

FOOTBALL RULES COMMITTEE HELD ANNUAL SESSION IN NEW YORK—OTHER SPORTS

FOOTBALL CODE WILL BE OVERHAULED AT MEETING OF RULES COMMITTEE TONIGHT

Only Changes Necessary Are in Ambiguous Wordings in Several Places—Folwell Represents Penn

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

Rules for 1916 will be given the once over in New York tonight when the members of the Rules Committee meet at the Hotel Hamilton.

Many changes will be made before the session adjourns. It is likely to be done, but it is doubtful if the conversation will have any serious effect on the playing code.

It is possible that the suggestions made by Philadelphia officials in a post-season meeting held in the Hotel Walton last December will be adopted tonight. The local writers discovered many flaws in the language of the rule book, and these discoveries have been shipped to the members of the committee.

The "Punter Puzzle"

One of the chief questions to be taken up is "When does a punter have to kick the ball?" The rules protect the man kicking the ball. An opponent is not allowed to run into a punter after he has kicked the ball, and severe penalties are inflicted for infractions. If the foul is intentional, the penalty is 15 yards; if it is unintentional, the penalty is five yards. The committee has decided to change this rule so that the punter has finished his work and becomes a tackler or member of the defensive team.

Clearer interpretations also have been asked on other rules, especially Rule 3, Section 1, which states that the backfield must be at least one yard behind the line of scrimmage when the ball is put in play. The only extension of this rule is that the man who stands behind the center and first receives the ball. This was taken to mean that the quarterback had the right to remain in the onside zone provided he took the ball from the snapper back.

May Number Players

The question of numbering the players is up again, and perhaps the moguls will see fit to make it compulsory next fall. The last year, and the coaches should be shown the error of their ways. It is impossible for the spectators to distinguish between the various players in the big games, and this takes away the principal attraction. At the Army and Navy game in New York last year no one knew who was doing the good work, and guessing games were in vogue after the game.

Willard Says He Can; Can He? Is Question

Willard! Willard! Tell me truly, Can you win that fight? Will you duck that most unruly punch in Francis Moran's right? Can you with a right cross cut him? Do you think that you can stop him? Is there any chance you'll drop him on that mooted night? Willard! Willard! They have told me, Whispered in my ear, That this Frank Moran has boldly said that he would interfere With your breathing apparatus, Giving you a lesson gratis, As he shifts for "heavy" status, When he fights you here.

Pittsburgh sprang something new on the public, when every man on the football team wore a number on his back. Soon other teams tried it, and the plan was voted a huge success. The spectators found the games more interesting, and the cheer leaders found no difficulty in yelling for the proper persons. A strong effort will be made tonight to put Pitt's original idea into the rule books.

Folwell Is Cautious

"I want to have something to say when the rules are being tampered with," said Folwell. "Something is likely to happen at the meeting, and one must be on his toes. I don't want to be in a position where I am preparing some plays for next fall, and adverse rulings would render them useless."

W. and L. Players Here

Several members of the Washington and Lee football team were in Philadelphia tonight, resting up after the hard basketball game with Swarthmore on Wednesday. Captain Young, one of the fastest backs in the South; Ted Shultz, All-American tackle and captain of the team; and several other players, including an end, are members of the quintet, which is now touring the East. Bill Raftery, the coach, also is one of the gridiron tourists at the university.

Washington and Lee made a great record on the football field last year, and promises to repeat in 1916. Shultz is the only man lost from the 1915 championship eleven, but there are many candidates to select from to fill the vacancy. Next year the team plays Washington and Jefferson, Rutgers, the Army and Navy, and at North, and takes on Georgia Tech, at Atlanta, and North Carolina A. M., at Raleigh. In Southern championship games, the team will play at Lexington in the past two seasons, has been secured to coach the team again next fall.

An effort will be made to arrange a game with the University of Virginia next fall. The two colleges have a long history of relations, several years ago, and alumni from both schools have been working hard to bring them together. A battle between these colleges would be one of the greatest staged before the Mason and Dixon line.

TENTH STRAIGHT VICTORY SCORED BY GERMANTOWN

Manheim Athletes Set Fast Pace in Cage Game. Burnett a Star

OTHER SCHOOL NEWS

Ten straight victories is the record for the Germantown High School basketball players as a result of the contest played with the Abington High School quintet at Germantown yesterday afternoon.

It was an easy win for the Manheim team, the final score being 46 to 13. The Germantown team was out of sync from the start, and the Manheim players showed good form. Captain Burnett was the high scorer, with eight out of ten foul goals to his credit, and three field goals. Collins, his teammate at forward, also did some clever work. He made six field goals, Hetzner, the big center, and Fisher, who replaced him in the second half, each landed a couple of two-pointers. Grouver, the guard, was the individual star of the game. He scored six field goals and was on his toes every minute of the time.

Abington High was simply outplayed and had to admit defeat to a stronger and swifter aggregation of players. Harry Fincke, Danahoe, Moore, and Christman represented the Abington High School, and though the team were the victors, they worked hard. There was no question which way the game would go, for Germantown High led at the end of the first half 25 to 9.

The William H. Klinebauer, symbol of the Episcopal Academy field hockey championship, was won yesterday by the Sixth Form athletes in the game with the Sixth Upper, the former squad winning by seven goals to three. The members of the winning team were: William H. Klinebauer, captain, and Victor Price, Cassard, Robb and MacFarlane. Klinebauer has the honor of leading the victorious team.

The Millville-Swarthmore Club, made up of basketball players who are in the first year at Swarthmore College, was not strong enough to defeat the Swarthmore High School team in the game played in the Germantown gymnasium yesterday afternoon. The Swarthmore team, 43 to 24, Swarthmore High, with Reese, Pendergast, and others, also did some clever work. The situation was in hand, Parley and Deoney, two of the Swarthmore High substitutes, also made a very good showing.

The sixth upper team also made a very good showing in the Episcopal Academy field hockey game, the sixth upper team defeating the first upper team by seven goals to three. The members of the winning team were: William H. Klinebauer, captain, and Victor Price, Cassard, Robb and MacFarlane. Klinebauer has the honor of leading the victorious team.

PHILADELPHIA LOSES ARMY-NAVY GAME

Local Committee Informed Definitely Contest Will Go to New York

The Army-Navy football game will not be played in Philadelphia this year. The military and naval academies have agreed to play in New York.

James J. McGraw, chairman of the Philadelphia Army and Navy Committee, received today from Annapolis a telegram which made it certain that the efforts of the Philadelphia committee to bring the game here had failed. The dispatch, signed by Lieutenant C. E. Smith, U. S. N., was as follows:

West Point and Annapolis have agreed to play the 1916 football game in New York.

Lieutenant Smith is secretary-treasurer of the Navy Athletic Association at Annapolis. In discussing the loss of the game to this city, Mr. Herlet said:

"Our committee did everything within its power to retain the game for Philadelphia as per the agreement entered into by the Army and Navy Athletic Association officials in 1914. On February 16 we wired an offer of $10,000 to the Army and Navy Athletic Association. If this year's game was staged in Philadelphia, we repeated this offer by wire on February 23 to the Army and Navy committee held at the Hotel Baltimore, in New York city, and this morning we wired Lieutenant Smith to find if consideration would be given to the use of Shibe Park, and his telegram was the result."

"The Philadelphia committee feels that it did everything within its power to retain the game, and regrets that the agreement entered into by the Army and Navy officials two years ago was not adhered to."

TRAVERS TO PLAY AT MERION

Open Golf Champion to Compete in but One Tourney

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Jerome D. Travers, open golf champion of the United States, expects to make only one appearance in the amateur championship to be played in September over the course of the Merion Cricket Club, of Philadelphia.

"I have no idea," said Mr. Travers, "that I will be able to defend my title in the open championship that is to be held in Philadelphia. This last tournament would mean at least a week away from business. I should prefer to play in the amateur championship, but could not possibly fill both engagements."

Miss Walsh Wins at Indoor Tennis

Singles Tournament at 23d and Arch Streets Is Concluded Today

Miss Phyllis Walsh won the first championship tournament in singles of the Women's Indoor Tennis Club today by defeating Miss Eliza M. Fox in the final round by two sets to one in 9-7, 6-3. The final in doubles between the teams of Miss Walsh-Mrs. T. H. Schleicher, Jr., and Mrs. C. L. Wainwright-Miss C. T. Chase, which also was scheduled, will not be played until next week, probably Monday, owing to the fact that all four contestants could not get together today.

The first set of the final singles, which was played at the club headquarters at 23d and Arch streets, was particularly hard fought. In a majority of the matches in the earlier rounds the play throughout was generally of the back-court variety, with but few rallies to the net. But today both Miss Walsh and Miss Fox played hard to gain the strategic position at the net, with the former a little more successful than her opponent. Miss Fox relied principally on sideline shots that were played with great accuracy. Fox's most part each player won on her opponent's service, and a majority of the games went to deuce. With the score standing seven to six in the second set, Fox was down to the net, and she captured the game to 20.

After two-sets in the second set Miss Fox won the match, 20 to 12, then 4-2. Miss Fox rallied in the seventh game, scoring two service aces and two pretty passes. Her opponent then ran out the next two games for the set and match.

WILLARD ARRIVES IN NEW YORK FOR BOUT WITH MORAN

Champion Feels "Fit" and Starts Training for Big Fight

BIG ADVANCE SEAT SALE

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Ruddy of cheek and showing no signs of his recent "illness," Jess Willard arrived in New York today from Chicago to train for his coming bout with Frank Moran. The heavy-punching champion said that he was feeling good and would get down to training at once.

Willard was the hero of a gathering at the Grand Central Station. The crowd followed him to his taxicab, negro porters and a large number of admirers who had watched Jack Johnson into unconsciousness at Havana. The fighter was accompanied by his manager, Tom Jones, and several other members of his retinue.

The party was met by Tex Rickard, promoter of the match with Moran, who was the happiest man at the station. He said that Willard appeared "very fit," and that all doubt of the match taking place had been removed.

From the station Willard and his party drove to the Hotel Willard, and then to the Pioneer Athletic Club, where the champion will have his training quarters. After Willard arrived, it was announced that the advance sale of seats for the fight already amounted to $78,000.

"I'm in fine shape right now," declared Willard. "I weigh 257 pounds, not 280 or 300, as some of the reports have it. The general impression is that my year of idleness from ring work has fattened me. Well, it hasn't. I've kept in shape right along."

"I can carry 257 pounds very easily and it may be that I will go into the ring against Moran weighing only a trifle under that mark."

Willard planned to begin training late in the afternoon, but it was likely that this program will be changed, owing to the fact that Jack Hemple and Walter Monahan, his sparring partners, didn't arrive until late in the day.
