NANCY WYNNE GOSSIPS ABOUT ONE OF THE LAST DEB AFFAIRS

Mr. and Mrs. A. Maxwell Sheppard Will Entertain at a Dance This Evening at the Merion Cricket Club. Various Other Affairs of Interest

MR. AND MRS. A. MAXWELL John G. Eustis, Mrs. William H. Greene, Mrs. Thomas Brinton, Miss Nina Lea. Mrs. Luther Conradi, Mrs. Abram H. Wintersteen, Mrs. N. Scammon Jones and Mrs. Louis F. Benson. daughters, Carolyn and Mildred, and for Eleanor Verner, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Verner These little debs are among the greatest favorites this year, and have been having a perfectly splendid time. There have been no end of entertainments for them, and this one will be particularly delightful, for the ballroom of the clubhouse is particularly well adapted as a proper background for a private dance. There will be a good many dinners before the dance. Mrs. Robert Sayre Brodhead will give one of 20 covers at the cricket club in henor of her daughter Frances. Dr. and Mrs. Perry Allen will entertain for Agnes, the Willard Spensers will give a dinner for Claire and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Oberteuffer will entertain for Dorothea.

I hear that Donald Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lovering Jones, who was a member of the Ford peace party, will not, like the other members, come home to roost, but has decided to prolong his stay at The Hague. Perhaps he will be a little peace party all to himself. As for me, I prefer the wide and mighty ocean between me and the other side of the world just now.

Mrs. Walter Jackson Freeman is entertaining at a theatre party and tea afterward at the Bellevue-Stratford for Mary Laird, whose wedding to Jack Myers will take place on Wednesday of next week. Mary is a pretty little maiden, with light fluffy hair and hazel eyes. She came out last year and was one of the first of last season's debe to announce her engagement this year, The members of her bridal party will be guests at the luncheon. They are Corinne Freeman, Catherine Newbold, Janet Faries, Elizabeth Kennedy, Rebecca Lycett, Anne Myers, of Washington, and Frances Iredell, of Plain-

Mrs. William Simpson, Jr., who has that beautiful place in Overbrook, will give a luncheon to Mary and her bridesmalds on Tuesday, the 29th.

Does your husband know you're out? Or if out, does he know where you are? This momentous question is due to a sad, sad incident which took place recently. I was dining out at a friend's home and the bell rang loudly. We heard a very nice voice inquiring in quite an audible tone, "Is my wife here?" On receiving a negative reply the voice became lower and rather confidential: "Well, can you tell us where our wives are? There are three of us, you see, and we are all in the same boat" The poor things were in a dreadful state of confusion. Their wives had gone out to a sewing circle which is in existence along the Reading way, and each had told hubby to call for her. Hubbies happened to meet on their quest and not a one of them knew where to go. They had forgotten to ask them where they would be, so they wandered about the country searching. The story ends there, for we heard no more, I only hope they finally discovered them, for they sounded most forlorn and, too, I have not seen any ads in the lost and found department. One wife lost was bad enough, but heavens, think of three! NANCY WYNNE.
