over the Delaware is under discussion. The picture reveals exactly how the structure would look.

Photo by International Film Service.
THE GOVERNOR AND HIS BRIDE AT PITTSBURGH
From a snapshot made on the return journey from Pinehurst, N. C., where Governor Brumbaugh and bride, who was Miss Flora Park, have been spending their honeymoon.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THE SLIPPERY WEATHER
Miss Zaina Curzon, of the "Twin Beds" company, now playing in this city, tries out in Fairmount Park the toboggan presented to her by an admirer.

VICTORIOUS AUSTRIAN VETERANS REVIEWED BY ARCHDUKE FREDERICK
The Teutonic troops under General von Bothmer, who for several months held back the Russian efforts to reinvade Galicia, were inspected on their return to Lemberg by their commander-in-chief.

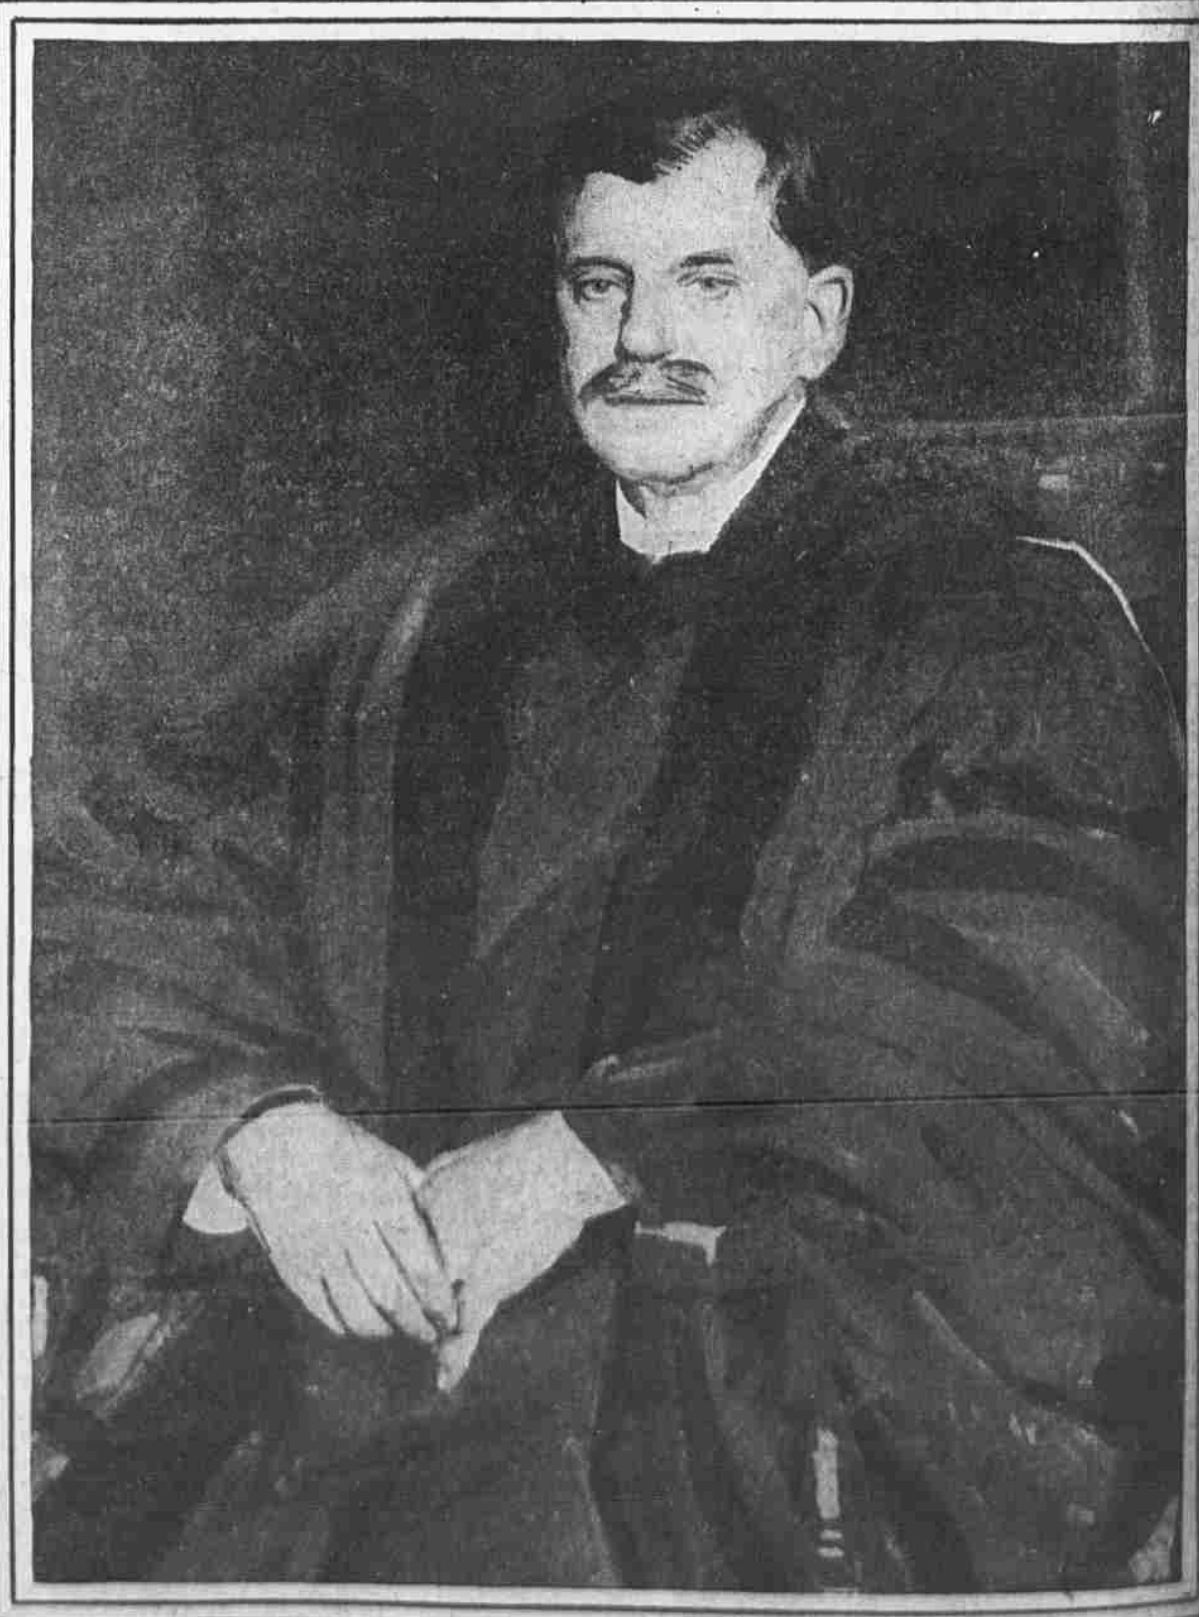

Photo by W. Coulbourn Brown.
PORTRAIT TO BE PRESENTED TO TEMPLE UNIVERSITY TODAY
This painting of Dr. Russell H. Conwell by L. G. Seyfert will be presented this evening at the Founder's Day exercises in the Academy of Music.